PROF. HARRIS' RADICAL CURE FOR SPERMATORHŒA.
—THE—
"SEMINAL PASTILLE"

A Valuable Discovery and New Departure in Medical Science, an entirely New and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent Cure of Seminal Emissions & Impotency by the only true way, viz: Direct Application to the principal seat of the Disease, acting by Absorption, and exerting its specific influence on the Seminal Vesicles Ejaculatory Ducts, Prostrate Gland and Urethra. The use of the Remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience, it is quickly dissolved and soon absorbed, producing an immediate soothing and restorative effect upon the sexual and nervous organizations wrecked from self-abuse and excesses, stopping the drain from the system, restoring the mind to health and sound memory, removing the Dimness of Sight, Nervous Debility, Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, Etc. Etc. and the appearance of premature old age usually accompanying this trouble, and restoring perfect Sexual Vigor, where it has been dormant for years. This mode of treatment has stood the test in very severe cases, and is now a pronounced success. Drugs are too much prescribed in these troubles, and, as many can bear witness to, with but little if any permanent good. There is no Nonsense about this Preparation, Practical observation enables us to positively guarantee that it will give satisfaction. ——During the eight years that it has been in general use, we have thousands of testimonials as to its value, and it is now conceded by the Medical Profession to be the most rational means yet discovered of reaching and curing this very prevalent trouble, that is well known to be the cause of untold misery to so many, and upon whom quacks prey with their useless nostrums and big fees. The Remedy is put up in a neat box, enough to last a month, and sent in a plain wrapper by mail sealed for $5.—Two boxes, (sufficient to effect a permanent cure in severe cases) $8 ——Three boxes lasting three full months, will stop emissions, and restore vigor, in the worst cases, $7.—Full DIRECTIONS for using will accompany EACH BOX.

(Send for a Descriptive Pamphlet giving Anatomical Illustrations, which will convince the most sceptical that they can be restored to perfect manhood, and fitted for the duties of life, same as if never affected. Sent Sealed for stamp to any one. Sold ONLY by the

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price, 6 cts.
A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhœa, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M.D., author of the "Green Book," &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
☞ This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

☞ "Can a clergyman marry himself?" asks an exchange. We suppose he can, but we are afraid he would not be a happy couple, and would be a fool to do so when there are plenty of girls that could be had for the asking.

☞ A man went home the other evening and found his house locked up. Getting in at the window with considerable difficulty, he found on the table a note from his wife: "I have gone out: you will find the door key on one side of the door-step."

☞ "Do you really believe, Mr. Podkins, that anybody could make a head from butter?" asked the landlady. "Well, yes, ma'am I should think they might," said Podkins, as he pushed back his individual butter plate; "somebody has got as far as the hair with this.

☞ Scene in a horse car. A roughly-dressed man, and a newly-made husband and his bride, the occupants.—Car goes off the track and rough man says damn. Up jumps hubby saying, "How dare you say damn before my wife?"
"How did I know your wife wanted to say damn first?" was the reply.

☞ "Do you mean to say, positively, madam," said a lawyer to a witness, "that the person referred to never left his native village after the day of his marriage?"
"I do."
"How do you know he never did?"
"Because I saw him buried in the village graveyard the same afternoon."

☞ Tailor (to customer.) "I don't understand your style of doing things. Your salary is big enough to enable you to pay your bills."
Customer. "Well, who said it wasn't?"
Tailor. "Yon don't keep your word."
Customer. "Certainly I do. I told you I'd pay you out of my savings."
Tailor. "Well?"
Customer. "Well, I haven't saved any thing."

☞ One day Billy, that's my brother, he and Sammy Doppy was playin' by a mud hole, and billy he said: "Now, Sammy, les play we was a barnyard; you be the pig and lie down and woller, and I'll be a bull and beller like everything." So they got down on their hands and knees, and Sammy he went in the mud and wollered, while Billy bellered like distant thunder. Bimeby Sammy he cum out muddy—you never see such a muddy little feller—and he said: "Now you be the pig an' let me beller." But Billy he said: "I aint a very good pig 'fore dinner, and it'll be time 'nuff for you to beller when yer mother sees yer close."

☞ A drummer visiting one of the first-class hotels, at the breakfast table gave an elaborate order to the waiter, and included in it "two soft boiled eggs."
Sambo went off to the kitchen but soon returned and asked:
"Massa, did you want them eggs scrambled?"
"No" said the drummer, "I want them soft boiled."
"All right, sir," and off he trotted again.
In a few minutes he loomed in again, and remarked in a most persuasive tone:
"Massa, you better have dem eggs scrambled,"
"What do you mean?" roared Harry.
"Well," said Sambo, "Massa Boss, I'll tell you; dem eggs ain't very fresh and dey'll look better scrambled."

A Joke on Curran.

Curran once met his match in a pert, jolly, keen-eyed son of the sod, who acted as hostler at a large stable, and who was up as a witness in a case of dispute in the matter of a horse trade. Curran much desired to break down the credibility of this witness, and thought to do it by making the man contradict himself—by tangling him up in a network of adroitly framed questions—but all to no avail. The hostler was a companion to Sam Weller. His good common sense, and his equanimity and good nature were not to be overturned. By and by Curran, in towering wrath, belched forth, as not another counsel would have dared to do in the presence of the Court.
"Sirrah, you are incorrigible! The truth is not to got from you, for it is not in you. I see the villain in your face!"
"I'faith, yer honor," said the witness, with the utmost simplicity of truth and honesty, "my face must be moity clane and shinin' indade, if it can reflect like that!"
For once in his life the great barrister was floored by a simple witness. He could not recover from that repartee, and the case went against him.
