lim CINCINNATI, March 16, -There has been considerable excitement at Newport, Ky., all day on account of the arrest of Peter Klein, the tramp, who outraged Mrs. Truesdale a few days since. A crowd gathered in the neighborhood of the jail early to-day, but no demonstration was made until six o'clock this evening when about twenty-five men marched through Monmouth street to the jail, overpowered the jailer, knocked down two policemen and the mayor, secured Klein and marched off. Klein was taken to Mrs. Truesdale's house and indentified by her and then to the woods and undoubtedly hanged, although at this time the body has not been found.

Didn't Know it was Loaded.

Vincent Fallon, eleven years of age, residing at 1934 north Fiftcenth street, and Joseph Perrine, of 1250 north Fifteenth street, together with several other boys, were rehearsing a theatrical performance yesterday morning, in which Perrine assumed the villain's roll. During the mock representation Perrine drew a pistol upon Fallon and pulled the trigger, the ball lodging in his companion's neck, causing his almost instant death. Fallon's body was removed to his late residence and Perrise arrested. The latter claims that he was not aware of the weapon being loaded. -Philadelphia North American.

Blown to Pieces with Nytro-glycerine.

RED ROCK, Pa., March 25 .- At about 5 o'clock this afternoon an unknown man, evidently intoxicated, staggered through the streets, carrying on his shoulder a bag containing eight quart cans of glycerine. Fifteen minutes later the town was shaken and the inhabitants terribly frightened by a most terrific explosion. Investigation revealed the fact that the man had slipped down, causing the explosion, which scattered fragments of his body in every direction. All that could be found of him would not fill a collar box.
