The Reformed Parsonage in this place was sold on Thursday last for $725.—Crist Smith was the purchaser.

Supervisors are beginning their duties on the roads. Some of the roads badly need their services.

On next Saturday evening Mr. George Barnett will deliver a lecture in the Airyview school house. All persons are invited.

The cellar of Mr. Baker, who keeps a store at Nekoda P. O., this county, was entered on Thursday a week and robbed of some small articles.

A horse belonging to Mr. Jacob Buck, of Buffalo twp., was taken sick while in the field harrowing, and was taken out and put in a pasture, where he soon died from no cause that was known.

Mr. James L. Foote, employed in the railroad yard at Altoona, had the misfortune to have two of his fingers smashed the other day. James tied up his fingers and came home a few days.—Dunncannon Record.

On Saturday morning a week an entire car on the emigrant train westward bound, was occupied by "Heathen Chinese." They had made money enough, and were bound for China to enjoy it.

Many superstitious people in Chambersburg assert that they believe Shaffer, the recently hanged murderer, innocent, because the night following his execution a light fall of snow covered his grave.

On Thursday a workman in the narrows lit his pipe and then threw down the match. In a few moments a fire of such magnitude was burning that it was not extinguished till a large portion of the narrows had been burned over. Fortunately it burned but little wood.

On last Monday afternoon a week, a son of Mr. Isaac Erdley, of Penn twp., Snyder county, without the knowledge of any one went to the stable and took out one of his father's horses, as is supposed, for the purpose of riding him to water. Through some cause he was thrown from the horse, and when found was dead, having the top of his head crushed in.

Fire in Dunncannon.—On Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock, the Hotel building belonging to and occupied by Joseph Mayall, was discovered to be on fire, which resulted in the destruction of the building. The flames, however, were arrested before any damage was done to the surrounding buildings.

Six Men to be Hung.—It is probable that six men will be hung in Lebanon Co. A dispatc dated the 24th inst., says: The trial of Charles Drews, Frank Stichler, Israel Brandt, Isiah Hummel, Henry F. Weiss and Geo. Zechman, for the murder of Jos. Raber, in December last, was concluded to-day. The jury retired at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and at 9 o'clock to-night rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Time was granted counsel for the defense to file reasons for a new trial.

A Strange Mistake.—A few days ago Gates Shoemaker, of Newburg, received a telegram from Harrisburg which the sender meant should convey to him the sad news of the death of the wife of his brother Theophilus Shoemaker, at that place. Through an error in sending, transcribing or reading the message Mr. Shoemaker was led to believe that his brother had died. Theophilus is a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Newburg, and to avoid delay Gates drew the benefits accruing to him by his supposed death and started for Harrisburg with the intention of burying him. It may be possible to imagine his surprise when he reached the house of his brother Theophilus in Harrisburg and found the man he believed to be dead standing at a looking-glass shaving himself.

Serious Accident.—On Saturday last one of our most estimable farmers, Mr. W. Logue, met with a serious and painful accident, while engaged in thrashing.
