Why was Noah's ark like a cat that is a bad mouser ?-because it was such a long while before it lit on ary rat.

His name was Wrath, and when he asked his girl to marry him she gave him a soft answer, and a soft answer turned away Wrath.

The mayor of a country town in the north of England, conceiving that the word "clause" is in the plural number, often talks of a "claw" in the act of Parliament. A sailor dropped out of the rigging on a ship of war, some fifteen or twenty feet, and fell plump on the lieutenant. "Wretch," said the officer, "where did you come from ?" "I came from Ireland, your honor." A clergyman at an afternoon service was asked to read a notice for a Woman's Rights lecture which he did in this wise: "At half-past six o'clock, at the school-house, in the first district, a hen will attempt to crow." "What do you know of the character of this man?" was asked of a

"What do I know of his character? I know it to be unbleachable, your Honor," he replied, with much emphasis. A very old lady on her deathbed in a penitential mood said: "I have been a great sinner more than eighty years, and didn't know it." An old darkey woman who had lived with her a long time exclaimed; "Lors! I knowed it all de witness at a police court the other day.

A gentleman was talking to a friend, in the presence of his attorney, about the value of honesty. "Honesty!" said the attorney; "what is 'honesty?" "What is that to you?" retorted the gentleman; "don't meddle with things which do not concern you!"

mother on her return from church how she liked the preacher. "Didn't like him at all," was the reply. "Why?" asked the mother. "Cause he preached till he made me sleepy and then hollered so loud he wouldn't let me go to President Lincoln once listened

A little girl was asked by her patiently while a friend read a long manuscript to him, and then asked: "What do you think of it? How will it take?" The President reflected a little while, and then answered: "Well, for people who like that kind of thing, I think that is just about the kind of thing they'd like."

George III., speaking to Archbishop Sutton respecting the largeness of his family, made the remark, "1 believe your Grace has better than a dozen?" "No, sir," replied the Archoishop, "only eleven." "Well," replied the King, " isn't that better than a dozen ?"

A dealer in fertilizers down in Alabama, bragging of his guano, says, a farmer recently put a sample in his pocket in which there happened to be a carpet-tack, and started home on horseback; before reaching his house his steed broke down, and the farmer was at a loss to discover the cause until he found that the carpet-tack had grown to be a long bar of railway iron.

A physician in a country town, who had been annoyed by numerous questions concerning the condition of a patient, was stopped, while on his busy rounds, by a man with the old question; "How's M-----Y" "Ill," replied the physician.

"Does he keep his bed?"

"Of course he does. You don't suppose he's fool enough to sell his bed, when he's so ill, do you?" A little girl had been absent with her parents at camp meeting for two weeks. On her return her little playmate, Ella Jones, entertained her by showing her new playthings. At night little Mary, in saying her prayers, said: "Oh, Lord, bless little Ella Jones; make her a good girl, so I can take all her playthings away from her, and she won't want them again."

An old gentleman without tact, on meeting some ladies whom he had known as girls in his boyhood, cordially remarked : "Bless me! How time flies! Let me see. It is fifty-two years come next April since we used to go to school together in the old red school-house. I was a little chap then, you remember, and you were fine young women." The old man could never understand why his cordial greeting was received so coldly.
