

A Curious Suit for Damages.

A judgment against a railway superintendent and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls. who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I am confident I should have lost both of them one night if I had not had the Hop Bitters in my house to use. I found they done them so much good I continued with them, and they are now well. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B., Rochester, N. Y. 46.

THE SUN FOR 1879.

THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall. THE SUN has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the truth and the own consciences of its writers. That is the only policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any political class, sect or party. There is no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is THE SUN'S idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programs for 1879.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, literary and general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before, and we mean to apply them freely.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily Sun, a four page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, a five page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid. The Sunday Edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.40 a copy. For clubs of ten send $10 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten send $10 a year, postage paid. Address: T. S. FOR 1879. THE PRESS.

"THE BEST PAPER."

THE Proprietors of The Press announce that they have strengthened their force in every department in order to meet the demands of business, politics and the general interests of the opening season, adding largely to its editorial corps and staff of correspondents, and extending the range and efficiency of its business machinery. As they have done in the past they will steadily continue to do, and they promise for 1879 the same regular progress which has marked the work of 1878. Resulting on the solid basis of substantial return they are in position to systematically add to and strengthen in every direction the various departments which go to make up a great Daily Paper, and shall do so.

FIRST IN THE FIELD. EARLY MORNING EDITION. EARLY MORNING EDITION. EARLY MORNING EDITION. EARLY MORNING EDITION. EARLY MORNING EDITION.

We have successfully achieved the issuing of an Early Morning Edition, which leaves this city in advance of any other Philadelphia and all the New York Morning Dailies, and gives THE PRESS command of Pennsylvania and the entire South. The exclusive control for several hours (sometimes a whole day) of this wide range of territory is an achievement which the advertisers of Philadelphia and the general community have been prompt to recognize and make use of in their own interests. This edition leaves Philadelphia before any New York paper can possibly get here, and the commanding position attained by THE PRESS through this strategic move in the field of journalism is thus secured to it permanently.

LEADING REPUBLICAN JOURNAL OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Now, as in the past, THE PRESS stands in the front of the Republican column. Independent in conduct, but Republican in faith, it represents the whole party, and is the organ or instrument of no faction, section or element in it. It contends to-day for honest money and good administration, and will ever defend the right, as, in the future, new issues of party are developed with the historical and political development of the country.
