In a trivial case returned for trial in the Schuylkill county court, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty," with this addition: "The jury unanimously regret that they cannot compel the committing magistrate to pay the costs."

We believe that in some cases the courts have compelled the justices to pay costs, and if they have such power why is it not enforced oftener.

Quit Treating.

The Anti-Treating League, of Baltimore, is doing an active business in the way of procuring signatures to an anti-treating pledge, which forbids drinking at others' expense or inviting another to drink at your expense.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.

Sixty Thousand Persons Homeless.

LONDON, March 12.—The Times' correspondent at Pesth, says: "For well nigh a week Szegedin, the second commercial town in Hungary, has been in imminent danger of inundation from the river Theiss, which flows through the town."

LONDON, March 12.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Szegedin this (Wednesday) morning, at 8 o'clock, says: "After a fearful night of anxiety all efforts are useless. The water broke through with immense force at 3 o'clock, carrying away part of the railway station embankment and rolling stock."

heartrending. Over 60,000 people are out of house and home. Hundreds are drowning and the water is still rising rapidly.

PESTH, March 12.—EVENING.—The latest telegram announces that the flood with a terrific roar, is rushing from two sides over Szegedin. The horrors of the situation baffle all description. The town is in fact destroyed.

LONDON, March 13.—The Standard's dispatch from Pesth says: "One hundred square miles in the neighborhood of Szegedin are flooded. The crops in this district are lost."

[Szegedin or Zegedin, is a town of southwest Hungary, capital of the county of Csougrad, in a marsh on the banks of the Theiss, at the influx of the Maras, 53 miles west northwest of Arad, and according to the last census had a population of about 63,000.]

A Wonderful Escape.

The Perry, Ga., Home Journal says: Last week one of Messrs. Marsburne & Clarke's convicts, a negro named Henry Brown, made a daring and desperate escape. He had in some manner eluded the guards, and passed a neighbor's house with his convict stripes and shackles on.

An Ice Gorge in the West Branch.

Reduction of Wages in England.

LONDON, March 11.—The reduction of 12 1/2 per cent. in the wages of which the Pile and Clackmannen colliers have received notice will make their average wages three shillings per diem, which is lower than for many years, but no serious opposition to the reduction is anticipated.

Miscellaneous News Items.

An Iowa man who moved to California with a view of bettering his condition writes back: "Any one can get a living in Iowa, but it takes a smart fellow to do it here."

The other day two men entered the residence of Gerhard Burlager, of Fort Wayne, chloroformed his wife, and took from a trunk $2,500 in coin, which he had hoarded up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Captain Eades to-day received from the treasury $750,000 the cash payment voted to him in the sundry civil appropriation bill, on account of his improvement of the Southwestern Pass of the Mississippi. A hunter's cunning dog, of York, as soon as he is given a penny goes to the nearest saloon for a pretzel, which he appears to be very fond of. If the door is closed that leads into the saloon, he jumps up against it, and in that way gains his entrance.

St. Louis, March 11.—H. Vickerg, sheriff of Douglas county, in this state, went last Saturday, with a posse, to the house of Shelt Alsoppe to arrest him. Alsoppe resisted the process, and fired a number of shots at the sheriff's party, one of which killed the sheriff. Alsoppe and his little girl, five years old, were then killed by the sheriff's posse and two other persons wounded. The child's death, of course, was not designed.

During the trial of Col. Campbell, of Pittsburg, three daughters and two sons of the defendant were in daily attendance, and when the verdict of acquittal came in five of the twelve jurymen—among others the well-known Thomas Bigham—were kissed out of gratitude by the Misses Campbell. Isn't this rather a dangerous precedent to establish?

New York, March 12.—A panic occurred at Gilmore's Garden at 8.25 this evening. A negro named Butler Fulton brutally murdered another named Ben. Johnson at Sloat's mill, Ga., a few days since. He first shot him through a crack in the door and then dragged him out on a sawdust pile, and burying a knife to the hilt in his abdomen, left him. In this horrible condition the poor fellow lay on the sawdust pile for twenty-four hours, when he was found and taken care of. All efforts to save his life, however, were unavailing.
