Clergymen like brakemen, do a good deal of coupling.

Which side of a horse has the most hair on?—the outside.

"Twenty years ago," said a colored philosopher, "niggers was wuf a thousand dollars apiece. Now dey would be deh at two dollars a dozen. It's 'stonishing' how de race am runnin' down."

A well known dramatist can say rude things. Some one said to him last week, "You want a new hat." "Yes, that's quite true," he replied; "but why say it? I never told you, you wanted a new head."

One of our female teachers threatened to keep an unruly boy fifteen minutes after school. "I wish you would make it half an hour," said the appreciative youth, "for you are the prettiest teacher in this town."

Jeems: "I see, Robin, that the paper says we're tae hae anither storm next Monday." Robin: "Mon, it's terrible! Since the Yankees hae gotten the weather intae their keepin' we've a storm every ither day."

"Did you ever dabble in stocks?" asked a lawyer of a witness who was known to have fled from his native land to this asylum of the free. "Well, yes, I got my foot in them once in the old country," was the answer.

"Let me see," said a guest, as, steepled in hand, he approached the landlord of a country tavern, "the stage doesn't go for some time yet, I believe. Am I right?" "No," replied the landlord, "you're left. The stage went before you were up."

A gentleman addressing his servant:—"James, how is it that my butcher's bills are so large, and I always have such bad dinners?" "Really, sir, I don't know; for I'm sure that we never have anything nice in the kitchen that we don't send some of it up to the parlor."

An Omaha belle recently received a present of a pair of twenty-four button kid gloves from one of her admirers. She wrote him a letter of thanks, in which she frankly told him he made a great mistake in the size, but she had remedied it by cutting off the feet and only wearing the legs.

A citizen went into a Norwich hardware store the other day, and inquired: "How much do you ask for a bath-tub for a child?" "Three dollars and seventy-five cents," was the reply. "W-h-e-w!" whistled the customer. "Guess we'll have to keep on washing the baby in the coal-scuttle till prices come down."

Pete, of Memphis, was a great exhorter in campmeeting, and always concluded his exhortation by saying that whenever the Lord called for him he was ready to go. So Darkey Sam, to prove Pete's sincerity, called one night and knocked at Pete's door.

"Who dat?" shouted Pete. "The Lord," responded Sam. "What de Lord want?" asked Pete. "Come for Pete," answered Sam. "Oh!" returned Pete, "dat darkey moved from Memphis nigh on tree year ago."

A Comical Demand. The following is a copy of a letter received by a railroad officer in Boston, demanding damages for the killing of a cow on the track of a railroad in the West: "Dear sir: I am informed that some time about Christmas one of your trains ran over and so crippled a black spotted heifer of mine that she had to be killed. Mr. — says he skinned her and can give date—or near it—of the accident. This heifer was not a 'Durham' or any other thoroughbred stock, but she was the last of the young stock from a cow my wife's mother gave her fourteen years ago, and we hoped to perpetuate the stock through her. Now my wife wants $15 for that heifer as legitimate damages; if you pay constructive or other damages on the love and affection part, why it will foot up more. Let me hear from you—if I have got to prove up and all that—if not, send us what you usually pay. Of course we hated especially to lose this heifer, but I have always received such fair dealings from you that I will not grumble at whatever you may do in the premises. We have only two more cows in the bottom to kill; if you wish to commute for those and run over them at your leisure, make us a proposition.
