Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing train numbers, times, and stations from Philadelphia to New York.

Brief Items.

Lebanon county boasts of having a rooster which lays an egg each day. Mt. Holly has had a walking match with four contestants.

Mr. James Witmer who always raises a good crop of potatoes, is this year putting out twenty acres. Mrs. Fields residing near Orrstown, had an ear bitten off by a horse, she was passing in the stable.

Christ Smith is erecting a new fence around the Reformed Parsonage, located on High street, this borough, which he purchased a short time since. Low water has interfered with the operation of the shad fishers above Newport.

We learn that Jacob Dum, of Spring township, has leased his lands to some parties who desire to prospect for iron ore. On Friday evening of last week Geo., a young son of Peter Wertz, fell off the hog pen, and broke his left arm at the elbow.

Some evil minded scamp, hacked and scored a lot of young trees recently planted by Mr. P. Bosserman, in front of his residence in Newport. Macklin's store at McVeytown was burglariously entered on Thursday night.

Wm. Eckert, son of George Eckert, of Centre twp., won the prize of a silver watch in a walking match at Harrisburg recently. There were eleven contestants. The young man who was picked up insensible above Mifflin last week, proves to be John McGarvey of Philadelphia, who had been on a visit to McVeytown. He has since died.

On Sunday evening a man named John W. Furl was brought from Liverpool, and lodged in jail on the charge of breaking into a cellar in that place, and stealing some provisions. The showers on Thursday, followed by a good rain ever since, gave vegetation of all kinds a start, and made the hearts of the farmers rejoice. It was badly needed.

A freight brakeman named Coulter, residing at Huntingdon, was knocked off his train, by the canal bridge near Rockville, on Thursday morning, and falling under the train was killed. The McVeytown Journal says that "David Hershberger, Jr., of Bratton township, recently lifted a set-net out of the Juniata river containing 90 catfish and 4 eels, the average weight of which was 3 pounds."

A fish peddler on Wednesday last, sold some "fresh Juniata shad" to some of our citizens, at a high price, which proved to be stale Delaware shad. They think the moral character of that fish peddler compares well with his fish. Mrs. Flynn, wife of James Flynn of Centre township, fell from the mow above the flour in the stable and was badly bruised, so much so that she is confined to her bed. Dr. Sweeney was sent for to alleviate her sufferings.

On Friday morning two freight cars loaded with grain and flour went over the high embankment near the N. C. R. W. bridge at Marysville, breaking the cars to pieces, and causing the loss of much of the contents. The contract for the wall for the erection of a new brick school house near Montgomery's Ferry, was given out to Lewis McConnell and Wm. Singer, they being the lowest bidders, at $2.30 per perch, they to find the stone and dig out the foundation. On Monday the barn on the farm of John Dyer, in Hamilton township, Franklin county, was set on fire by a little son of Mr. Sellers, the tenant on the farm and was burned, with one colt, 17 hogs, reaper, corn and other articles. One of our correspondents informs us that not long ago, one of the children of Mr. J. W. Kell, of Ellottsburg, gave a dumpling, which was left from dinner, to their old house dog, and immediately after he had swallowed it, he choked, and in a few minutes he was as dead as a door nail. Isaac Orwan, of Centre township, received two flesh wounds in one of his arms a short time since from the bursting of a rifle. The gun had been loaded by some unknown person. Mr. O. supposes that the load had not been properly put down, which caused the bursting. The barrel was split for a distance of eight inches, and nothing could be found of the lock, except the spring.

A fine lot of cattle fed by Mr. Wm. Woods, of Blain, were driven through here on Thursday last. The drive was too much for them, and making it necessary to leave two foot sore animals at this place, and two more were left about 2 miles from here. The cattle were very fine ones, and had been sold to Mr. Wilson Bair of White Hall.

Friday evening a week, the body of a man named Theodore Feicht or Faite, was found on the premises of Theophilus Fenn, Esq., at Marysville. The appearance of the body indicated that the man had been dead for several hours. At an inquest held at the residence of the deceased, Drs. Epply and Traver decided that death was caused from apoplexy.

Mr. Hollenbaugh's apprentice at Ellottsburg, was bitten by a neighbor's dog in his foot, while with the other foot he gave the animal so severe a kick that it resulted in the dog's death. Finding the dog was dead the apprentice, gave him a few tramps and then picked him up to carry him to the woods, but finding his load rather heavy, he took the dog by the tail to drag him, whereupon the dog jumped up and ran away.

By the appearance on Saturday morning in some of the alleys in this place, we judge that a vigilance committee must have been operating on some of the dogs that have been making night hideous, for some time past. No less than four have had the bark taken out of them. Though of no use in the community it is rather rough to make this wholesale destruction of the poor animals.

Cheap Lumber.—Messrs. W. R. S. Cook & Co., have again reduced prices of lumber, shingles, &c., and are now selling at remarkably low prices. Give them a call if wanting lumber, &c.

Run Over.—On Wednesday last a boy named Stiffey, residing in Duncannon, was run over by a wagon loaded with cider, belonging to Mr. Jonathan Michener. The boy was terribly crushed and died the following day from the injuries. He was about twelve years of age. Several boys were on the wagon at the time, and in playing the lad hurt was pushed off, and before the wagon could be stopped the wheel had passed over him. No blame can be attached to the driver.

An Unpleasantness.—A young man named Albright, residing in Bucks Valley, cleared a piece of land and sowed it in wheat last fall. He however failed to fence it, and in consequence is badly troubled by stray cattle selecting his wheat for a pasture. This shows good judgment on the part of the cattle, but Albright gets mad about it. Last week he called on one of his neighbors, Mr. J. L. Peters, and was so violent in his manner that Mr. P. was obliged to use his crutch to defend himself. Albright's arm was somewhat bruised by a blow, but no other injury was done.

A New Time Table.—A new time table went into effect on the Pennsylvania Railroad on Monday the 12th inst., the following points of information in regard to which will be of interest to the traveling public. The day express leaves Pittsburg 8.26 A. M., city time, and arrives at Harrisburg 3.55 P. M. Passengers on this train for local points between Harrisburg and Philadelphia, change cars and take an accommodation train leaving Harrisburg at 4.30 P. M. This train makes all stops and arrives in Philadelphia at 7.30 P. M. The Johnstown express leaves Johnstown as before, making the usual stops as far as Paoli, from which point to Philadelphia, it runs through without stopping. Passengers on this train for local points between Paoli and Philadelphia, change cars at Paoli and take an accommodation train leaving that point at 5.10 P. M.—10 minutes after the arrival of the express.

The Sunday mail train leaves Columbia two hours later than before, arriving at Philadelphia at 7.00 P. M. Robbery at Marysville.—On Thursday night the store belonging to J.B. Traver & Bro., at Marysville, was broken into, and robbed of a quantity of ladies shoes, gold and silver watches, cigars, knives, and notions generally. Access was had to the store by piling boxes on a porch and crawling over the transom of the back door. The robbery was committed between nine and eleven o'clock, and the loss of the goods was discovered by one of the firm. The thieves made their exit through a rear door in the basement, going through the back lot to reach the river, where they took boats and made off with their plunder. A number of robberies have been committed in Marysville recently, all of which have been skillfully planned, the one Thursday night showing that parties familiar with the premises had a hand in the job. A liberal reward is offered for the arrest of the guilty party.

Fire Near Marysville.—The Messrs. Seidle, of Marysville, as is well known, are the proprietors of the Perry forges, on the outskirts of the town. A party have been engaged at this business for some time, on the mountain adjoining the place on the south. A saw-mill firm had put up a shanty, in which the hands employed by them when they were running bunked for the night. Sawing operations having ceased, the Seidle Brothers gained permission to use the rough building for their men, who took their meals there, etc., in fact lived in the shanty. The saw-mill men, however, allowed a quantity of belting to remain in the house, as they did also a large saw. On Thursday evening one of the wood-choppers lit his pipe for a smoke, throwing the lighted match down without taking care that it was extinguished. From this the shanty caught on fire and was razed to the ground, consuming the belting, destroying the usefulness of the saw, burning up the clothing of the workmen, some wearing apparel and a watch for one of them. The Messrs. Seidle sustain the damages done in this instance—the destruction of the saw, belting, &c.—News.

Painful Accident.—A painful accident occurred at the residence of Henry Shank, near Plain Hill, on Friday, the 2nd inst. He is erecting a large barn and that day was set apart for the raising of the same. Over 100 hands were in attendance and all went well until they were in the act of raising one of the end frames. It appears the sills were not carefully secured, and when the frame was high enough to reach with short spikes, the sill slipped from the wall and the frame shot forward over it until it struck the ground, when it fell back, fastening eight or ten men under it, seven of whom were injured severely.—Franklin Repository.

Church Notices. Presbyterian Church.—Preaching each Sabbath at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening 8 o'clock. Sunday School at 9 A. M. Preaching at the M. E. Church next Sunday at 10 A. M. Sunday School 9 A. M. Prayer meeting, Sunday and Thursday evenings. Also, preaching at Mount Gilead 2 P. M., Landisburg 8 P. M. Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week: On Friday, George, a young son of Rev. W. L. Wallace, while playing at school accidentally ran against a tree and broke his right arm. The nature of the injury was not discovered until several hours after it occurred. A few days since Mr. J. W. Miller, of Upper Allen, attacked a tramp who had been making deprecations upon his place. A dog belonging to Mr. Miller took part, but, chewed his master up considerably before help came. As Mr. Eckels, of Hogestown, was driving across the railroad track in Mechanicsburg on Monday morning, an engine that was standing near the crossing gave a fierce shriek which so frightened Mr. Eckels' horse that he was unable to manage him, and he ran away, throwing Mr. E. out and damaging the buggy considerably. On last Saturday, about 10 A. M., Major Jacob Dorschelmer dropped suddenly dead at the door of his dwelling, in Mechanicsburg. The doctors pronounced his ailment heart disease. The deceased had been a soldier in the late war, being captain of the first company which left Mechanicsburg, which was probably the first to leave this county. The poor house matters seem to have been settled satisfactorily to those directly interested, if not to the people. Director Roth has appointed Hugh Stuart, and the two have chosen David S. Kerr, of Kerrsville, these three men now constituting the board of directors. The significant statement is made: "No proceedings will be entered against any one."

On Thursday as G. B. Miller, of West-pennsboro township, was burning some brush he left the fire for a few minutes, a little daughter being with him in the field. Hearing screams from his daughter he found that her clothes were on fire.—He ran to her and by rolling her body in the recently plowed ground succeeded in freeing her from the fire, but not until she was fatally burned, the child dying the next morning. Mr. Miller was himself badly burned in his efforts to save his child.—Star. On Tuesday, at about one o'clock, while Mr. Charles Creager, of New Cumberland, was hauling lumber with a four horse team, the horses became unmanageable as they were descending a hill and started to run. The saddle horse fell with Mr. Creager, hurling him violently against a tree and fracturing his skull. He was picked up insensible and remained so until death occurred at ten minutes past one P. M., Wednesday, just twenty-four hours after the accident occurred. On Monday morning a horse attached to a buggy ran off in Chapel alley, and in the run of about half a square succeeded in badly wrecking the buggy. In running he passed directly over a fire plug and it was this that played such a swift havoc with the vehicle. The team belonged to Mr. Martin Epley, a farmer above town, and had been left standing at the blacksmith shop of Mr. Simon Smith, without being tied, "but only for a minute," by a man in the employ of Mr. Epley.—Carlisle Sentinel.

Thursday afternoon James Hurley, while driving a wagon load of coal through Middle Spring, had occasion to draw the rubbers, and in the act of doing so, slipped, and fell under the wagon, the hind wheel passing over both his legs. The weight of coal on the wagon was about four tons, yet, strange to say, neither of his limbs were broken.

A fire of considerable magnitude has been raging in the South Mountain nearly the whole of this week. The Newville "Enterprise" says the fire originated "about Big Pond Furnace, and near Strom's saw mill, and on Tuesday evening a large column of smoke hung over this part of the Valley. Bits of burned leaves actually fell in our streets, a distance of seven or more miles from the fire.—Shippensburg News.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week. The leather store of Mr. Enoch Shal-lenger at Bunkertown, below Mc-Alisterville, was entered one evening this week and about fifty dollars worth of calf-skins and leather taken. The thieves must have been well acquainted as they bored off the two locks of the door without mistake. They left there some carriage curtains they had taken from ex-Sheriff Knouse. Heavy forest fires occurred in the western end of this county, on Sunday and Monday last. The fire in Lack twp., on Sunday was terrific: it burned over territory that has no fire on it for twenty-five years. Much of the young timber was ruined. The lands of Jacob Noggle and Robert Patterson and others were run over, and the fences were only saved by vigorous fighting. Some of Mr. Patterson's were burned.—Tribune.
