

THE TIMES

Local Department

PENNSYLVANIA R. E.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after May 12th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing train numbers, departure times, and stations.

Pittsburgh Express leaves Harrisburg at 10.15 a. m. and arrives at Pittsburgh at 5.00 a. m.

Brief Items.

Flour from new wheat has already been made at the Newport Mill.

On Sunday a week Mrs. Jacob Barner in Liverpool township, fell down the cellar stairs, and dislocated her arm.

The Markleville Sunday School will picnic in the grove near that place on Saturday, August 2nd. All are invited.

A valuable mare belonging to Mr. Wesley Stephens, of Buffalo township, died with lung fever on Saturday after an illness of a week or more.

G. W. Reeder of Elliptsburg, has left at our office a specimen of valuable iron ore, found on his property in that vicinity.

Miss Sadie, daughter of Mr. John Potter, of Buffalo township, while on a tree picking cherries, on Tuesday of last week, fell to the ground, sustaining painful external injuries.

Any person who will wickedly influence a pledged man to drink is unworthy of the confidence or respect of all good citizens. Such a man is capable of the most contemptible tricks and should be made to feel the censure of the community.

An elderly passenger died Friday morning on the Pacific west between Altoona and Cresson. He was from Chicago and was accompanied by his wife, son and daughter. His disease was jaundice.

The engineers engaged in surveying the route for the rail road to connect this town with the Pennsylvania R. R. have got within four miles of Bloomfield. They report the route a very good one, and expect to reach this end of the line this week.

The bridge which crosses the Juniata creek on High street, Duncannon, was set on fire at the township end, on the 4th, but was extinguished before any damage was done. A firecracker is supposed to be the cause. On Saturday the same bridge was found to be on fire at the other end but was extinguished. It looks as if some ill disposed person was trying to burn the bridge down.—Record.

Withdrawal.—We are requested by Thomas Sutch to withdraw his name as a candidate for Prothonotary.

Long Days.—We hear of a Spring township farmer who gets his harvest hands up to breakfast by candle light, so they can be in the field by four o'clock. A better way would be to eat breakfast before going to bed and so make still more time.

Loose Sweetening.—The other day at the railroad warehouse while the local freight men were rolling a hoghead of molasses from a car to the porch the skid broke letting the hoghead down suddenly. Both ends burst out and there was a sweet time for a while. A rush was made for all vessels capable of holding liquid, and the molasses was soon scooped up by the neighbors and stowed away for future use.—Duncannon Record.

Queer Accident.—About half an hour after Mr. David Rutter, living near Mount Rock, Adams county, retired, he was awakened by a choking sensation, and found that his false teeth had slipped down his throat. The plate was fast in the larynx, and a physician had to be summoned to get it out and relieve Mr. Rutter from his dangerous and unpleasant predicament.

Singular Freak of Lightning.—The Huntingdon Journal says that during a slight thunder shower one day last week the lightning struck a scythe which was hanging on a willow tree in the door yard of Mr. David Bare, in Lincoln township, near Marklesburg, completely severing the snath near the butt and leaving the balance, with the scythe, hanging on the tree, which was also untouched. Mrs. Bare, who was passing under the tree at the time, was severely stunned, one side and arm being for several days rendered useless from the effects of the stroke. She has now, we understand, fully recovered.

At one o'clock P. M., the Convention re-assembled and proceeded to select a ticket.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE But one ballot was had, which resulted as follows: Patten 6; Hall 9; Egolf 13; Grier 37. The nomination of William Grier was then made unanimous.

The Convention then balloted

FOR PROTHONOTARY, Four ballots were had. The candidates were Wm. Titzel, D. Mickey, J. Rinehart and Henry Hoffman. After the second ballot Titzel and Mickey withdrew and the fourth ballot was, Hoffman 31; Rinehart 33.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, George Snyder of Liverpool township, was nominated on the first ballot.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER Columbus Minich, of Tyrone twp., received the nomination.

Struck by Lightning.—During the heavy storm last Friday afternoon the lightning struck an apple tree near the corner of Rev. A. Comp's residence in Juniata twp., this county, tearing three bee-hives, under the tree, all to pieces. The fluid then seems to have entered the ground, passed under the foundation wall, breaking up through the stone floor of the cellar, breaking the large flag-stones into fragments, scattering the pieces in all directions, breaking milk crocks, and butter bowls, and upsetting things generally and then passed out through the water drain. Nearly all the window glass in the house was broken. Rev. Comp, and Mrs. George Comp were considerably stunned by the shock.

A Severe Storm.—The severe thunder storm that passed over this county on Friday evening was accompanied by terrific wind at many other places. At Millintown very serious damage was done. The Presbyterian church was unroofed, and the Methodist and Lutheran churches were considerably damaged, as was also the crystal palace building owned by Graybill & Prothro. The gable end of ex-Sheriff Wilson's house was knocked out. Considerable damage was done to the Showers & School carriage manufacturing company, destroying a lot of buggies and carriages for them. The roof of the school house was blown off and nine other buildings were more or less damaged. Four of them were owned by the Pennsylvania railroad company. The total loss will reach $65,000; about one-half insured. Mrs. Cresswell, a lady seventy years of age, was killed by the falling of the Presbyterian church roof.

Considerable damage was done in other parts of Juniata county, and crops were injured to quite an extent.

At Lewistown several houses were unroofed and it is feared that damage was done in places throughout the county not yet heard from.

Brutal Outrage.—Great excitement exists on Allison's hill, east Harrisburg, in consequence of a revolting crime committed on a little five year old daughter of Ephraim Yings, named Lillie, by a rag peddler named Cyrus Palm, aged 21 years. The young fiend resided with his parents on Linden street, and attended to the business of picking rags. The family to which the little victim belonged lived in an adjoining house, and on Wednesday afternoon, when all the Yings family were absent, he persuaded the girl to go into Palm's and enticed her into the garret, or attic, where he succeeded in outraging the child in a violent manner. After the commission of the heinous deed, Palm made his escape and has not been seen since. The poor little girl managed to get home and relate the horrible occurrence to her mother. The child's father was away harvesting and word was sent to him at once to come home and have the young scoundrel taken in hand. Information has been lodged before Alderman Jackson, but up to a late hour last night Palm has not been captured.—Harrisburg Patriot of 10th inst.

For The Bloomfield Times. Items from Blain. BLAIN, July 10th, 1879. Mr. Editor:—Thinking a few items would be of interest, I furnish the following: A daughter of Mr. Thomas Seager got with a very severe accident last week by falling from a cherry tree, breaking her right arm and rib, also injured about the head. She is slowly recovering. Mr. Bower, of the firm of E. Bower, has sold out his interest to Mr. Hench, of near Andersonburg. The change takes effect next week. The Lutheran and Reformed congregation have purchased a fine organ from Mr. M. B. Gibson, for use in the church. All are pleased with the instrument in power, sweetness of tone and finish. Business is dull. The farmers are about through with their harvesting; all have had good crops and fine weather to harvest, although it was warm. We wish you success with the railroad. Don't you think some of our enterprising men might lead a helping hand? Nuncio.

FOR THE TIMES. Tyrone Township Items. Mr. Editor: Not seeing any communication from this part for some time I thought I would give you some of the latest news. About two weeks ago two men, some seventy years of age, started one morning with the oldest times reapers (called sickles), into a grain field, belonging to Mr. A. Fuhrman and until the sun had rolled his splendid rounds had sixty dozen cut. Honor be to the aged harvesters, whose names are Messrs. H. Lightner and J. Stum.

The vineyard belonging to Peter Sheaffer, in Sheaffer's valley, that three years ago was in a stony, barren, and unproductive condition is now clothed in a fine verdure of grape vines, apple trees and peach trees; and it is supposed that he will realize about two ton of the delicious fruit called grapes. Mr. Sheaffer is an aged as well as an industrious man, and is highly respected in the community in which he lives.

Last Monday evening the bake oven belonging to Mr. Creigh Patterson, caught fire and was burned. No insurance. Mr. P. has the tender sympathies of the community at large. F. G.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week: A little colored boy named Cole, about eleven years old, was thrown off a horse on Tuesday of last week, near the new paper mill, at Mt. Holly. The horse fell and rolled on him, and when the lad was picked up he was dead. It is supposed his neck was broken in the fall.

Mrs. Mary Lenhar, of Shippensburg, wife of George Lenhar, who for many years followed putting in pumps in this county and who will be recollecting by many of our citizens, has just received the papers giving her a pension. This lady was quite poor. The pension reaches back to 1862, over 16 years, which, at $8 per month, foots up the snug sum of between $1,600 and $1,700. The claim was for the death of her son, Nicholas, who was killed at the battle of Antietam. Sentinel.

Last Wednesday a man who gave his name as Brinson, of Carlisle, outraged Mrs. Bahn, while she was lying sick in bed at her residence in the Ninth Ward. The villain gained an entrance to the house under the plea of selling stationary, and after making some indecent proposals to the helpless woman, which she rejected, he proceeded to effect his purpose. Her cries brought assistance from the neighbors who captured the wretch. He was taken before Squire Meyers, who committed him. A team was in his possession which is supposed to have been stolen. It is in the keeping of the Ninth Ward constable.

On Monday morning, while Mrs. Geo. W. Souders, of Roxbury, was on her way toward Churchtown, she was attacked by a tramp, who was sitting under a tree, at the cross roads, below Bowman's farm. Without any provocation he got up and threw two large stones through the top of the carriage. Fortunately Mrs. S. and her son escaped injury. About half an hour later the tramp started toward Churchtown, passing some harvest hands, who asked him whether he was the man who had some trouble with a woman down the road. He then began to curse them, saying if they were not careful he would stone them.

Paris green has had effect not only upon potato bugs, but it makes men sometimes feel decidedly uncomfortable. Thomas Kean, had a sore finger, and went to work among his potatoes, upon which he had put Paris green, to kill potato bugs, and some of the poison got into the sore, and inflamed it so as to completely disable him for work. Dr. Koontz dressed the hand and Thomas is improving.

Michael Morrette was poisoned in a similar manner, and had a very sore hand which was lanced and dressed by his son, Dr. J. A. Morrette. In this case the poison is said to permeate the whole system. The experience of Messrs. Kean and Morrette should be a warning to all persons having anything to do with Paris green. Too much care can not be taken in handling the poison.
