On and after May 13th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward, listing train numbers, departure times, and stations including Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and New York.

Express leaves Harrisburg at 10:15 a. m. and arrives at Philadelphia at 7:05 a. m. Express leaves Philadelphia at 7:30 a. m. and arrives at Harrisburg at 11:00 a. m.

Brief Items

The Altoona car works were destroyed by fire on Friday night.

Henry Rice, Jr., of this borough, has received the contract for re-painting the Court House. His bid was $150.

The latest reports from different sections of the country speak very favorably of the crop.

Mr. William McKee, has erected a beautiful portico in front of his residence in this borough.

Mrs. G. W. Kellar residing at West Newport broke her arm on Monday of last week by a fall.

Judge Junkin has been holding court for Judge Cummings in Williamsport, the past week.

G. C. Henry, who removed from this place to Port Royal, last winter died there last week. He leaves a family in very destitute circumstances.

Work on the Middle Penitentiary at Huntingdon will probably be discontinued as the legislature refuse to make any appropriation for it.

We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Miss Gerty Smiley. Her brother, C. H. Smiley, Esq., left here for the west to visit her on Friday last.

The great hail storm in some of the lower counties on Wednesday, probably accounted for the sudden increase of cold weather here on Thursday.

A Colorado farmer says that planting one or two flaxseeds in each hill of potatoes will keep away the much-dreaded potato bug.

Mr. Josh Horn, who resided in Guilford township, Franklin county, dropped over dead Tuesday morning while on a visit to a friend. The deceased was 83 years of age.

A little son of J. C. Miller of Harrisburg, ate a number of morphine pills from a box he found on a stand last Sunday. The little fellow died about twenty minutes afterwards.

A severe frost was noticed in this vicinity on Saturday morning last. Some of the gardens suffered severely, potatoes, tomatoes, etc., looking as though they had been scalded.

The First District Union Sabbath School Association of Perry County, will meet in Convention in the Presbyterian Church in Ickesburg, on SATURDAY and SUNDAY, June 7th and 8th, beginning on Saturday at 10 o'clock A. M.

We notice in the list of arrivals at the National House, published in the Colorado Springs Gazette, Colorado, the name of Chas. C. Hackett, son of Jas. B. Hackett, of this borough. Charley is in search of health—hope he may soon recover.

J. W. Ringrose, the General Agent for Mosler's Safe and Lock Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in town last week taking orders for Safes. He sold several, and the reputation of the work of the firm is such that their sales are rapidly increasing.

It would hardly seem possible that any person would be mean enough to maliciously damage a tomb stone or monument, but yet it is a fact that some person has broken off the bill of the dove on the monument over the grave of Jessie Bugh, in the Cemetery in this borough.

A shocking accident occurred at High-spire, Dauphin county, about 9 o'clock Thursday morning. Mrs. Mary Billett, aged 25 years, while crossing the railroad track with her children, were struck by a MODOC engine and the mother and an infant child were thrown under the train and were instantly killed. Mrs. B. was about visiting a neighbor and carried her 18 months' old child in her arms. The other children ran on ahead of her. Seeing the train approach the mother ran forward and pushed her child off the track, saving it's life.

Something New. — H. MARY G. SHEDDER having opened a store of NOTIONS and FANCY GOODS, in Mrs. Gallatin's house on West Main Street, New Bloomfield, wishes her friends to call and see her selection of goods. [May 27 4t]

We have just received from Philadelphia, Butterick's June "Metropolitan" Fashion Paper. Any lady reader of THE TIMES sending her address to Ramsdell's Pattern Rooms, 1113 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, will receive a copy gratis.

Henry Kilner, of Carroll twp., was in town on Saturday, carrying an eye done up in mourning and an ugly cut on the head, the result of a skirmish with John McClintock and his hireling on the Sunday previous.

Suspicious Meat.—The two fat cattle left here last week have been killed. Both the hind hoofs came off of one of the animals, and he seemed to suffer greatly. Few persons who saw the cattle while here would wish to eat the meat of one of them. The meat was we learn taken to the Harrisburg market.

An Unlucky Fall.—On Wednesday last, Martin, aged three years, son of Isaac Page, residing near Williams' woolen mill, in Pfutz's Valley, had his face badly cut by falling on an ax in the hands of another brother. He fell with his face upon the sharp bit, severing the skin upon his forehead, from the bridge of the nose to the mouth, the skin and flesh beside the nose was split entirely open to such an extent that Dr. Rundio, who was called, was compelled to sew it up.—Star.

A Little Girl named Elama Layton got hold of a revolver last Sunday. It was unloaded, of course, but somehow it went off, and when the bullet had got through with its work, it was found that it had struck Jessie Layton, the girl's cousin, in the forehead plumb between the eyes. Fortunately, Jessie's forehead is iron-clad, or three-ply, or something which means extraordinary thick, and the leaden missile glanced off, doing no other damage than cutting a gash in the skin a couple of inches long. All this occurred in Johnstown, and Jesse celebrated his narrow escape by attending the circus next day.—Cambria Freeman.

Under the act of March 31, 1860, any person who shall wilfully set on fire, or cause to be set on fire, any woods, lands or marshes within this commonwealth, shall on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of $100, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding 12 months. And under act of June 2nd, 1870, it is the duty of the county commissioners to appoint persons, under oath, whose duty it shall be to ferret out and bring to punishment all persons who wilfully or otherwise cause the burning of timber lands, and to take measures to have such fires extinguished where it can be done; the expenses thereof to be paid out of the county treasury, the unseated land tax to be the first applied to such expenses.

Fire in Buffalo Township. — Miss Sallie Carlin died some years ago at an advanced age, and among the property she left her heirs was a saw-mill in Buffalo township which finally Miss Ann Jane Carlin came into possession of. On Thursday night of last week the mill was destroyed by fire, together with 8,000 feet of lumber belonging to other parties. There was no insurance. As to the origin of the fire there is doubt. Early that evening George Carlin was around and about the premises in question with a lighted pipe in his mouth, but the fire occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock, and it is supposed to be next to impossible for a spark to have from his pipe and lain there all that time without breaking out sooner. Isaiah Sanders was the first to discover the ruin the flames—already under headway—were making, and he spread the alarm in time to arouse the neighbors, by whose efforts, in extinguishing the fire, more lumber, and perhaps other property was saved.—News.

Snakes Making too Familiar.—On Wednesday of last week, while Mrs. Clayton, wife of Chas. C. Clayton, residing on the late Geo. Shahan's farm in Ferguson's Valley, was engaged in scrubbing the floor of her kitchen, she was suddenly alarmed by the screams of her child, which was sitting in its cradle in front of the door, and on hurrying to the door she was struck with horror by seeing a hideous viper, with its head and forked tongue within a foot of the child's face. Mrs. Clayton, however, did not hesitate a moment, but gave the snake a kick with her bare foot, sending it flying from the cradle, and then took the child into the house, after which she hunted up the snake and killed it. The next day (Thursday) Mr. Clayton went upstairs for something or other, and was surprised to see a snake stretched out on the floor. He immediately procured an axe, and chopped off its head.—Lewisport Democrat.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

A tramp entered the residence of C. B. Neisley in Mechanicsburg, one day last week, while the family were absent, and stole a coat and hat from the hat-rack. A colored boy in the employ of Mr. Neisley spied him making off with his booty and forced him to return it.

A little daughter of Mr. Abram Whisler of Lurgan twp., was bitten in the face by a dog of Mr. Isaac P. Grove's last Tuesday. The child was worrying the animal when it snapped her on the cheek making the blood flow profusely from the wound. The injury was not serious, however.

A case is reported to us of a whole family living a few miles South of this borough being poisoned some days ago at dinner eating tomato sauce that had been kept in a tin can and turned sour. The effects of the poison, it is said, were counteracted by the use of strong coffee.—Shippensburg Chronicle.

On Tuesday morning a valuable cow, belonging to Wm. Peterly, was shot by some unknown person, on Opossum creek a short distance South of Bendersville. The report of the gun was heard about 11 o'clock, and shortly afterwards the cow was found dying. The killing seems to have been a case of wanton and malicious cruelty.—Star.

Another young man in the same neighborhood who has been in the habit of lying abed until a late hour, was also the victim of a very cruel joke. He, for a long time one morning, failed to make his appearance, so some one went to his front door and attached a rope to the knob. He, unlike the Irishman, didn't wake up to find himself dead.

On Friday last, a son of Jacob Enck, in Monroe twp., was scoring corn ground with a single shovel plow. The horses took fright at something and ran off.—The off one, a fine mare, got away from the leader, fell and broke one of her fore legs. The leader ran about a mile, dragging the plow all the while, and was finally caught by Mr. Fulmer. The mare had to be killed.

A private telegram from Sharpsburg, Va., announces that the Cumberland Valley railroad company on Monday last lost the suit which had been on trial for some time past. The suit was brought by James Marsh, the contractor for that part of the Cumberland Valley line known as the Martinsburg and Potomac branch, and involved $50,000.—Chambersburg Herald.

On Friday night several attempts were made to enter the house of Mr. J. L. Gladfelder, residing on the farm of Wm. R. Gargas, about three miles from the river in this county, but they were unsuccessful. On Saturday night the same attempt was made, but Mr. Gladfelder was prepared and sent some "hot shot" after them. They have not disturbed him since.

Last Thursday business was so dull at a Hanover street store which does not advertise, that the clerk went to sleep in the doorway, and some one observing him tied him fast to the stool on which he was sitting. After a half hour's snooze Mr. Clerk was awakened by a sudden call from a neighbor when he realized the trick. It is said he has not enjoyed a sound sleep since, but frequently wakes up with the idea that the trick is being repeated.—Mirror.

Miss Emma Boughman, living with Dr. Amberson, at Jacksonsville, took suddenly ill, Thursday evening of last week. A noise was heard in her room and assistance was called. The doctor gave her some medicine and started down stairs for more, and when he returned she was dead. She had been subject to something like spasms.

Mechanicsburg has at last struck, a sensation. It was a long time coming, but arrived all right, and has furnished more food for gossip than anything that has happened in the borough for years. The particulars, as near as we can learn, are as follows: A prominent merchant of the town became enamored of a fellow-citizen's wife, and she, it is said, cast eyes affectionately on him. It would never do for them to "carry on" so in Mechanicsburg, where everybody knew everybody's private affairs, so they cast about for a chance for a private meeting. It so happened that the lady was obliged to go to Lancaster for medical treatment, and thither went the merchant, meeting her, it is said, by agreement. Their meeting was discovered and duly reported to the husband in Mechanicsburg, and he determined to set a watch on the lady. The next time she went to Lancaster the gay bachelor merchant followed, and they were both shadowed by the husband. Entering a certain hotel, he saw that the guilty party had registered as man and wife and had retired. The husband proceeded to their room. What followed is blank. Suffice it to say that the gay Don Juan has disappeared, and there are rumors of a civil suit for damages.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

On last Wednesday evening a four year old son of Mr. William Kennedy, of Walker township, fell from a porch and received a severe scalp wound of four inches. Dr. Sandoe was sent for and attended the little fellow, sewed up the wound and eased his pains.

A large steer that was missed last fall from a herd of cattle owned by James North, on his Muddy Run farm, was found dead under a straw-stack last week. The animal doubtless was covered by straw while threshing was going on.

Minloh, the Perry county well-digger, has succeeded in making a hole in the ground to the depth of 100 feet at Squire Loudon's residence, on Cherry street, Port Royal. He has found some water, but the supply not being sufficient, the boring continues. Pluck.

On Thursday morning an alarm of fire was raised in Patterson. The excitement was intense, as it always is since the terrible fires which have occurred in Millin. A house occupied by Mrs. Bender was discovered to be on fire, having caught from a defective flue. The citizens assembled and went to work, and after a vigorous fight, saved the building, but in a badly damaged condition and the entire roof destroyed. The family succeeded in saving all their household effects. The property is owned by G. W. Jacobs, of Port Royal.

On Sabbath last as Mr. Jacob Groninger and wife, of this place, were proceeding in a buggy to the residence of their son Mr. Al. Groninger, in Turbett township, and when within a short distance of their destination, the horse commenced kicking and dashed away at a rapid rate of speed, throwing Mr. G. and his wife out of the buggy. Mrs. G. was severely bruised about the face and shoulders, one of the wheels passing over her left cheek. Mr. Groninger escaped uninjured. The horse was captured before he succeeded in doing any damage to the buggy, the shafts being the only part broken, which was occasioned by the animal making use of his hind legs in too free a manner.—Port Royal Times.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine for June.

The June number of this cheap and popular magazine is out, and will be found of unusual interest. It is fresh, and full of the best stories, poetry, engravings, and useful matter; and such a magazine can be welcomed in every family in the country. During the last three months the sales of Ballou's Magazine have increased in the most wonderful manner, and they will increase still more as its usefulness becomes better known. The contents for June are, "The Zambesi or Victoria Falls;" "A Chapter on Spiders;" "Edward the III of England;" and many other interesting articles.

$500.00 REWARD!

A young girl with golden hair, blue eyes, height, five feet two inches, had on a black silk dress, dolman, and hat with white feather; was last seen in company of a tall, dark gentleman in the neighborhood of Fulton Ferry, New York City. Information to be brought to "The National Police Gazette" in which journal the story of the trials and temptations of the poor girl who left her home was commenced in No. 86, dated May 17th, 1879, given from the talented pen of the well known Jack Harkaway.

"The National Police Gazette" is the handsomest and best illustrated paper published. Send 10 cents for sample copy to

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Unexampled Success of the Endowment Association.

The Odd Fellows Endowment Association which commenced operation November 1st, 1878, is meeting with unexampled success, the membership being continually on the increase.

The Lodges of the Order pay a stated sum upon the death of a member, but the amount is usually small, seldom over $100; and the objects of this Association are to increase the funeral benefit to an amount that will be of some assistance to the bereaved ones, which is accomplished by means of a combined State organization such as this, thus placing the families of deceased members beyond want.

This Association, while distinct from the Grand Lodge, was approved by that body at the semi-annual session in November last, by a unanimous vote, and a majority of the Grand Lodge officers have become members, Grand Master Myler being President. Under the plan by which this Association is operated, members of the Order can make provision for their families at comparatively small cost, there being no weekly or monthly dues, and no salaries paid to officers. Any member of the Order, if physically qualified, can become a member, and there is little doubt that this Association will continue to be largely patronized by the fraternity, and finally become a distinctive beneficial feature of Odd Fellowship.

Notice.—We have in our possession a copy of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," by Dr. B. J. KENDALL, of Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. It is nicely illustrated with 35 engravings and is full of useful horse knowledge.—Every horse owner should have a copy of it. We can furnish the book at 25 cents per copy. ASK TO SEE IT.

Notice to School Directors.

Blank forms for the Annual District Report, and Affidavits and Certificates have been sent to each Secretary in the County. These should be properly filled up and signed, that they may be forwarded to me immediately after the organizations of the new board. The State appropriation is paid to districts in the order in which these reports are received.

Delay in forwarding the reports last spring was the cause of so many districts not receiving the appropriation until this spring.

Perry County is the only one in the State in which all districts have received last year's appropriations. Notice the "Directions" and "Special Directions" carefully in preparing reports. Last spring four-fifths of them were incorrectly prepared. Do not place figures, &c., on the dotted lines, but in the proper columns. The account should balance as in the example given with explanations. S. B. FAHNESTOCK, Co. Sup't. Daucannon, May 24, 1879.
