TE THE FOUR PER CENT. government bonds continue to be taken up at the rate of a million a day, intending investors will have to be lively in order to get any of them.

A DISPATCH from Berlin dated on Thursday last, says Hon. Bayard Taylor, Minister from the U.S. at the German court, died at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The fatal symptoms came on suddenly. He had been out of bed and was transacting business with the officials of the American legation yesterday. His death was peaceful and painless.

" JIM" KEEN is very rich, but is now in a fair way to get poorer. He claims to wish to benefit the farmer, and so has purchased and paid for three million bushels of wheat which he says he means to hold till it will bring him $1 per bushel. He says by this means he is doing the farmer great service, but as wheat has fell off' a little it seems as though his speculation does not yet effect the price, while this immense quantity will be held ready to drop on the market at any time, this having a tendency to weaken the price continually.

National Campmeeting to be Held in York County.

The National Association for the "Promotion of Holiness" recently held a meeting in Philadelphia, arranging the work for the ensuing year. Six states sent urgent invitations to hold national campmeeting within their limits. The association, being unable to comply with all the requests, unamimously resolved to hold one Central National Campmeeting at Summit Grove, on the line of the Northern Central Railway, at New Freedom, York county. The campmeeting is to begin July 30, 1879, and continue ten days. All the members of the National Association will be invited. Correspondence and the making of all arrangements will be in charge of Rev. J. S. Inskip, president of the association.

Murder in Franklin County.

On Tuesday a colored man named John Anderson and Sarah his wife, moved into a new log house at Wolffstown, a negro settlement near Chambersburg. In the evening a dance, to which a small admission fee was asked, was given, and to which quite a number repaired. During the evening and after several dances had taken place, Peter Swingler raised a fuss, pulling off' his coat, and averring angrily that he had been told there was a woman in the room who had threatened to cut him with a razor. Mrs. Anderson rightly judging that she was the object of his wrath, seized an axe for the purpose of defending herself against any attack from the infuriated man. Her husband interfered at this juncture, whereupon Mrs. A. dropped the axe. Anderson mean while attempted to pacify Swingler, but failing to accomplish this he put him out of the house. During the evening Joseph Lane, a fiddler, who had sided with Swingler knocked at Anderson's door and upon the latter opening it Swingler stepped forward into the room and pointing the muzzle of a musket at Anderson, pulled the trigger and shot him in the abdomen. Swingler afterward struck the wounded man and he fell to the floor, dying in a few minutes. Swingler also struck Anderson's wife, when his companion informed him he had better make his escape as he had killed a man. Swingler made his escape in the darkness. All efforts to capture him has thus far proved fruitless

The murder was perpetrated about midnight. The charge of heavy shot from the musket tore open the abdomen of Anderson, allowing the bowels to protrude.

Joseph Lane (colored), another of the parties, was caught soon after the affair occurred, and held for a hearing. The murdered man is not yet 21 years old.

Neatly Done.

A Boston paper tells the following :-"Are you the saleswoman of whom I bought the handkerchief of yesterday ?" asked a purchaser at one of our dry goods stores.

" I am the sales lady who served you, madam," responded the reduced empress in banged hair, long watch-chain and ringed fingers, who presided at the counter.

"Well," said the customer, "I will take a dozen more, and as I wish to get them to my washer-lady at once I will get you to send them to my carriage around the corner. My coach-gentleman cannot get to the door just now, for the cart of the ash-gentleman."

Jumped from a Train into the River.

EASTON, Pa., December 17 .- On Monday evening a brakeman on an eastbound coal train on the Easton and Amboy road told the switch-tender at the east end of the Delaware bridge that a man had jumped from the train while it was on the bridge. Search was made for the man, but as the night was dark it is supposed that he must have fallen into the river below, a distance of sixty feet, and had been drowned, as nothing could be found of him. The opinion is freely expressed that the brakeman was endeavoring to put the stranger off, and that he, becoming excited, jumped, not knowing where he was.

Served Him Right.

Twice already had the marriage of a young doctor and a rich belle of Mount Sterling, Ill., been postponed, when the cards were issued for a grand wedding party. The feast was set, the guests met, but no bridegroom was there. The young lady went out to seek him, and found him at his room dead-drunk. Going to the railroad station she took the first train that passed, gave the conductor a ring to pay her fare, left the cars at Macomb, and was only found next day by her father and the sober and repentant lover. He was anxious to marry her at once, but she refused ever to speak to him again.

Cooking a Tramp.

Near Freeport, Ill., a tramp entered a farm-house, and finding no one at home but the lady of the house, seated himself at the table, remarking in an insolent tone :

" I'm a rutabaga, and here's where I plant myself."

The lady, who was standing by the stove, picked up a dish-pau, about half full of boiling water, and dashed it over Mr. Tramp, remarking :

"We always cook ours before we cat them."

Miscellaneous News Items.

The Detroit News says : One of the State Grange members walked through an $80 pane of plate glass at the new capitol yesterday. Never mind ! He is of those whose motto is, "The farmer pays it all."

TAMAQUA, Dec. 20 .- The body of Jack Kehoe, who was hanged at Pottsville on Wednesday, was brought here for burial this afternoon from Girardville. The funeral was largely attended.

(3) The body of Christianna Herman, who was murdered at York, Pa., on the 7th inst., was exhumed Monday by the coroner. A bullet hole through the head was discovered, and bones of the head were crushed.

137" Tuesday morning William Brown Sr., aged seventy-six years, a well known citizen of Rockdale, Delaware county, Pa., drank two ounces of tincture of acouite in mistake for whisky, and died immediately.

137" A San Francisco sausage-maker was convicted the other day of cruelty to cats. Evidence was given that he bought large numbers of cats and cut off their tails, but what became of the cats remains a mystery.

137" An Illinois justice's jury found a verdict, but the jurors refused to make it known till their fees were paid. The cash was not forthcoming, and as there was no way to force them to disclose their secret they were discharged.

13" It is said that an effort will be made in the Legislature of Illinois to secure the submission to the vote of the people of an amendment repea ling the minority representation clause in the Constitution of the State as practically a failure.

137" Mr. Jacob Wertz, of Stonycreek twp., Cambria county, last week killed a 4-year old cow, and found in the center of its heart a bone one and a half inches long and about the thickness of a chicken bone. This is extremely strange.

ives, the attempt would have succeeded, A man named Reilly was arrested for participation.

NORFOLK, Va., December 17 .- Moses Ford, a negro section hand working on the railroad near Franklin, was tried before a magistrate yesterday for stealing $10. He was found guilty and sentenced to be whipped. After receiving the punishment he went to his mother's door and blew his brains out with a double barrelled gun, discharging the second barrel before he succeeded in his purpose, the first shot having missed him.

127" At South Killingly, Conn., the other day, as Mrs. Gilbert Graves was going down the cellar stairs with a kettle of hot water in her hand, a step broke and she fell and was badly scalded and bruised. Mr. S. W. Franklin, a neighbor, hearing her cries, rushed to her assistance, tripped on the broken step and was seriously hurt internally, and then her son fell through the opening and hurt them both and himself.

137 Titusville has had a sensation in the corpse-raising line. The body of a young man buried in the cemetery at that place was resurrected in order to permit a photograph to be taken for the mother, who was unconsolable by reason of the death, and who wanted to preserve the features of her son. Although the remains were greatly decomposed, a successful photograph was taken.

CHAMBERSBURG, Dec. 20 .- The police authorities have arrested Peter Swingler, the colored murderer, who shot John Anderson during a quarrel at a dance. He was found concealed under a bed in the house of Nelson Stewart, also colored. Swingler claims that he acted in selfdefense. He was committed to jail for trial.

137 A. B. Sayre, who was convicted at Philadelphia several months since for murdering his wife in one of the Philadelphia churches, was respited Tuesday by Governor Hartranft, until the 14th of January, 1879, the day designated for the execution of Charles Sharpe and James McDonnell, the two Mollie Maguires, reprieved by the governor last Saturday.

Sayre's respite was granted by the governor in consequence of a legal muddle springing up, which has created no little sensation in the city of Philadelphia, and which, perhaps, has no parellel in this State.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 20 .- Allen C. Larcs, the Pennsylvania parricide, who escaped from the Iusane Asylum some months ago, has been recaptured in Arkansas, and will be returned here at once. He killed his father and mother, and a man named Schuz, by poisoning them, at a place_near Easton, Pa., in 1876. He was sentenced to be hanged for the crime, but was subsequently pronounced insane, and confined in the State hospital in this city, from which place he escaped.

137" A bad penny always returns, it is said, but one instance is recorded where a good silver half dollar returned to its possessor after a circulation of twenty years. A man living in Canton, Ohio, had in his possession about twenty-five years ago, a silver half dollar with the date 1822, and that being his natal year he cut his name on it and thought to retain it as a relic. But a few years after he paid it out by mistake, and for twenty years it took its snow white apron and cap, and gives us cordial welcome and information, showing us, amongst other things, that his refrigerator and larder are boxes adroitly arranged beneath the car. The tables are laid for two each, with dainty linen and the finest of glass and china. Our repast is Deimonican in its nature and style, consisting of coup, entrees, roast meats, and vegetables, followed by the conventional dessert and the essential French coffee.

In these Hotel Cars the meals are a la carteyou pay for what you get, and nothing more ; and this at very reasonable rates.

The managers of the Company have determined to omit nothing which will add to the convenience, safety and comfort of the trayeling public who favor them with their patronage ; and further, that they will not be eclipsed by any other railroad in the world. Hence these cars, constructed by the Pullman Palace Car Company especially for the Pioneer Line, are the finest ever built.

It is not exaggeration to say that no road in the world can produce the equal to these magnificent cars, and as the average traveler wants the best of everything that can be had, he must of necessity use this line in his trans-continental trip.

The charges for berths in these Hotel Carsare the same (and no higher) as are made in the more common Sleeping Car, so that the traveler using one of these palatlal hotels is given much more worth for his money than he can get on any other line.

Remember ! Pullman Hotel Cars are now running regularly between Chicago and Council Blutts, on the Denver and California Express trains of the Chleago & North-Western Railway. West-bound, they leave Chicago daily, except Sunday, (and on every third Sunday), from the Wells Street Depot, at 10.30 A. M., and arrive at Council Bluffs next morning. East bound, they leave Council Bluffs at 5.30 P. M., daily, except Saturday, (and on every third Saturday,) and reach Chicago the next afternoon.

Bear in mind ! No other road runs Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Dining Cars, or any other form of Hotel, Dining, or Restaurant Car through between Chicago and the Missouri River. On no other road can you get all the meals you require between Chleago and Omaha without leaving the car you start in. This is the only line that has through eating cars of any sort.

Deaths from Fires.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., December 10 .- A 3-year old daughter of Mrs. Ellen Cronin was burned to death here to day. The child's clothing took fire from a stove during the temporary absence of the woman who had charge of it.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., December 19.-At Trexler's, Pa., to-day the clothing of a child of Mrs. Minich took fire during her temporary absence and in the effort to extinguish the flames the mother and child were burned to death.

COHOES, N. Y., December 19.- At half-past 10 o'clock last evening a fire was discovered in the tenement No. 42 Bowery street, in the Fifth ward. Upon the arrival of the firemen it was ascertained that Patrick Rourke, his sons Timothy, Martin, Owen and William, aged respectively 16, 11, 9 and 5 years, and two daughters, Mary Ann, aged 22 and Bridget, aged 18, were in the building. The two girls were rescued, the older one so badly burned that she can not survive, while the younger one was comparatively uninjured. Mr. Rourke died soon after being taken from the building. The boys were all dead when found. The house was burned to the Costly Barks.

The Iowa Supreme Court has decided that a man is liable for the bark of his dog. The case was one in which a man's dog barked and frightened a team, whereupon the team ran away and broke the driver's leg.

The dog of Mr. William Lannon, a miner living at Clinton, Ind., ran in front of a locomotive. His master ran to the rescue and saved the dog, but lost his leg.

A Dealer in Counterfeit Money Convicted.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17. - Michael Conners, wholesale dealer in counterfeit National bank notes and trade dollars, was convicted in the United States circult court this afternoon, and remanded for sentence. Conners was the head of a notorious gang of dealers in counterfeit money. He sold packages of counterfeits to a secret service detective, and hence his capture and conviction.

Benefactors.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure a wide range of disaases that most all other remedles could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled doubt, and to-day the discovers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors. 52 2t

Im"In one of the Assembly districts of Wisconsin there was no choice at the November election, each candidate receiving 607 votes. A second election has just been held, and the Republican was elected, he receiving 773 votes to 740 for the Democratic candidate.

137" Mrs. B. S. Baker, of Columbus, Louisa county, Ia., lost her teeth, and supposing, of course, that two sets of teeth were all that nature would provide her with, got a false outfit. Now, to her surprise, her store teeth are being crowded out by new teeth. She is about 50 years of age.

Two residen's of Hillsville, Va., disputed about a young lady's age-one holding that she was twenty, the other that she was eighteen -- and fought about it, one being killed. If they had only asked her they would have discovered that she will be seventeen next March.

137" A Columbus, Ohio, court has rendeed a decision establishing the right of a girl to two $50 bills which she found in old rags which she was sorting in a paper mill. The Supreme Court held that the purchasers of waste paper were not entitled to valuables found in it as against the finder.

to The meeting of clergymen of the evangelical churches in Cleveland, Ohio, last week, endorsed the proposal lately made by Mr. Moody and the clergy of Baltimore, that a united effort be made by all the churches in the United States, in the month of January, following the week of prayer, toward a general religious revival throughout the land.

137" As the suspected Manhattan Bank robbers were taken from Jefferson Market Police Court in New York, a desperate attempt was made to rescue one of them, "Red Leary." Pistols were drawn, and but for the plucky resistance of the detect-course in the general circulation. A few days ago he sent his little daughter to a neighboring town on an erraud, and upon her return she gave him some change, and with it was the identical half dollar with his name cut on it.

The Public and Pullman Hotel Cars. Practice Better than Preaching.

THE VERDICT ALL ONE WAY.

They Are Liked by Everybody.

Read the following, and you will then be better able to appreciate the fact that the Chicago & North-Western Railway is the leading line between Chicago and Council Bluffs ; that it can give you more value for you money than any other line ; that it, in the use of these elegant hotel cars, has taken a long stride ahead, and that if you wish the very best accommodations, you must buy your ticket over this road.

The following is from the peu of Mrs. Frank Leslie, the wife of Frank Leslie, of "Leslie's Illustrated Newspapers," who has recently published a readable book under the title of California ; a Pleasure trip from Gotham to the Golden Gate." It is needless to say that Mr. Lesile and his party went over the Chicago & North-Western Railway, in "Tha President," one of its line of hotel cars.

"Oh arriving at the Chicago & North-Western Rallway station, we enter the famous Puliman hotel car exhibited at the Centennial Exposition. * * In the midst of the cheerful excitement we are off, and able to look about us at our new home. First, we are impressed with the smooth and delightful motion. * * We proceed to explore the internal resources of our kingdom. We find * * one end of the car partitioned off and fitted up as a kitchen, store room, scullery ; reminding one, in their compactness and variety, of the little Parislan cusiness, where every inch of space is utilized, and where such a modicum of wood and charcoal produces such marvelous results. Our chef, of ebon and proportions suggesting a liberal sampling of the good things he prepares, wears the regulation
