ANOTHER VETO is expected to-day, as it is said the President disapproves of the legislative bill which was sent to him on Friday last.

A PERSISTENT effort is being made at Washington to bring about a restoration of the income tax, and it is even likely that the promoters of such legislation will have things much their own way.

The announcement of a two per cent dividend by the Pennsylvania railroad will be pleasant news to thousands of people in this and other States who have been holding on to the favorite stock through good and evil report until now.

Rail Road Leased.

On last Wednesday afternoon the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company took possession of the North Pennsylvania and Bound Brook railroads, under lease for nine hundred and ninety-nine years.

ALTHOUGH it has not attracted so much attention as some others, the bill relating to the transfer of cases from State to Federal courts is as dangerous a measure as any which have been lately brought forward.

A Check for One Cent.

George S. Gorham closed his accounts as Secretary of the Senate on Tuesday. After eleven years' service, during which he has disbursed many millions—for the United States Senate is the most expensive legislative body on earth—he closed his account for the first time.

Wednesday's Storm.

READING, May 21.—A violent rain and hail storm, accompanied with a high wind, passed over this city and surrounding country this afternoon.

damage is reported, excepting the flooding of cellars with water. Fruit trees were also more or less damaged. The storm also passed over Litz, Ephrata, and other points in Lancaster county.

A Woman Cured by Prayer.

The Bridgeport Standard says: The quiet village of Stratford, Conn has been having a little sensation on its own hook in the healing way. The matter has been kept very quiet, and until now the particulars of the case have never been made public.

A Bride's Letter.

Score one against that all-conquering hero, the coachman! One, and number one. He appeared in San Francisco a mysterious, distinguished stranger, who represented himself as a Mexican of vast estates.

"I am deeply sorry that hunger and other circumstances over which I have no control compel me to write you this note. I find that you are utterly unable to provide for me, and as I am at present unable to provide for you, I will have to leave you, and return to that happy home whence you stole me, and once more fill it with the sunshine of love."

Gagged and Robbed.

From the Chambersburg Herald we learn that on Tuesday night three travelers battered in the door of Joseph Lochbaums's house, on the Gettysburg road, and after binding and gagging Mr. L., his mother and two nieces, robbed the house. They took about $200 in money, and other valuables.

Eighteen Years in the State Prison.

John Flynn, alias "Fal," who was jointly indicted with David Pender, alias "Day the Red," for the robbery of Mrs. Dunbarry of a diamond earring of a value of $500, in Fifth avenue, N. Y., on February 14th, and who was tried for and convicted of the offense a few days since, was sentenced in the court of general session to eighteen years in the State prison.

A Child Accidentally Shot.

ELIZABETH, N. J., May 21.—Yesterday morning John Lambert, aged 14 years, of Rahway, shot George Fuhr, aged 5 years, in the breast. Lambert was shooting with a rifle at target, in rear of his father's yard, when the bullet went through the fence and struck Fuhr, who was playing on the other side. Fuhr is not expected to live, the ball having penetrated so deeply that it cannot be extracted.

Very Strange.

The Carroll, Ia., Herald reports the singular experience of a Wm. Leslie, living on a farm not far from that city, who has several times late sunk wells to a depth of forty or fifty feet, but not only is unable to find water, but the only thing he can get from the bores is a strong draft of air, capable of whisking away board covers, etc., like a hurricane. The wind is accompanied by a rumbling noise.

The Duty on Quinine.

On Tuesday last Dr. Felton called up a bill to repeal the duty on quinine, but the committee thought this subject, and all other matters affecting the revenue and tariff excepting the income tax, should be postponed until the December session, and it was so decided.

Wild Beasts Roasted Alive.

DETROIT, May 22.—French's animal barn, erected for the safe keeping of wild beasts, situated five miles from this city, was destroyed by fire this morning. Five lions, a zebra, a leopard, deer, the elephant Sultan and many other valuable beasts were roasted alive. The loss is heavy and there is little insurance.

Arrested on a Charge of Perjury.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., May 20.—Robert H. Berdell, ex-president of the Erie railway, was arrested in New York this morning on a charge of perjury and taken to Goshen, Orange county.

Miscellaneous News Items.

At Terre Haute, Ind., last week, Wm. Nelson, colored, was fined $5,000 and sentenced to one year's imprisonment for marrying a white woman.

The Sanitary Association of New Orleans have commenced the work of cleaning the street gutters by flooding them with water, which is to be done daily.

A Corning, N. Y., man lost a roll of bills containing $175. An honest fellow found the money and returned it to the owner, who rewarded him with a five-cent cigar.

While the body of Mrs. Sylvester Bromley, of East Troy, Crawford county, who was supposed to be dead, was being prepared for the grave she came to life and lived two days afterward.

Germon Dickinson of West Pike land twp., Chester county, has lost within a short time four cows with pleuro-pneumonia, and others are suffering with the same disease.

Mrs. Wren and Mrs. Howell were drowned by the upsetting of a small boat on the West branch of the Susquehanna, near Kopp's Siding, above Sunbury, on Monday afternoon.

The refusal of one man to sell a piece of land at a fair price prevents the erection at Lewiston, Me., of a large cotton house and cloth room and the addition of 10,000 spindles to one of the corporations.

Edwin Marble, the owner of Dungeon Rock, at Lynn, Mass., who has been digging for pirates' treasures twenty-eight years, is still at work, though he is suffering from pulmonary troubles and a lack of enthusiasm.

Harmon Peer, a Canadian, last week successfully performed the feat of jumping from the new suspension bridge at Niagara Falls into the river below, a distance of 196 feet, in the presence of a large crowd of spectators.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 16.—The money and registered letters stolen from the post office yesterday were all found this morning among some rubbish in the basement of the post office building. None of the letters had been opened. There is no clue to the thief.

A young lady at Edenburg, Clarion county, went to sleep while reading, and in some way upset a lamp. The house took fire and she perished in the flames.—Mrs. Collins and her son were badly burned. The house and contents were destroyed.

A correspondent of Huntington, Indiana, mentions the arrival of a family of white refugees from Kentucky, who say they fled from that country to escape death by starvation. The mother of the family said she had lost three children within five months, and that all had died hungry.

After having prayed for every member of the church, the choir, organist, sexton and ushers, he finally prayed for the "one who, although hidden from sight, yet contributes so much to the musical part of our worship" ending: "Oh Lord, I mean the boy who blows the organ."

EASTON, May 17.—At 11 o'clock this morning Lillie Snyder, aged 11, found a railroad torpedo in her father's yard and struck it with a shovel. It exploded, cleaning the flesh under her left eye to the bone and lacerating the right hand terribly; the veins, artery and sinews were all severed at the wrist.

A frightful scene occurred at the funeral of Mrs. Rosanna Blasel, at Geneva, Indiana. The horses attached to the hearse ran away, the vehicle was overturned, and the coffin breaking, the body was thrown out on the ground.

DEADWOOD, D. T., May 18.—The road agents last night went into Bulldog ranche, twenty miles from Deadwood, and drawing revolvers on the proprietor compelled him to stand with his hands up while the ranche was being plundered. They secured considerable jewelry belonging to the proprietor.

At a recent marriage in a suburban locality the bridegroom, when asked the important question if he would take the lady for better or for worse, replied in a hesitating manner, "Well, I think I will." Upon being told that he must be more positive in his declaration, he answered, "Well, I don't care if I do."

William Allen, alias Storey, of St. Louis, who eloped with Jennie Archley, the wife of a farmer of Batavia, Ohio, a few days since, was captured in Cincinnati. A mob took him from Batavia jail and hung him to a bridge. He fell into the river and swam ashore, and lies in a critical condition at a hotel.

A deer walked leisurely up to Hayward's Union mill, at St. Cloud, Minn., the other day and began eating out of a measure which one of the workmen held out to it. It was caught and put in a shed, but Mr. Hayward, upon learning this, ordered it released and it scampered off to its native glen.

A hot ball from the bat struck a young lady named Moshier in the eye as she was passing along a Dubuque street. The blow caused a wound which will probably result in the loss of the young lady's sight. She fainted on the sidewalk and was carried away in an insensible state, the blood oozing from the wound.

Wednesday afternoon, on the farm of Wm. Painter in Birmingham twp., Chester county, a hired man unhitched his team of mules and sought refuge under a tree, when a lightning flash struck down the man and one of the mules. The animal was but slightly stunned, and made its way to the barn, when some person was sent to look for the hired man, and he was found unconscious.

Representative Acklin, made up his mind to challenge the author of a Washington letter to a Southern paper, telling the public more about his personal affairs than Acklin desired to have known. After much trouble he found the offending correspondent, but as the writer of the letter turns out to be a lady he does not know what to do about it.

NEW YORK, May 20.—A raid was made last night by the police on a house on Cannon street, and Charles Green and Wm. Edwards were arrested on a charge of counterfeiting 25 and 50 cent pieces. In their room were found all the appliances for making counterfeit money, including "stuff" moulds, melting pot, plaster of paris and other articles. The prisoners were held in $25,000 bail for trial.

MAUCH CHUNK, May 21.—Wm. Ramaly, a farmer, met with a horrible death in Franklin township, last evening. While unhitching his horses one of them became restive, reared and broke loose. By some means the neck-chain became fastened around Ramaly's neck, and as the horse ran off the unfortunate man was dragged after it and killed.

The Reading "Times" tells of the marriage of Daniel Rohrbach and Catherine Rohrbach. The bride's father's name was the same as her husband's, and her mother's maiden name the same as here, and the groom's father and mother bore the same name as the parents of the bride. For three generations, therefore, Daniel Rohrbach and Catherine Rohrbach have wedded.

Three boys, hungry and travel-stained, arrived in Pittsburg late on last Friday night from Kansas, having tramped a good deal of the way. They went out with a party of thirty-three boys that Mr. Whitelaw Reid was instrumental in sending from New York. They were apprenticed to farmers, but said they could not stand the diet, consisting of corn bread and sow belly, with a cup of sour milk thrown in once in a while. It is said that all the thirty-three boys are either back in New York or on their way.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A Helena special says: The vicinity of Fort Belknap swarms with Sioux. A man named Lloyd, while camped twenty miles from the post, was attacked by fifteen warriors. He scooped out a rifle pit with his hand, and after a desperate fight of two hours' duration, in which three Indians were killed, the intrepid white man succeeded in driving off his assailants. Lloyd had but three cartridges left when the savages abandoned their attack.

A lady of Rocky Hill, Conn., recently found in the yard of her residence a copper coin of the following descriptions: On the face side, at the top, a rising sun, in the centre a cap of Liberty, surrounded by a circle on which were indented the hours of the day from I to XII, around this circle thirteen small stars, at the bottom in small caps the words, "Mind your business," at the right side 1777 in figures, on the left side the letters "F. u. g. i. o." The reverse side is surrounded by a twisted chain, in the centre a small circle, with the words United States, and inside this the words, "We are one," in small caps. The edges are finely milled, like the present 25-cent piece; it is about the size of an old copper cent.
