

THE TIMES. Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. E.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 15th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward, listing train numbers, departure times, and arrival times for various stations like Harrisburg, York, and Lancaster.

Pittsburg Express leaves Harrisburg at 11:00 P. M. and Newport at 11:30 (flag) and at New York at 11:45 (flag).

Brief Items.

John Bowers, a Huntingdon lawyer, has become a preacher. The Susquehanna last week was breaking up, with loud reports and vast upheavals of ice.

tracted meeting his sleigh upset, and threw him out, when his horse ran away and broke one of the shafts, and received a wound in the flank from which cause he has since been unable to be driven.

On Tuesday the 10th inst., John M. Fry, Esq., and William Myers, of Tuscarora township, while hunting on the Tuscarora mountain, killed a wild cat which measured from end of nose to tip of tail 4 feet and 10 inches, it being the second one Mr. Fry helped to capture this winter.

The entertainment given in Newport on last Saturday evening by the Y. M. C. A., of that borough, was certainly a success as far as the attendance was concerned, but from reports the performance fell short of what would be called first-class; but, as we understand, certain members of the troupe were excusable owing to causes which happened to have certain effects.

Baltimore Oysters.—A lot of First quality Baltimore oysters now on hand at MORTIMER'S.

A Problem.—What is the greatest number of trees I can plant on a piece of ground 12 rods square, the trees to be 1 rod apart, and none to be nearer the fence than 1 rod.

Query?—What better evidence of ill-manners and bad breeding do you want, than to see young men peering into their neighbors' windows and listening at the doors and windows after nightfall.

Lewis Potter, of this borough, has been re-appointed Notary Public by Governor Hoyt. He has filed his bond, and has taken the oath required by law for the 5th term.

Can't do Without It!—A Western subscriber, in renewing, writes as follows: Enclosed you will find a Post Office Money-Order for $1.50, another year's subscription of your most valuable paper, THE BLOOMFIELD TIMES.

A Serious Charge.—On Tuesday afternoon Justice Zinn, of Carlisle, committed a man named Robert Brown, who was arrested near Landisburg, on a warrant made to Sheriff Gill. The Sheriff had deputized David S. Carbaugh, who arrested the man and he was committed for a hearing on the 28th inst., on a charge of being associated with the robbery and burglary of George McKeenan, in West Pennsboro township.

A Pocket Atlas.—We return our thanks to Mr. S. N. Dickey, superintendent of the Bradstreet Mercantile agency, at Pittsburgh, for a pocket atlas. It is decidedly "the cutest thing out," it having a map of each state on a page by itself, with just enough of surrounding states to show the boundaries, with a miniature map of the United States, on the 1st page.

Tramps.—A lot of tramps on Monday took possession of a freight train this side of Huntingdon, and compelled the engineer to run as far as Lewistown. Here they got off the train, and took to the tow path, but officers Garret and Clum with a posse made pursuit and captured nine of them, the rest, some half a dozen, escaping.

A Stolen Saw Mill.—This is the very worst case of stealing we have yet noticed: County Treasurer D. F. Chestnut, of Fulton county, owned a saw mill a few weeks ago, but when he went to look for it the other day he found it gone—wrenches, saws, saw sets, cleavices, dogs, crow-bars, logs and in fact the whole concern. He now sits on the banks of the tall race with a whole army besides him waiting for the thief to return for the water power.

young man named Keaster was also struck by the same mail, but soon recovered, and wanted to know what had hit him. The election in Susquehanna township passed off quietly and resulted in the election of the following officers: Justice of the Peace, Levi Light; Constable, Henry Bay; Assessor, H. K. Frymoyer; Assistant Assessors, E. Shiffer, J. Weiser; Overseers of the Poor, D. Fisher, and J. Karstetter; Judge of Elections, Joseph Kane; Inspectors, John A. Boyer, H. W. Tschupp; Supervisors, Samuel Goodlin, A. Witmer; School Directors, W. Fahnestock, A. Troutman; Auditor, E. G. Sheaffer.

Township Elections.—Below we give a list of the officials returned as elected at Tuesday's election at the different districts in this county.
