GEN. JOHN A. DIX died at his residence in New York on Tuesday last.

IN OHIO a woman can be appointed a Notary Public.

THE Border, raid bill, and the rlot damage, bills, having been defeated there is a chance for some other business to be done.

PETROLEUM appears to be taking rank with tea, coffee and sugar in Europe as an article of such necessary use as to be a fit subject for taxation for revenue purposes. Most of our leading staples are fast obtaining a similar importance in Europe.

A BRISK revival of the Foreign immigration is noticed at New York, no doubt produced by continued depression in Europe and better times in the Republic. Should this influx continue to increase, the steamers of the regular lines will be fortunate.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad Company has informed such of its tenants as are engaged in liquor business in Jersey City that after the first of May their leases will not be renewed for bar-rooms. The time is not far distant when the company will employ no man who indulges in drink, even moderately. This is a temperance movement that will be gratifying to the traveling public.

WITH the sudden withdrawal of United States four per cents from the market at par, there is an advance in all sorts of securities that promise anything like five or six per cent. interest with any reasonable guarantee of regular payments. The activity on our own market witnessed in the latter part of last week has not been equaled in several years, and the demand for bonds as well as stocks has been very great. As long as the fours could be had for the asking, people held off, but now that the unknown quantity in the market has been ascertained, we find millions of money seeking investment, and railroad securities especially going up with great rapidity. In the last three days of last week no less than five millions and a half were sold on the New York Exchange, and the sales in Philadelphia were very large, aggregating nearly $200,000.-Philadelphia North American.

New Currency Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 22 .- The House to-day passed the bill for the redemption of the subsidary silver coins. This is a very important measure to merchants and dealers who are obliged to receive subsidary coin in payment for goods and wares and will also, if it becomes a law, enhance the purchasing power of the laboring man's currency. The bill as it passed the House provides that silver coin of smaller denomination than one dollar shall be exchangeable into lawful money when presented at the treasury or sub-treasury in sums of $20 or any multiple thereof; that coins received at the treasury under the provisions of this act may be exchanged for lawful money in sums of $20 or the multiples thereof; that subsidary coins shall be a legal tender in all sums not exceeding $20; and that the minor coins (copper and nickel) shall be receivable for postage and postage stamps to the amount of $3. The coinage committee is considering several other important propositions in regard to silver, one of which relates to the retirement of the trade dollar and its re-coinage into legal tender dollars.

friend of his at one time, and he had been resolved to punish him ever since. The audience remained after this episode and the play proceeded to the end.

Negroes to Give Place to Chinese.

The negro exodus which has attracted much attention for some days throughout the country has now become a subject of serious consideration in political circles. Information recently received, indicates that there will be quite a stampede from all the cotton States, and instead of being a local movement in Louisian and Mississippi, it promises to become universal throughout the South .--The Southern planting interest is already taking steps for self-protection. The mass convention of the planters of the Mississippi Valley, to be held at Vicksburg, May 8, will be attended by the Mississippi Senators and Representatives, all of whom, including Senator Bruce, have been invited. Information received by them shows that the planters are apprehensive of a serious industrial crisis, and are preparing to meet the emergency. Agents have already been dispatched to California, to confer with the Six Chinese Companies, and also to Hong Kong to ascertain what arrangements could be made to secure several cargoes of Chinese laborers to take the places of the negro fugitives. A number of letters have been received by Southern Representatives from their constituents, urging a change of front on the Chinese question, and instead of restricting immigration, to facilitate it by more favorable treaty stipulation. The specified object, according to prominent Southern Senators, now is to introduce at least 20,000 Chinamen, to be ready for cotton picking in the coming fall, and put them in training for planting operations next spring.

The animosity existing between the whites and the blacks at the South would seem, from the sentiments expressed by the Southern representatives, to be so deep seated that the former are unwilling even to make concessions in order to induce the negroes to remain.— The whites claim that by the introduction of Chinese laborers they would be able to establish a system more advantageous to their interests, and separated from the political questions involved in negro labor. The industrial question in the South has now become one of leading importance.

In explanation of the negro movement, it is asserted by Southern and even Northern Democrats, that for several months a scheme has been on foot to colonize a formidable negro vote in the closely contested States, notably Ohio and Indiana. The Republicans disclaim any such purpose, or any knowledge of such an attempt, and declare that this explanation is but a flimsy veil to cover the real cause of the movement—namely, the bad treatment received by the colored laborers.

A Woman Without Conscience.

Peter Smith, sixty years of age, induced Mary McNamee, a relative, to come and live with him at his house in Philadelphia, promising if she would take care of him and his house, he would buy her a sewing machine and she could keep all the money she earned. After living thus for some time the old man made a will, giving her the house; but, thinking she might have trouble in getting possession of it after his death, he was induced to burn the will and give her a deed for it. He kept possession of the property for some time, but finally Mary turned him out, and in addition brought suit against him for fifty-five weeks' wages. The case came up before Judge Mitchell on Thursday, but the jury evidently thought Mary had got enough, so they returned a verdict in favor of Peter.

Sauce for the Gandors.

HARRISBURG, April 23 .- The members of the Legislature who dropped into the Treasury Department to-day to draw a little money on their salary account were astonished to learn that there would be no more cash for them for some time, and that they would have to take their chances along with other employees of the State. Each member has received up to date $720 for the one hundred days' session, and the Treasurer has reached the conclusion that as the schools have been behind for over a year, and other State institutions have been refused their money, the lawmakers, who have been frittering away the time, should have a little of the same medicine. Over two hundred and thirty thousand dollars have thus far been paid out on account of Legislative salaries and expenses, and complaints have now become so numerous and loud about the legislators being paid in advance, at the expense of everything and everybody else, that this condition of affairs has been forced. The verdict at the Treasury Department is no more money for members until the close of the session. Such a situation of State financial affairs has never before existed, and to-day there is general weeping and wailing. It is my belief that this will have an effect to shorten the session .--Some well posted people hold the view that this decision of the State Treasurer is intended as a "pincher" to compel the members to put a tax on oil. The long-delayed school appropriations will now be paid as fast as the money comes into the Treasury.

But Few Would Do So.

The residence of Joseph Merger, at Lancaster, Ohio, was destroyed by fire yesterday. All the family escaped by jumping from the second-story windows except a girl eight years of age, who perished in the flames. Merger is a freight conductor, and was just leaving Lancaster with his train when he was told his house was on fire. Feeling that his duty was to his employers first he remained with his train and brought it to Columbus while his house was burning.

Deaths from Coal Oil Lamp Explosion.

WILKESDARRE, April 22.—As three children of Oliver Stout were going to bed in Penobscott on Monday night, a coal oil lamp exploded, setting fire to their clothing. They ran towards a neighbor's house but the oldest girl fell in the road and was so badly burned that she died early this morning. The other girl died to-day, and the third child, a boy, is not expected to recover.

Great Fires in Cuba.

HAVANA, April 22.—The rains have relieved the drought, aggravated by terrible south winds. Two disastrous conflagrations resulted from drought in the cane fields of the districts of Colon, Matanzas and Cardenas. Over fifty plantations suffered more or less. Oneeighth of the crops and buildings were entirely destroyed.

A Murderer Sentenced.

CINCINNATI, April 21,—A man named John Crossin, while drunk, yesterday, fell across the Balt. and Ohio R. R. track, st Somerset. The express train came up, but Crossin was saved by a heroic young lady, who rushed in and pulled him away.

137 It is said that one of the richest men in Constantine, Mich., always borrows the chewing tobacco he uses and puts the quids away to dry after chewing them. The dried stuff he uses for smoking tobacco. It is by the use of such close economy that people sometimes become rich.

A freight train on the Kansas City branch of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad ran on to a burning bridge on Saturday morning last, and broke through. Fourteen cars were piled into the creek and burned, with their contents. Two lives were lost and two persons seriously injured.

A young man of Osgood, Ind., obtained a torpedo—used by railroads for stopping trains where there is danger—and exploded it by striking it with an axe. The force of the explosion threw the axe back against his face and shoulder, cutting a horrible gash in both. The wounds are painful but not necessarily dangerous.

The postmaster at Fort Worth, Tex., telegraphs to the Post-office Department that three of the highwaymen who have recently been committing so many robberies of the mails and mail conches in that vicinity have been captured, and are now on their way to Austin, in charge of Special Agent Foster.

The Fairbury, Ill., "Independent" says that the lightning played quite a freak with the house of Mr. McQuid, near Dana, during one of the late storms, tearing out three corners, a part of a roof, and throwing a window and frame on a bed the people were in, and destroying a deak containing a quantity of powder without exploding the powder.

A gentleman in West Chester .who is fond of pets is illustrating some kind traits in animals. He had a female ratterrier whose pupples all died, and he also had a litter of rabbits whose mother died. He put the young rabbits to the dog, and she is raising them with all the care possible, and the rabbits cling to her as affectionate adopted children should.

(37) A special dispatch from Mount Vernon, Ky., states that for weeks past a party of men have been holding meetings near that place, and have effected an organization for the purpose of killing several persons now on trial in the Circuit Court, should they escape conviction. They have also threatened to burn the town and hang certain county officials.

(3) A day or two ago a colored man visited several houses in Quincy, Illinois, bearing in his arms a handsome, healthy little white baby and offered to dispose of it to several families for a moderate price in cash. At one place the lady plied him with so many questions that he precipitately left the house, leaving the baby with her. It was supposed that he had been hired to make way with the child.

A Lancaster county man named Martin left his home for the West eleven years ago and nothing was heard of him for so long that letters of administration for his estate were procured. Just as they were about to be executed the man turned up, and now for the first time ever known in that county it is necessary to have the letters of administration vacated.
