Samuel O. Shriver, agent at York, Pa., of the Baltimore Mutual Aid So-ciety, has absconded with $700 of the Society's funds.

The Clark mill property in Centre township, was sold by the assignee on Wednesday last for $2.525. It was purchased by the heirs of Mr. Clark. There are an unusual number of prisoners now in the jail in this county. Eight persons are confined, waiting trial and two others are serving out sentences.

A number of wood choppers are now engaged in cutting off, the wood along the narrows. About 400 acres are to be cleared off. This will open the Newport and Bloomfield road to more day light.

Dr. T. P. Devor, formerly of this county, but now a resident of Clarks-ville, Texas, has drafted a prohibitory liquor bill, which he wishes the legislature of that State to pass. If passed it would be a great gain to the temperance cause.

The heathenish custom of turning a house of mourning into a house of feast-ing caused the family of David Wolf, of Middlesex, Cumberland county, to fur-nish dinners for one hundred and thirtyeight persons, on the day of his funeral.

We continue to receive replies to the train query published in THE TIMES of February 18th. Among answers received last week some named 31, another 33, another 12, and others same as letters previously published. 32 is correct.

Chas. F. Silliman, of Youngstown, Ohio, and Ida M. Williams, of Elgin, Ill., were married at five o'clock Saturday morning, in a sleeping car at Harrisburg, while a train was being shifted in the depot. Rev. Joel Swartz, D. D.,

On Sunday evening while Mr. Harling and his family, residing in Duncannon were at church, some person entered the house and thoroughly ransacked the premises. Nothing was carried away except about $16 belonging to the Mite Society of the Reformed church.

John McCune, a teacher at Oakdale John McCune, a teacher at Oakdale school house, Southampton township, Franklin county, was arraigned before Judge Rowe on Monday, charged with too severely punishing a scholar named Luther Etter, a son of Mr. Josiah Etter. The jury, on Tuesday morning, rendered a verdict of acquittal and assessed the plaintiff, Mr. Etter, with the costs.

O School Troubles .- On Thursday last a trouble occurred between the teacher and some of his scholars, at Kosier's school house in Centre township, in which the teacher was roughly handled. On Friday morning one of the boys, a son of Jesse Furguson, came to the school house to take away his books, when it is alleged that, the teacher pushed the boy over a bench, and jumped on him, hurting him so seriously that it was necessary on Saturday to call a physician.

Telegraph Wire Down. - The carelessness of the wood-choppers who are at work in the Narrows, has caused the telegraph company trouble and expense, as twice during the past week they had to repair parts of the line, and once nearly a quarter of a mile of it. The using of trees instead of poles makes the matter still worse, there being about fifty trees used between Newport and Bloomfield. The company will feel obliged to Mr. Barrett if he will use a little care in clearing off the woods along the line.

O Child Badly Burned .- On Friday evening, the 28th ult., a child of Henry Comp, residing near Markelville, aged about 1½ years, was seriously burned by its clothes taking fire while Mrs. Comp was out in the yard. Hearing the child scream, she hastened into the house, and by quickly throwing a bucket of water over the little one she succeeded in extinguishing the fire, but not before the child was so seriously burned that its life was considered in danger. Dr. Shull was called in and was able to relieve the pain somewhat, but he had little hopes of the child's recovery.

A Serious Charge.—Simon Charles,G. C. Murray, and Simeon Bradly, all of Liverpool and vicinity, are charged with burning and conspiring to burn the buildings of Mrs. Mary Charles for the purpose of getting the insurance. One of the buildings was burned several years since, and the other was burned in April last, and on this building the insurance company refused to pay, and commenced an investigation, which has resulted in warrants being issued for the arrests of the above mentioned persons.

Two of the party were committed to Jail at once, but Mr. Charles expected to be able to furnish bail. On Saturday morning Mr. Seiler who he thought would bail him, declined to do so, and consequently, Charles took up his quarters in Fort Gray. On Monday morning, however Mr. Seiler having reconsidered the matter, came over and entered ball for Charles, and he was consequently liberated. The matter is to be further investigated on Saturday of this week when the persons will be brought before Judge Junkin on a habets corpus.

Problem .- A tree 100 feet high is standing in a pond of water 10 feet deep; a storm breaks the tree off and the top falls down and reaches the bottom of the water, after which it was ascertained that measuring from the part of the tree that stood over the surface of the water to the part that fell was 20 feet, at what distance from the ground did the tree break? Answer week after next.

Answer to the boat problem of last week is 24 miles. Correct answers have been received from G. P. S., B. P. M. S. W. S., J. B. and others.

An Excited Party. - On Wednesday forenoon an excited party of four men entered our village. They were from Marysville and Fishing Creek, and when they entered the township they numbered seven, but three of them had branched off, taking the Newport road, about two miles south of Bloomfield. They seemed terribly excited about something and reminded a person of dogs that had suddenly lost the track of a fox they had felt sure of. They were on the hunt of some criminal, but told so many conflicting stories, that we concluded it was not safe to take much stock in any of them. It was said, however, that they were on the hunt of a murderer who had been tracked from Kentucky to Marysville, at which point he left the train, and from there traced as far as to Witherow's mill. From here the four divided their forces, two going up the county, and two towards Newport. If any of our readers should see the chap that is wanted, will they please stop Sudden Death. - Monday evening during the observance of the ordinance of feet washing, and partaking of the Lord's supper in the "Church of God" in Shiremanstown, Pennsylvania, Mr. David Sheaffer, while in attitude of prayer, prior to the partaking of the Sacrament, suddenly expired. Mr. Sheaffer is an old resident of the borough of Shiremanstown, has been an exemplary Christian for upwards of fifty years, and at last died in the discharge of his Christian faith .- Hbg. Telegraph.

The Jacobs Hotel was recently purchased by J. Calvin Nipple. We understand Mr. Nipple intends to keep a strictly temperance hotel. We hope he may succeed in his undertaking.

On Friday the 21st inst., Mr. J. W. Rice has sale of personal property in preparation for moving his family to seek a home in the state of Nebraska. Mr. John Shuman, Jr., and family have already gone to Grand Island, Nebraska. Our people here are becoming cheerful in prospect of an early spring. The Pacific breeze is already here to take the place of the frigid blasts of the past winter.

The Middleburg Past thus compliments Judge Junkin:

ments Judge Junkin:

"Hon. B. F. Junkin after the adjournment of Court, paid our Sanctum a visit. The Judge is one of the most genial men to be met anywhere. His fine legal abilities—the steady hand with which he holds the scales of Justice—his pleasing manners—rare social qualities—excellent moral character have made him one of the most popular law Judges in the State, and to whom his constituency point with pride."

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week :

Last Monday, Kearney Willis, a boy of Lisburn, while handling a pistol accidently shot himself in the hand. The ball passed through the hand, breaking one of the bones.

One day last week, at the Company warehouse, in Newville, a barrel of molasses belonging to D. Mell fell from the wagon, and both ends of the barrel bursted out. The syrup was a total loss, and not a boy about with a paddle!

The barn of Solomon P. Gorgas, along The barn of Solomon P. Gorgas, along the railroad, in the lower part of Mechanlesburg, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon. It is not known how the fire originated, but it is believed to have been the work of an incendiary as the barn was too far away from the railroad to be in danger from that source.

On Monday morning, as Mrs. Tarman, widow of Alexander Tarman, dec'd, of Shippensburg, was crossing the street, she was struck by a horse in a sleigh driven by a young man named Marlin, and was knocked down and scriously hurt. She was Tooking in another direction, and did not notice the rapid approach of the horse.

On Tuesday afternoon, Dr. F. Hartzell, who lives at Churchtown, met with a very painful accident on the Harrisa very painful accident on the Harris-burg and Potomac railroad, a short dis-tance below Leidleh's mill, in Monroe township. He was visiting the family of Jacob Gates, who live at the railroad, and had tied his horse at the opposite side of the track. While in the house he was apprised of the fact that a train was coming up the road. He immediately ran for his horse, and attempting to cross the track in front of the train, the engine struck him, breaking several of his ribs and running over and crushing a part of his foot.

On Friday afternoon the rumor reached this place that a German named Schimmel, well known in this place Schimmel, well known in this place had met with a violent death, at Krider's mill, near plainfield. Several stories were afloat, and, after sifting all of them by interviewing a number of persons from that vicinity, the conclusion is reached that the correct version is as follows: Schimmel has for some time time been residing in the vicinity of Krider's mill, going from one house to another as he found work:—He has always been known as an irritable man, of violent passions and held nearly all with whom he came in contact in conwith whom he came in contact in constant fear. One of the exceptions was a stant fear. One of the exceptions was a young man named Nickey, of the same neighborhood, on whom Schimmel's savagery had no effect. On the morning named Nickey was on his way to John Krider's sale, and passed a house where Schimmel was cutting wood. Whether or not anything passed between the two then, we could not learn; but all events Schimmel took up his ax and ran after Nickey, who ran towards the all events Schimmel took up his ax and ran after Nickey, who ran towards the creek, when, being cornered by the other, he took up a stone, which he threw at Schimmel, striking him in the fore-head and knocking him senseless. In striking the ground a severe wound was inflicted on the back of his head. Schimmel soon recovered his senses, and last accounts from the seat of war, the authorities were waiting until it would be safe to remove him to a county would be safe to remove him to a county institution.—Carlisle Mirror.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

John Fisher, of Milford township, came out of a wrestling match, at the sale of Wilson Robinson's property, last Thurs-day, with a broken leg.

Some nights ago, two tramps forced a window open in a school house in Tur-bett township, entered the building and lodged in it during the night. They had provisions with them, which is evidenced by the crumbs they left on the floor, and the dregs of coffee that were found in the tin drinking cup that belongs to

A large chandelier in the Great East-ern Boot and Shoe Store fell at Mifflin, on Tuesday afternoon as the proprietor was pulling it down to light it. It might have hurt him badly, but as it fell it just grazed his shoulder. It was a badly damaged chande lierafter it landed on the floor. Had it been lighted a conflagration would have been the result.

$1,000 Reward.—A Loysville letter ays: The above reward has been offered for the capture of a man named Bent-ly, accused of the murder of Johnston. The news came to town last cave that there was a tramp stopping at the Poor-house over night which according to the description must be Bently. The Condescription must be Bently. The Constable lost no time in gathering up some half dozen of the Loysville braves after which they proceeded the poor house armed with knives and pistols, ready to capture Mr. Bently, and make the nice little sum of $1,000. But to their surprise the supposed Mr. Bentley turned out to be a good humored Dutchman that wouldn't fill the bill, so they gave him ten cents to buy some tobacco, and him ten cents to buy some tobacco, and left him to enjoy his night's rest unmo-lested. The braves with their valiant leader came back to town about $1,000 10 poorer.

To School Directors and Teachers.— In reply to those, who have asked for a copy of "School Laws and Decisions," I desire to say that no copies can be obtained from the school department. Preparations are now being made to print a new edition. As soon as copies are received they will be distributed.

FOR THE TIMES. LIVERPOOD, Pa., March, 1879.

LIVERPOOL, Pa., March, 1879.

Death has been in our midst and taken another of our old and respected critizons.

The Hon. Jos. Shuler died yesterday P. M., after a lingering illness at the age of 67.

In 1838, before county conventions were in vegue and all run as independent candidates, he was elected Sheriff by a large majority.

In 1875 Dauphio and Perry Cos. composing the Legislative District, he was elected Member and in 1873, after a sharp and bitter campaign, re-elected.

Previous to 1838 and after, he filled different offices in the Borough.

He has in his time been more prominently before the public than any of our citizens here.

To whatever position he was assigned he filled it with credit to himself and honor to his constituents.

his constituents.

An old-time Whig — a staunch Republican during his life time, he labored hard for the success of the principles on which those parties were founded.

A purer patriot—a more sincere friend to the soldiers during the rebellion, there was none. In private life he was a kind husband, an indulgent, affectionate father, an honored and esteemed citizen. Whatever obstacles in life he might have had to contend with, his indomitable energy and perseverance overcome them all.

If as a public official to be honest in his convictions, pure in his motives, upright in his judgment and patriotic in purpose; if to this be added, a sincere, generous, devoted friend, an enterprising citizen, affectionate in his domestic ties, we may well mourn his death and cherish his memory.

He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss.

FOR THE BLOOMPIELD TIMES. Another Minister Pounded.

Another Minister Politiced.

BLAIN, PA., March 4, 1879.

On the eye of the 21st ait, while the family of Rev. M. C. Piper were quietly seated in their pleasant home talking of the events of the day they were interrupted and surprised by the unceremonious entrance of thirty of his many friends from New Germantown and armed with pounds of the many good things with which those people abound, and gave the reverend gentleman and his estimable lady and effectual pounding with coffee, sugar, fruits, entekens, turkeys, potations, wheat, flour, butter, ergs, etc. etc. These tokens of osteem show that they duly appreciate his labers of love. Such tangible expressions of rememberance and esteem are not easily forgotten, and will not be on the part of Mr. Piper and family, neither by any present, it was indeed an enjoyable meeting. Rev. Piper has served those people for two years, and judging from this special act they would have his pastoral relation continued, we think so too.

FORRION.

For The Bloomfield Times Loysville Debating Society.

Wednesday, March 5th, 1078 The society was largely attended or hast Wadingday evenling by ladies and gentiemen. The question, "Resolved, That the savage tribe of Indians should be exterminated," was discussed in quite a spirited manner. The decision was then given by a vote of the house in favor of the negative. The "Logaville News," was then read by our worthy editor, and the negative, and the propauding of an enthusiastic andlence. The paper was of considerable size, filled with locals, humorous items, current events, and many articles remarkable for depth of thought, thus verifying the assertion of the IMMES, that a variety of interesting hews makes a good newspaper. The following question was proposed by our worthy Green Park debators, who will participate in the discussion of the same: "Resolved, That Geo. Washington deserves more praise for fighing for the American Independence than Marquise La Payette. Speakers on Affirmative, John Morrow and Johnson Rice. Negative, E. W. Dromgold and John Rheem.
