

The Bloomfield Times.

HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

Tomatoes for Supper.

Few people know how to prepare uncooked tomatoes in the way adopted in my family, and incomparably better than any mode I have ever tasted.

Saving Cabbage Till Spring.

We know no better way to preserve cabbage through the winter than that which we have recommended for a number of years.

A Post-Hole Digger.

Among the new inventions designed to lighten the labor of digging post-holes, is a double, round-pointed shovel or spade, the two parts being connected like the two blades of a pair of shears or pinchers.

Roots and their Lengths.

Mr. Foot, in Massachusetts, has traced the tap root of a common red clover plant downward to the perpendicular depth of nearly 5 feet.

Farmers Brain Work.

Brain work, and that of the clearest kind, comes into profitable play quite as well on the farm as anywhere else.

Ground Tea.

A French chemist asserts that if tea be ground like coffee, immediately before hot water is poured upon it, it will yield nearly double the amount of its exhilarating qualities.
