There are several new blacksmith shops going up in Carroll township at this time.

Abe Bard is again enjoying the hos-pitalities of Fort Gray. The charge this time is threatening to kill.

Dr. Gans of the Third German Church of Baltimore, who at one time had a charge in this county, has gone over to the Catholics.

D. M. Bailey, Esq., of Carroll town-ship, while returning from Carlisle, got spilled out by the axle of his buggy breaking off.

The 4th Quarterly Meeting of Blain Conf., will be held at Blain Methodist church, Feb. 22nd and 23rd, Rev. J. W. Cleaver officiating.

William, a son of Widow Sheibley, of Newport, was considerably injured while coasting in that place. Aug. Repman's sign was demolished by the collision.

Charles Atlen, of Newport, was sell-ing fish in McAlisterville last week, when the horse ran off, down through the village, smashing the sleighs of Mr. Peter Auker and Mr. Kerchner en route, and taking with him the shafts of his own to Rev. William Graybill's, where he was equalst he was caught.

X John Fry complains that the bones of some of his family have been remov-ed from the lot in which he had buried them in the Newport cometery. The trustees of that burying ground claim that the lot had not been paid for, and consequently removed the remains to another place. The matter promises to blossom into a lawsuit.

Kobbery .- On Monday night of last week some person entered the shop of Jerry Wilson, in Carroll township, and carried away all the leather, a lot of tools, &c., leaving when he began work on Tuesday morning hardly stock enough to heel a boot.

A Lebanon County Tragedy. - A dispatch from Lebanon, dated February

4th, says :- In December last Joseph Raber fell into a narrow and shallow stream, in Union township and was drowned. 'The coroner's jury subsequently rendered an unimportant verdict. The peculiar manner in which Raber was found, the fact that he was permitted to remain in the water several hours after life was extinct, and the conduct of certain parties created suspicion of foul play, especially when it was ascertained that policies of insurance on his life for a large amount were held by persons residing in the neighborhood. The fact coming to the knowledge of several of the insurance companies who had issued policies, detectives were employed to work up the case, and were on the eve of investigating the mystery, when

Joseph F Peters, of West Hanover township, lodged information before

Squire Speck charging John A. Stickler,

Jain Kuntz of the aforesaid township and county, were legally Joined or Married, cach of them being of full age, and declaring themselves free, respectively, from prior engagements, or other lawful impedi-ments. In witness whereof, as well the said George Wendt and Jain Kuntz, she assuming the name of her said husband, It was some time before the ice in her hair was thawed out. Just before she revived she says she could hear her friends around her, but was unable to speak or move. Several other partles who were to be baptized have concluded to wait until warmer weather. Up till to-night the woman was improving rapidly.

What's the use of having societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals, when, under the name of religion, such cruelties as the above are permitted to be inflicted on human beings.

A Correction.- We give place to the following in justice to Mr. Horn :

MR. MORTIMER - Dear Sir: - You made a mistake in your last week's issue, about young Horn baving Adam's team hired to haul grain to market, and who took Brenneman's wheat to Newport. It was Adams who did it, and him who returned the money, and you will by so saying in your next paper oblige MR. HORN.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

The wife of O. L. Hench, of Turbett township, died on Monday morning, after a two days' illness of pneumonia.

The eldest son of A. Y. McAfee had a leg broken while coasting at Freedom school house, in Turbett township, on Monday noon.

Officer Wilson attempted to arrest E. Graybill, at Richfield, on Monday night on the charge of having violated the law that is to govern inn-keepers. Gray-bill resisted the arrest, and delivered a severe blow with a gun on Wilson's left jaw, which so confused the officer that he folled to make the arrest he failed to make the arrest.

John Shineloff and Wesley McNew had some words in the corrider of the court house, on Monday about noon, which resulted in McNew delivering a blow with his fist that felled Shineloff to the floor. This knock down was the final action or end of three or four other actions for assault, and resulted in the Sheriff lodging the belligerents in jail. Shineloff was bailed out on Tuesday.

James Deen, ex-Clerk to the Commis-sioners, was arrested on Saturday on charge of Messrs. M'Canghlin and Gro-niger, of the old board, for unlawfully appropriating \$457.52. This amount the Auditors found short, and charged the Commissioners with it. Mr. Deen says he was promised  $\pm$  per cent. for handling bonds which the Commission-ers deny. He was held in the sum of \$600 for appearance, Mr. A. G. Bonsall, of the "Democrat and Register," being his bondsman. Mr. Cox filed an appeal from the report of the Auditors in the matter of the \$457,52. James Deen, ex-Clerk to the Commis-

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week :

One of Mrs. Baker's children was playing the other day at Jacksonville, and got in the mud, and when its moth-er came to ggt it out, she broke its arm.

Officer Hays, on Friday last, brought a tramp named Charles Smith, from Lebanon, who is supposed to be impli-cated in the Greason robbery. This makes the third party arrested for this deed.

A little daughter of Mr. Ottstots, the blacksmith, at Roxbury, in Monroe twp., one night recently, happened to pull down the coal oil lamp, breaking it pull down the coal off lamp, breaking it setting fire to her dress and the carpet in the room. Her brother hastily grasp-ed her clothes and smothered the flames before they reached her body, and others rolled up the carpet and threw it out of doors, thus luckily preventing what might have been a serious if not a fatal accident. This should serve as another caution to persons using coal oil.

On Monday evening the residence of J. W. Wheeler, in this place, was enter-ed through an up-stair window over the porch, and a couple of rooms ransacked. The robber or robbers secured about fifty dollars in money and about twenty dollars' worth of jewelry, all belonging to Mrs. Wheeler and the children. Some to the money and jewelry were valuable keepsakes, and are sadly missed. The robbery was probably committed by some one who had ascertained the location of these valuables.—Neuville Enterprise.

the upper end of this county taking orders for groceries. His samples are good, but the delivered articles are very different. Already complaints have come in to us from parties who have been cheated, asking us to warn others so they may not get bit too. Look out for him.

X Economical.-As a specimen of economy, we can point with satisfaction to the lady who, last week, sent a corset-steel to the blacksmith, to have mended, at a cost of ten cents, when a new pair could be bought for eight cents. She is probably a relation to the lady who washed her lamp-wicks when they got dirty.

Barn Burned .- On Saturday evening at about 5 o'clock, a fire was discovered in the barn belonging to Mr. Christian Thudium, in Spring township. The building, a large quantity of hay, all the farming implements, and about 400 bushels of oats were destroyed. The stock was we think, all removed in safety. The fire is , thought to have been caused by some one smoking in the barn, or by an incendiary, as tracks were found through the snow to the part of the barn where the fire broke out. There was no insurance on the building, but Mr. James Lebo, the tenant on the place, had an insurance on his personal property.

Committed to Jail .- On Tuesday last, Martha Henderson of Carroll township, was committed to jall on the charge of concealing stolen goods. On the following day Nelson Mendenhall, another citizen from the same township, was arrested and brought to jail on the charge of theft. The parties were committed to jail by Esquire Fleck. The goods, the girl was charged with concealing, were a portion of the blankets, etc., taken from Harkinson's wagon, while the other party is charged with the theft. A warrant is out for two other persons charged with being concerned in the same scraps.

Warrants were at once issued for the arrest of the men and placed in the hands of officers. The arrests were effected at dawn this morning neara dreary locality known as Indiantown Gap. The prisoners were brought to Lebanon this afternoon and lodged in jall.

Peter is a son-in-law of True, and saw Stickler and True tbrow Raber into the water. Brandt held one of the policies and is said to have paid the latter parties a large amount of money to commit the crime. The original amount of insurance was $30,000. Policies in the following companies are in force : Home Mutual, Lebanon, $2,000; Keystone, of Allentown, $2,000; Reading Mutual, $1,000; Mutual Benefit of Hartford, Conn., $2,000; New Erie, of Philadelphia, $1,000.

Foolish Piety .- A dispatch from Palmyra, Lebanon county, says :- A baptismal ceremony was performed at this place yesterday which caused considerable excitement in the neighborhood .-The particulars are as follows: Mrs. Martin Bowman, an invalid, aged about fifty years, and unable to walk, was taken to Spring Creek, and there baptised according to the rites of the German Baptist Church, of which she was a member. The mode of baptism is to immerse three times, and notwithstanding the extremely debilitated condition of the woman, the rite was administered. Being unable to walk on account of weakness, Mrs. Bowman was placed on a chair and carried into the stream by Rev. Hertzle and an attendant, after which she was plunged under the loy cold water three times. When brought up from the third plunge her countenance was pallid and form limp and apparently lifeless. When brought out of the water her husband and children, supposing her to be dead, were overcome with emotion, and gave vent to their anguish in tears. The supposed corpse was wrapped in blankets, and taken to the house of a neighbor, where hot bricks and irons were applied to her feet, hot stimulants administered, and after

FOR THE BLOOMFTELD TIMES.

For The BLOOMFILLE TIMES. LOYSWILLE, February 6th, 1879. Mr. EDITOR :--I have noticed of late that you want local news from the different sec-tions of the county, and as you have no cor-respondent here to give you the news, (which is rather meagre). I send you that following: On last Friday, January 30th, was what is familiarly known as "Directors" Day at the Poor House," and from the number of visi-tors present, it seems that there is a great deal of sympathy manifested for the unfortunate humates of said institution; but this is in the hine of Christian duty to visit the poor, only that it is always done on "Directors" Day.-Report says that over 100 took dinner on this occasion; this, too, is right-we are to be Report says that over 100 took dinner on this occasion; this, too, is right—we are to be "hospitable and entertain strangers." Not-withstanding some of us live near by, we prove our sincere regard for the poor by our very frequent visits on Directors' Day staying for dinner. It shows that we are not stuck up nor high-minded. Some of our chizeus have never been here and others who live at a dis-tance have not been here more than once. tance have not been here more than once, while we, close by, discharge our duties more faithfully by coming once a month; then we while we, close by, discharge our dulies more faithfully by coming once a month; then we don't go alone—quite a number of us meet and always have a jolly good time generally. I tried the thing alone once, and was very hadly disappeinted when asked to dinner, for it was no better than what I had at home; but now I go on Directors' Day and always enjoy it.

Tor town it growing in importance, it being the principal horse and cattle market in the original horse and cattle market in the view of a scout of stock, no one has yet discovered, as not a time, the blace likely a great part of the time, and what becomes of the money paid out on account of stock, no one has yet discovered, as not a time will acknowledge to have any of the stuff about him. Money is about 50 per cat, scarcer than it was twelve months ago, mauger the large wheat crop. Our farmars in the vicinity are generally out of debt, and conset and of most any other neighborhood.
Dur debating society is dragging in slow good hing to show how much we have read, and how well we can tell it to an attentive and how well we can tell it to an attentive and the store.
