PROF. HARRIS' RADICAL CURE FOR SPERMATORRHOEA.

"SEMINAL PASTILLE" A Valuable Discovery and New Departure in Medical Science, an entirely New and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent Cure of Seminal Emissions & Impotency by the only true way, viz Direct Application to the principal seat of the Disease, acting by Absorption, and exerting its specific influence on the Seminal Vesicles, Ejaculatory Ducts, Prostate Gland and Urethra. The use of the Remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience. It is quickly dissolved and soon absorbed, producing an immediate soothing and restorative effect upon the sexual and nervous systems, stopping the drain from self-abuse and excess, stopping the drain from the system, restoring the mind to health and sound memory, removing the premature old age usually accompanying this trouble, and restoring perfect Sexual Vigor, where it has been dormant for years. This mode of treatment has stood the test of the severest cases, and is now a pronounced success. Drugs are too much prescribed in these troubles, and, as many can bear witness to, with but little, if any permanent good. There is no Nonsense about this Preparation. "Prof's" observation enables us to positively guarantee that it will give satisfaction.—During the eight years that it has been in general use, we have thousands of testimonials as to its value, and it is now conceded by the Medical Profession to be the most rational means yet discovered of reaching and curing this very prevalent trouble, that is well known to be the cause of untold misery to so many, and upon whom quacks prey with their poisonous nostrums and big fees. The Remedy is put up in a neat box, enough to last a month, and sent in a plain wrapper by mail sealed for $2.—Two boxes, sufficient to effect a permanent cure unless in severe cases $3.—Three boxes, acting three months, will cure all cases, and restore vigor, in the worst case, $7.—Full DIRECTIONS for using will accompany EACH BOX.

For a list of American Family Physicians, Anatomical Illustrations, which will convince the most sceptical that they can be restored to perfect manhood, and fitted for the duties of life, send us the enclosed, and we will send for stamps to any one. Sold ONLY by the HARRIS REMEDY CO., 117 G. CHEMISTS, Market and 8th. Sts. ST. LOUIS, MO.

ESTATE NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration on the Estate of Christian Singer, late of Buffalo township, Perry county, Pa., deceased, have been granted to the undersigned, residing in the same township. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims will present them duly authenticated to the undersigned for settlement without delay. WILLIAM SINGER, Administrator. Lewis Potter, Attorney, April 1, 1879.

Under the Hampshire Tax law two hogs to a family are exempt. That would exempt the whole family in some cases.

There is a man who says he has not slept for fifteen years, and that he lies and thinks the whole night. We can vouch for his lying, if for no other part of his story.

"That was a finished sermon," said an adorer to an indifferent as they wended their way from church. "Yes," replied the other with a yawn, "but do you know I thought it never would be."

A drunken Congressman said to Horace Greeley one day, "I am a self-made man." "Then, sir," replied the philosophical Horace, "that relieves the Almighty of a great responsibility."

A junior met a rival who was somewhat advanced in years, and wishing to annoy him, inquired how old he was. "I can't exactly tell," replied the other; "I can inform you that an ass is older at twenty than a man at sixty."

A young lady, who ought to know, accounts for the disposition of the average young fellow to put his arm around a girl's waist by the supposition that he is looking for that lost rib that was taken from him so long ago.

One was a Baptist and the other was a Congregationalist. The waiter asked them what they would order.—"A little dipped toast," said the Baptist. "You may give me toast, also," said the other, cheerfully; "but don't dip it—sprinkle with a little butter."

"How did you come to get married?" asked a man of a very homely friend. "Well, you see," he replied, "after I'd vainly tried to win several girls that I wanted, I finally turned my attention to one that wanted me, and then it didn't take long to fix things."

Did you ever watch a cross-eyed man playing billiards? It reminds us of the darkey who held a cow for a cross-eyed butcher to hit on the head with an axe. Pete observing the man's eyes alarmingly inquired, "You gwine to hit where you look?" "Yes," "Den" said the darkey, "hold dis cow yourself."

The following is the latest in California: "Say, Pat did you see Dennis?" "Why Dennis? Who's Dennis?" "Why, Dennis Kearney."

"And who is Dennis Kearney?" "Why, Dennis Kearney, don't you know Dennis Kearney?" "No, what does he do?" "Be dad, he don't do nothing; he's a working man."

Recently a young man was presented in a family where there is a marriageable daughter, and as soon as he had taken his leave the friend who had introduced him said to the father; "Well, how would he suit you for a son-in-law, eh?"

"Very well indeed," said the father. "All right; suppose he comes round to-morrow and proposes?"

Said the father with great dignity; "To-morrow? Pooh, pooh; what are you thinking of? That would be indecent haste. Say the day after to-morrow."

A Water Haul. I knew a man once—Jake Mason—who went to a donation where six farmers were to contribute a jug of milk apiece. Well, one man, a very mean man, thought it would not make any difference if he contributed water in place of milk; so he filled up a jug with water and took it to the donation.

When he got there he turned it over the bung and it ran into a barrel where all the farmers had poured their milk. Now what do you think was the result? Why, every one of the six farmers happened to be as mean as Jake Mason. They all brought water.

He Knew He Was Married. "How do you know the defendant is a married man? Were you ever at his house?" asked the Judge.

"No sir."

"Do you know him personally?"

"No sir."

"Did you know his wife?"

"No sir."

"Did anybody ever tell you they were married?"

"No sir; but when I see a man and woman come to the same church regularly for three years, occupy the same pew, and have a hymn-book apiece to sing out of, I don't want to see no marriage certificate from them. I can swear to their relationship all the time."

Verdict for the plaintiff.
