HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

We invite communications from all persons who are interested in matters properly belonging to this department.

Farming Under the Sea.

What can't be done in New England in the way of "turning an honest penny," can't be done anywhere. Here is one of the ways in which Scituate, Mass., turns over $50,000 a year.

The fact is not generally known, that within three hours ride of Boston a large and profitable business has been carried on since 1848, along the seashore, and which is nothing more or less than "farming under the sea."

Everywhere upon the coast of eastern New England may be found, about ten feet below the water mark, the lichen known as the carrageen, the "Irish Moss," of commerce. It may be torn from the sunken rocks anywhere, and yet the little sea-port of Scituate is almost the only place in the country where it is gathered and cured. This is the great center of the moss business in the country, and the entire Union draws its supplies from those beaches.

Egg Eating Hens.

I wish to give your readers a little of my experience regarding egg eating hens. I once had a very fine lot of B. B. R. Games, and thought a good deal of them, but after all the care I gave them they were mean enough to eat their eggs as soon as laid.

Australia Farm Troubles.

A plague of rabbits is upon some portions of the Australian colonies. Farmers shoot, trap and poison them, and legislators have tried in vain to rid the country of the evil. Poison is the most convenient and expeditious agent get employed, but it can only be used in winter when green food is scarce.

A Lady's Wish.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure rich blood and blooming health. It does it for me, as you observe."

THE POST WRITER calls it "a complete success." Acts upon the reader like a tonic. The editorial department is especially strong.—Boston Transcript.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON A MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR THE HOUSEHOLD.

Presenting only original matter, equal in literary merit to the leading secular monthlies, and sustains to the religious press a relation similar to their to the secular press. It aims to have in all its essays, serials, stories, poems, etc., a moral purpose, while in its Editor's Table are vigorous discussions of live religious themes and of secular topics, from the religious standpoint. It is preeminently readable, and fills a place not occupied by no other publication.

Articles on Practical Philanthropy, Fiction, both Serial and Short Stories, and Book Reviews are special features. CONTRIBUTORS: Prof. G. P. Fisher, Edward E. Hale, Prof. F. A. Walker, Rebecca H. Davis, Rev. James F. Clarke, H. E. Scudder, Rev. Dr. A. F. Peabody, Rose T. Cooke, Rev. Dr. J. T. Tucker, Ellen W. Olney, Rev. L. W. Bacon, Sarah O. Jewett, Rev. Dr. F. A. Washburn.

It will be sent for $2 10, postage paid to those who subscribe before Jan. 1, 1879. Do not fail to get promptly if you wish to accept the special offer. $1 to a year, postage paid. Send 15 cents for specimen copy.

THEY ALL WANT IT, BECAUSE IT IS A FAMILY NEWSPAPER, PURE, SOUND READING FOR OLD AND YOUNG, AND IT CONTAINS A RELIABLE AND COMPREHENSIVE SUMMARY OF ALL THE IMPORTANT NEWS.

THE N. Y. OBSERVER THE BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Publishes both the religious and secular news that is desired in any family, while all that is likely to do harm is shut out. It devotes four pages to religious news, and four to secular.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER was first published in 1823, and it is believed to be the only instance of a Religious Newspaper continuing its even course for fifty-six years without a change of name, doctrine, intent, purpose, or pledge from the date of its birth.

THE 57 VOLUME will contain all the important news that can interest or instruct; so that any one who reads it will be thoroughly posted.

We do not run a benevolent institution, and we do not ask the support of any. We propose to make the Best Newspaper that is published, and we propose to sell it as cheaply as it can be afforded. Let those who want pure, sound, sensible, truthful reading, subscribe for it, and let them induce others to do the same. We are now publishing in the OBSERVER the Story of JOAN THE MAID, by Mrs. Charles, author of "Chronicles of the Schenberg-Cott." We send no Premiums. We will send the NEW YORK OBSERVER one year, postpaid, for $3.15.

THE SUN FOR 1879. THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

THE SUN has been, and will continue to be, independent of every party, and will save the truth and its own convictions. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect, or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat against dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican against the dishonest Democrat.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make a fetish of the memory of any man. It is printed for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the promptness and the most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources of the well-established press will be liberally employed.

The present disjunct condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the coming year, is an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the conduct of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. In these elements of interest may be added the progress of the Democratic will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy skepticism. (Consult any form.) To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its various phases, and to explain, according to well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN'S work for 1879.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely. Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily Sun, a four page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month or $6.50 a year, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet or fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid. The price of the Weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. Five copies of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address J. W. ENGLAND, Publisher of THE SUN, New York City.
