Last Monday a horse belonging to F. B. Clouser, Esq., of this place, having been fed too many oats got a little too vigorous for Jesse Clouser, who was leading him, and in the struggle Jesse slipped and fell. The horse ran into town and after completely breaking up the wagon, was stopped.

Attempt at Robbery.—On Thursday evening as Mr. H. J. Eppler of Marysville was closing the shutters to his store some person struck him with a piece of an oar knocking him down. It is supposed the intention of the scamp was to rob him, but as the blow did not render Mr. E. senseless, and he called for help, the assailant ran away and made his escape.

Borough and Township Auditors.—The laws of this State require the auditors of every borough and township to meet annually on the second Monday in April, to audit and settle the accounts of the supervisors, overseers of the poor and all other township and borough officers except that of school directors, which comes off annually on the first Monday in June. These accounts are required by law to be published in at least two newspapers, under a severe penalty for neglect.

A Tragedy in Dauphin.—On Thursday evening a tavern keeper named Amos Gayman residing in Dauphin shot and instantly killed a Miss Douglass, and then shot himself through the heart. He was a married man but was infatuated with this girl, and murdered her as she was walking along the street with a lady friend, because she refused to return to his house. She had formerly lived at his house as a servant, but had left because his attentions to her were of a nature to make trouble in the family. The character of the girl was beyond reproach, and her murder created an intense excitement in Dauphin, and the surrounding county. She was aged about 19 years, and was pretty and intelligent. Her mother is a widow residing in the town. An inquest was held and the jury rendered the following verdict: "That Hedessah Douglass came to her death on the evening of March 27, by shooting, at the hands of Amos Gayman, receiving two bullet wounds, one upon the right, the other upon the left side of the chest, the latter entering the heart and causing instant death, the act having been premeditated."

The verdict of the jury on Gayman was: "That the said Amos Gayman came to his death on the same evening by committing suicide by shooting himself in the breast with a pistol."

Who is He?—On last Thursday two men left Carlisle in a wagon. One resides near Carlisle Springs and the other hailed from Perry county. Judging from what occurred on the way home they must have been in rather a mellow condition. When near the Springs the two gentlemen had a boxing match in the wagon as it was passing along.—This had not lasted long until both fell out into the mud, from which they emerged in rather a dilapidated condition. The gentlemen who resides near the Springs had, during the night, we are sorry to say, the further misfortune to have his pocket-book taken from him, containing about $15. We are authorized to say that it is in contemplation to offer a reward of $10 for the recovery of the money taken.—Carlisle Sentinel.

LIVERPOOL, Perry Co., Pa., March 28th, 1879.

The storm of excitement over the crimes and supposed criminals has passed away, and we have settled down to the even tenor of our ways, peacefully and tranquilly. We have just such people here, who delight in excitement of any kind; they seem to inherit it, they love it. But when a certain height has been reached (and they can have full followers only so far), the bubble bursts, and covers them with stagnant feeling. Thus stand we to-day. All regretting that they should have been led into any discussion on the charges—the direct causes of work silently—except it may be a few who stand badly in need of funds, and others who are working for self interest. Today you hear of nothing but details of saying anything or knowing anything about anything whatever. Let the people of Perry county know, that though there has been debited to our borough a formidable list of crimes covering ages gone, yet, doubt not in the end we will come out pure and spotless, and there will be credited to us enough of honesty, virtue, morality, to overcome all and everything which may have been charged against us.

It is confidently expected that navigation will be open next week. Our boatmen are making ready to move off at first notice. They long for the sweets and charms of their roving life. There are also prospects of them having a steady season of work, though freights may not be any better. The detention has been so much of late years as not to make it very profitable.

We had the Rev. Selbert, of the Evangelical Denomination, with us last Sunday. He complained of ill health, but spoke for one hour and five minutes. When in perfect health, we can't imagine how long he may talk. The denomination has done well in getting him, and are pleased with his talk, manners, bearing, etc.

Mr. Thompson is remodeling the residence purchased from Hon. M. B. Holman, opposite the "Owens House," one of the best and finest est hotels in Perry county, as a jury seemed to think. He will make a beautiful home, and has a beautiful and central situation. It all means that the Doctor is a friend to enterprise, sobriety, and above all to virtue, and has pitched his future tent among us.

To-night we have a lecture in the Evangelical church, on Odd Fellowship, by Mr. Boyer of Sunbury, an eminent light in the order. We expect to have a crowded house. We should have out of respect to the order, as they prove themselves to be a very brotherly set, so long as each member attends closely to his own individual affairs.

Our P. M. furnishes sheet music, and music books at reduced prices, also stationary of all kinds on hand. We have a tiptop P. M. none of your rickety Bloomfield offices. I do not inlinate as to your P. M. originally from this place—born and reared here, he here, inherited and was educated to that vim, energy, activity, for which he is so justly noted and celebrated.

We forgot to mention the death of John Shuler, aged 75 years. Also daughter of Frank and Etta Jeffries, aged about one year. It was a beautiful child, and hard, hard to part with. Frank is now aboard the Ticonderoga in Southern Africa. He has host of friends here and both he and Sady have the sympathy of the community. "Was so willed and she has "Gone, we know not from what suffering, Fled, we know not from what sin, O, ye gates that open heavenward—Clasp together, shut her in."

MAX.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

The Newburg postoffice was robbed on Saturday night of ten dollars in money, a box of cigars and some candy. The thief or thieves gained entrance by forcing a window. The postoffice is kept by Mr. Ramsey in connection with a store.

On Saturday, Mrs. Brandt, mother of Samuel Brandt, of Millin township, an aged lady, while passing out of the house, slipped on some ice and fell and broke her arm. Dr. Brehm adjusted the injured member. This is the third time the old lady has received a broken arm.

Col. Avery, of Mechanicsburg, died ery suddenly on Monday. He had been ailing for some time, but was recovering quite rapidly. He had taken a cup of tea, and remarked to his wife that he felt very well and in five minutes afterwards was dead. Mr. A. was employed on the Farmers Friend lately, but formerly was engaged in one of the departments at Washington, under the administration of Grant.

One day recently a watch and chain were missed by a student at Dickinson college, and a number of circumstances pointed to a young man recently dismissed, but who was still on good terms with the students, as being the thief. He had left town, but a dispatch from officer Hays caused his arrest in Harrisburg, and he was brought here by Mr. Hays Monday night. Bail was promptly furnished and efforts will be made to settle the case before it comes to court.

The ordinary quiet village of New Kingston was suddenly thrown into a state of great excitement early on Sunday morning. It appears that the council of the Lutheran Church of that place had a meeting in the audience room of their Church on Saturday evening, and adjourned thinking everything safe but next morning about half past three o'clock, long before the people cared about being disturbed from their cosy beds on Sunday morning they were aroused by the cry of fire. The fire was found to be in the Church. Prompt action prevented the flames from spreading, and the fire was soon put out. The damage is light and fully covered by insurance.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Daniel Spiecer, an aged citizen of Delaware township, died very suddenly, last Thursday. In the morning of that day he was in his usual health; he went to the barn to attend stock, and just as he entered the door of his house on his return from the barn he fell dead.

Mrs. Nancy Weidman, residing near Van Wert, died unexpectedly at 4 o'clock on Friday morning. On Thursday evening she enjoyed her usual health, and listened to the reading of two newspapers by County Superintendent Smith, who has been making his home at her house. At the hour mentioned above, a waiting-maid in the employ of Mrs. Weidman awoke Mr. Smith. He hastened to Mrs. Weidman's room and found her dying. She breathed but a few times, after he reached her bedside.

At the borough election held in this place in February last, the vote for Justice of the Peace was a tie.

Constable S. S. Wilson issued a proclamation for a special election to be held on Saturday, March 22, 1879, for the purpose of electing a Justice of the Peace.

On Saturday morning last when the election officers called on Mr. Musser, the Register and Recorder, for the ballot box, Mr. Musser found that the ballot box had been broken open and the tickets and registry of votes, polled at the February election, taken therefrom. As the custodian of the election boxes Mr. Musser placed them in the general and only vault furnished him for all valuable papers, but he is not supplied with any lock and key within the vault wherewith to protect them specially. The occurrence is extremely unpleasant for Mr. Musser, but no fair minded man, free from prejudice, would feel inclined to fault him until heard from. Suit has already been brought in the following form: "The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at the suggestion of George W. Cribbs, Philo D. Hamlin and John S. Graybill vs. Harvey Yeakly, J. W. Fasick and Howard Woodmansee." The defendants are the election board. The hearing will be had before Squire London on Friday next. The matter should be promptly, carefully and thoroughly investigated, and the guilty parties whoever they may be, if discovered and convicted summarily punished.—Millintown Democrat.
