

THE TIMES

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 26th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing stations and times.

Brief Items.

On Saturday the mountains at the upper part of this county were white with snow. Last Thursday night was a beautiful night to stay in the house.

Rev. Mr. Colliflower, a former pastor of the Reformed church in this place was on a visit to this county last week. Mr. George S. Barnett will deliver an address at Ariview School house on next Friday evening.

It is expected that Rev. John Laird of Juniata county, will lecture in the Presbyterian church in this borough on Saturday evening of this week. Dr. J. P. Clark has been appointed postmaster at Newport.

Abram Evans will sell at his residence in Loysville, on Friday, December 13th, 1878, four wagons and a large stock of new furniture. There will be a First Grand Re-union of the Veteran Soldiers of Juniata county, on Wednesday, December 18th, 1878. Bills are already out.

Mr. James North, of Patterson, had a valuable steer smothered under a straw stack a short time since. He was covered while the farmer was threshing.

On Friday evening, the 15th inst., a coal meeting was held in the German school house, at which some stock was subscribed for. We learn that Mr. Solomon Bernheisel, of Tyrone twp., while boring for water near his residence, discovered one which contains ninety-five per cent. of iron.

A colored lad named Mills had his foot mashed by a freight train, at Duncannon on Friday a week. The lad was sent to the hospital at Harrisburg, where his foot was amputated.

Wild turkies have not been plenty this season. The finest one found in this vicinity was an 18 pound gobbler shot by Ed Clouser. He had shot two the same day.

Judge Junkin has decided that "both necessity and charity require that trains carrying live stock and perishable freight be run upon Sunday, and that the statute of 1794 is not violated thereby."

We thought Cornmas of the Carlisle Mirror was in remarkable good humor the other day when he called on us. The notice in the marriage column explains the matter, and shows that it was all "Wright."

The First District Union Sabbath School Association of Perry county will meet in convention at Milford on Saturday and Sunday, December 14th and 15th, beginning on Saturday at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Teachers' Institute at Lancaster, Pa., last week held its session in the Court-house. Nearly all the teachers of the county belong to the association. The daily attendance was about one thousand.

Nearly all the farmers around here have provided themselves with ammunition and are prepared now to give lead injections, to sneak thieves. It is the only good remedy and should be given plentifully.

The sheepplaw, which was voted upon in many of the counties of this state at the recent election, appears to have been rejected in every instance, and generally by large majorities. In this county no vote was taken on the question.

The People's Freight Railway was again sold by the Sheriff on Friday last. Jacob Bevens was the purchaser for the price of $140. Most persons will wonder if this sum is not $110 more than it is worth.

There is an old law in this state which provides that all persons who use profane language are amenable to it, and upon conviction may be fined $100 and suffer an imprisonment of three months. If the law was enforced the fines would soon remove the need of any other tax.

Sudden Death.—On Friday last Gilbert Brayan, of Duncannon, ate his dinner as usual, but in two hours after was dead. The cause was supposed to be rheumatism of the heart.

January Court.—Judge Junkin has ordered that the January Term, 1879, shall continue for two weeks, and that thirty-two jurors be summoned for the second week, thirty-eight, being summoned for the first week.

Sheep Stolen.—A few nights since some person took and killed three sheep from the farm of David Tressler, in Centre township. They were butchered but a short distance from the barn. One of the sheep belonged to C. N. McKeehan, and had been turned in with Mr. Tressler's temporarily.

Accidentally Shot.—On Sunday morning Amos, son of Wm. Garlin, of Centre twp., was badly wounded by a pistol ball passing through his hand. He was fooling with it, when it was accidentally discharged, the ball breaking some of the small bones. Another instance of "didn't know the thing was loaded." Dr. Sweeney dressed the injuries.

Quarterly Meeting.—The Quarterly meeting for New Bloomfield circuit M. E. Church will be held at Mt. Gilead Saturday and Sunday next. Preaching Saturday 10 A. M. and 7 P. M., Sunday Lovefeast 9 A. M. Preaching 10 A. M., 6 P. M., Dr. Mitchell, P. E. will preach Sunday evening. There will be preaching every night next week.

A Severe Fall.—A few days ago as John Foltz was working on the lime kiln of H. F. Smith in Carroll township, he managed to fall from the embankment to the stone pile below, a distance of at least 25 feet. He was picked up insensible, but soon came to, when he was placed in a wagon and brought to town where Dr. Ard fixed up several severe scalp wounds. Aside from this the young man seemed to suffer no inconvenience from his severe fall.

Infanticide.—On Thursday the second writ of habeas corpus ever known in Juniata county was served on the Deputy Sheriff, John C. Moser, to compel him to bring before his Honor, Judge Junkin, Mrs. Mary Shineloff and her daughter Nancy, to enable them to secure bail, they being charged with the killing of the infant of the said daughter, on oath of John Wesley McNew. After hearing the testimony of McNew, his mother and sister, Mrs. Stuart, the Court decided that the offence was not bailable, and remanded both the persons to jail. McNew and sister both swore positively to seeing Mrs. Shineloff strike the baby with a billet of wood, and that she took it out; that the daughter shoved it away from her with remarks indicating that its death would not be a calamity. They also swore to the necessary indications pointing to Nancy as its mother, and to seeing the next day some of the positive evidences being removed.

Narrow Escape.—On Monday morning Miss Annie Aultz, of Tyrone, who was the guest of J. Q. A. Gantt and wife, made a quite narrow escape from being badly burned by her clothes catching on fire while she was standing too close to the kitchen range. The skirt of her dress coming in contact with the hot stove, the garment took fire, the flames shooting up her back in an alarming manner. She was the first to discover her unpleasant situation, and Miss Nanette settling coming to her assistance, the flames were extinguished before any injury had been done to her person, although her outer garments were considerably scorched.

Painful Accident.—Mrs. Groff, an aged lady residing on Broad street near Fulton—who was run over by a team last summer—while attending the door bell last evening, fell down a flight of steps with a coal oil lamp in her hand injuring herself severely. The old lady fainted when she fell, but was not injured by the coal oil, only very severely bruised.

Misses, and Ladies' Coats.—A Philadelphia Manufacturer of Misses and Ladies coats will open a line of samples of these goods in Bloomfield at Mortimer's store room, on Tuesday, November 19th, where they will be for examination during the next two weeks. Call and see them.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week. Ex Sheriff Loudon, one day last week, dropped a roll of money amounting to $40, in passing along the street. The Sheriff will give a liberal reward to the finder, if he will return the money; which the finder will do if he is honest.

Last week, while attending a sale on the farm of Jacob Ludwig, near Oriental, Mr. Jacob Gladfelder, a young man of about eighteen years of age, engaged in playing base-ball, and while on a run, stumbled and fell, and got an arm out of joint at the elbow. The arm was set again by a few of the neighbors, and he is doing well.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week. The Shippensburg Chronicle says: There are a number of cases of scarlet fever in Carlisle, and the same may be said of this place.

The jury in the case of the Com. vs. Wm. Geese, after a few hours deliberation, brought in a verdict of guilty in the second degree, about nine o'clock on Monday evening. The counsel for the defendant, W. J. Shearer, Esq., immediately filed a motion for a new trial; We have not heard whether the motion has been argued or not, or what disposition has been made of the prisoner. On Monday evening a sneak thief in some way got into the residence of C. W. Weaver, Esq., on West Main street, and gathered together a lot of articles, principally clothing, and was about packing them for transportation in a table cover when he was disturbed. He ran up to the attic and out upon the roof, which, by a succession of back building, descends almost to the ground. Only a few articles were carried off, the rest being scattered over the rooms and stairways. It was the boldest attempt at thieving that has occurred in Carlisle for some time.

One day last week, Mr. Joseph Eberly, residing in Hampden township, this county, lost eight head of fine cattle under the following circumstances: He turned the cattle, consisting of six steers, a cow and a calf, into a field of corn for the purpose of eating the rubbins, and it seems that the ears contained a considerable quantity of smut, and the cattle having eaten very heartily of the grain, closing up the passage, thereby stopping digestion, from the effects of which the cattle died soon afterwards. We have been informed that the steers weighing over 1,000 pounds each, and the cow and calf were valuable. Reports have it that Messrs. Simmons and Voglesong, of Silver Spring township, and Mr. Senseman, of Hampden township, also lost several fine cattle in like manner this fall.

Teachers' Institute.—The annual teachers' institute will be held in the Court House at Bloomfield, commencing on Monday, December 2nd, at 1 o'clock P. M. Papers relating to the teachers' profession, methods of teaching the various branches, etc., will be proposed and read by teachers of experience in the county, and afterwards discussed by the Institute. In addition to our home instructors, the following educators from a distance will give instruction, class-drills, etc.: Prof. J. H. Shumaker, Chambersburg; Miss Lalia E. Partridge, Philadelphia; Prof. Edward Brooks, Millersville; Col. J. P. Sanford will lecture on Wednesday evening; Wednesday will be "Director's Day," when subjects of special interest to directors will be discussed. As the law requires boards of directors to grant their teachers the time to attend the county institutes without reducing their salaries, it is expected that all teachers in the county will be present. Arrangements will be made to secure boarding at reduced rates. Teachers, directors, and all friends of education are most cordially invited to attend the institute and take part in its exercises. S. B. FAHNESTOCK, County Supt. Duncannon, Nov. 9, 1878.
