Brief Items.

Juniata county people are still agita-ted over the question, "Who stole the ballots ?"

On Friday a week the storm that passed over Juniata county did considerable damage in this county.

Miss Susan Kincaid, at one time a resident in this place, died recently at the Old Ladies' home in Harrisburg.

Harry Beam, of Wheatfield township, cut a severe gash in one of his feet on Monday of last week, while cutting wood.

A Salmon 29 inches in length, and weighing six pounds was gigged on Fri-day evening last, by Martin Mickey in Sherman's Creek, below Dugan's dam.

Emanuel Dugan, of near Dellville, has raised a kind of wheat this season, that is different from any known vari-ety. What it is he does not know.

One day last week Mr. A. L. Sumner received a severe hit, but not danger-ous, rap on the head with a hammer while repairing boilers at the rolling mill in Duncannon.

Mrs. Jordan, of Duncannon, was un-fortunate enough to lose a horse last week. The animal took a notion to drop off suddenly from some cause unknown.

On Thursday a week a rank of wood belonging to the Juniata Pottery took fire and was destroyed. There were about one hundred and fifteen cords burned. How it took fire our informant did not state.

A daughter of Wm. Irwin, residing near Blain, was bitten on the ankle a few days since, by a copper head snake. Domestic applications gave her relief and she rapidly recovered from the ef-fects of the bite.

Mr. John Shearer of Centre twp., on going for his cattle on Monday night of last week, found one fine cow with a broken leg. How the accident happen-ed is not known. He had to kill the an-imal to put her out of misery.

The house flies held their regular annual convention all over the country the first of last month and unanimous-ly adopted last year's platform without any change, as follows:

Church Notices.

Camp Meetings. - The Second East Pennsylvania Eldership camp meeting of the Church of God will be held on the ground of the Cumberland Valley Camp Meeting Association, near Oakville, commencing on Wednesday, August 27th and closing Friday, September 5th, 1879.

It is reported that a camp meeting under the auspices of the U. B. Church, will be held in Hays' grove, on the line of H. &. P. Railroad, during the month of August.

Attempted Burglary. - When friend Nelson Brown returned home Thursday night last, as he entered the house he heard a sound that resembled the sudden closing of one of the back windows in the family residence. Approaching in the direction in which the noise came, the work of burglars met his view, and the thieves had been frightened away by his unexpected appearance on the scene. The rascals had carefully cut out a window light, through which they reached the sash-lock on the inside. The pin that held the sash down was then removed, when the window readily raised. As it was, they got no booty .--Newport News.

Leg Off.-Tuesday morning last Wm. Doughty, of Greenwood township, near Laura Furnace, while at work in the canal stone quarry, above Millerstown, met with an accident by which he lost his right leg. A large rock about two tons in weight fell upon his leg, crushing the flesh and bone from foot to knee into a shapeless mass. He was taken to his home and surgical aid sent for. Drs. Campbell, of Millerstown, and Orris of Newport, amputated the leg above the knee. His left foot was also badly bruised. There are slight hopes of the unfortunate man's recovery.-Ledger.

Lewis Potter, Esg., last week, obtained Pensions for Catharine Rumberger, widow of Peter Rumberger, soldier of the war of 1812, of Pfoutz's Valley, Perry county, also, for Jane Wendt, widow of Major Wendt, soldier of the war of 1812, of Liverpool, Perry co., Pa., also for widow of Adolphus Hall, of Landisburg, Perry co., of same war. Also, Invalid Pension for Christian Etten, of Powell's Valley, Dauphin co.

Persons having claims should send them to Mr. Potter at once, as the law will expire in 1881. He is one of the most successful claim agents in the State, and also has a good share of legal practice

A Calico Fight .- Late on Monday evening the residents in the vicinity of the square were startled by an unusual sight. Several young ladies dressed in male attire were innocently parading up and down street when some other young ladies came along and said something that the first party did not like, a few words followed, then the air was full of bangs, puffs, ribbons, and other female paraphernalia. We would like to give full particulars, but we admit that we are afraid of suddenly becoming bald headed. A crowd of boys were seen gathering up the fragments after the fight. It was thought at first that blood had been shed, but upon examination it was discovered to be red ribbons. One of the

A. M., and was organized by electing S. P. Cree as President ; C. H. Hochlander, Vice-President, and Jos. E. Jackson and D. Kistler as Secretaries.

Wm. Rice, of Bloomfield, was elected as Chairman of County Committee for the next year. The committee was then selected and the Convention adjourned till afternoon.

At 1 P. M. the Convention again met and proceeded to elect candidates. DELEGATE TO STATE CONVENTION.

For this office Dr. H. Stites was selected, the vote on second ballot being: Isalah E. Stephens, 15; W. B. Lease, 8; Dr. H. Stites, 82, and H. J. Secrist, 8.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE Six ballots were had, the first ballot was: Thos. Sutch, 2; Adam Zorger, 18; J. L. Diven, 7; Nicholas Hench, 11; H.

H. Weirick, 13; Wm. Yohn, 5; Z. T. Rice, 4. On the sixth ballot, all the candidates except Zorger and Diven were withdrawn, and the vote stood : Diven, 28, Adam Zorger, of Carroll township, 32.

FOR PROTHONOTARY, Blain Grosh of Andersonburg, was nominated by acciamation

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR. Three ballots were had, the vote on first being: S. Zeigler, 6; O. P. Wright, 19; John Bernheisel, 8; Geo. Elliker, 4; J. F. Hollenbaugh, 16; John Hemperly, 11. On the third ballot, Wright received 33 votes and was declared the candidate.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER

A. B. Clouser was nominated on first ballot, he having 33 votes. H. L. Tressler had 5, Wm. Kough, 11, and D. Me-Cov 7 votes.

FOR CORONER Dr. Samuel Stites, of Millerstown, was nominated by acclamation.

For The Bloomfield Times.

MR. EDITOR : Dear Sir- In the last MR. EDITOR: Dear Sir— In the last issue of your paper you state that coffee is being raised in one of the adjacent states. The readers of your paper need not go to Delaware or Maryland to see coffee growing, but can see three bushes bending with coffee in my garden, and I will take pleasure in showing them to the passers-by. DAVID H. SMITH. Little Germany, Pa.

Cumberland County .-- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

One day last week, Mrs. Samuel Ky-ner who resides about three miles west of Shippensburg, accidentally feil down the cellar stairs, breaking her right arm near the wrist. Drs. Stewart and Mar-shall attended to the fracture.

We have been informed that George Reese, living on the pike, some miles east of Shippensburg, raised forty-five bushels of Fultz wheat to the acre, and that the heads were six inches long. That is a good yield, we would say.

A post office has been established at Cleversburg, this county, with George Clever as postmaster. This will prove a great convenience to the people of that section as well doubtless, to Mr. Clever, as the mail for that point was always carried out from Shippensburg, by pri-vate parties, and kindly distributed at the store in the village.

Jas. Byers, a young son of Constable Samuel Byers, of South ward, received an ugly hole in his leg on Thursday by falling from a cherry tree upon a stick protruding from the ground. Jim is getting used to affliction. It is not long since he was confined to his bed by a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

A horse belonging to Mr. John Crist, of Lack township, died very suddenly one day last week from some unknown CB1180

On Tuesday, as Mr. William Stuart, of Beale township, was entering Johns-town the horse he was driving staggered and fell dead in the road. The intense heat of that day probably killed him.

Miss Sarah Harman, sister of Mr. Wm. Harman, near McAlisterville, had the misfortune to break her leg. She was attending to some want of her aged father, who is 99 years old when she slipped and fell with the result stated.

A few days ago, a Fermanagh town-ship woman brought a charge before Squire Loudon, against three Fermanagh township men, for improper conduct toward her on a certain evening along the pike, opposite the Presbyterian graveyard.

At McCoysville on the 1st inst,, while a man was attempting to turn a corner with a wagon load of hay, the wagon upset, and J. B. McDonald, who was riding on the hay, was thrown off and got his leg fractured by the fall.

We are informed that a young son of D. A. Martin, of Tuscarora twp., had his shoulder blade broken by a fall from a fence, on the 4th inst. Dr. Sahm, of McCoysville, rendered the necessary attention in both the above cases and the patients are doing well.

A man by the name of Sherlock, em-ployed at Showers & Scholl's carriage manufactory, while working at a carriage struck himself on the forehead with a hammer which he was using, inflicting a severe but not dangerous wound.— Democrat and Register.

The neighbors and friends of Mr. Alexander McClure, in Tuscarora town-ship, met at his place to the number of twenty-five, on Tuesday and helped to roof his barn and otherwise repair the damage done to his property by the recent storm. That's the kind of a place to live in and the kind of neighbors to have. have.

William Stump, a feeble minded young man, well known to many of the young man, well known to many of the citizens of Port Royal, having spent the greater part of last spring working about town, was drowned while bathing in Rohm's mill dam, in Milford twp., on Monday evening of this week. He lived with William Cunningham, of Milford twp., for a number of years. He was about eighteen years of age.

A few weeks ago a hail storm passed over Susquehanna township, and de-stroyed Levi Stroub's entire crop of grass and grain. He brought grass and made hay. On Saturday last in the evening the house took fire and was burned to the ground—the barn, sheds, hog-stable corneribs and other outhog-stable, corneribs and other out-buildings were also destroyed. The origin of the fire, it is supposed, was caused by a large fire in the stove for drying cherries.

Jacob Lemon while superintending the work of his men in the stone quarry in the "narrows, hung his vest with pocket book, over one hundred dollars and his watch, in the building where they kept their provisions. When he and his watch, in the building where they kept their provisions. When he went for it some time afterward it was missing, and "Billy," a tramp he had hired in May, was conspicuous for his absence. It was learned that he bought a new suit of clothes in Lewistown, and had his face turned toward the setting sun. It is a great pity the scoundrel could not pe caught.

Hay Scales .- This borough has now what has long been badly needed, and that is hay scales. Mr. Willis has erected a set on the corner of the lot near Mr. George Barnett's and they are so located that they can be driven onto by a team either from the alley or from the street. The scales are of the most recent pattern and are very accurate: Persons wishing to weigh hay, cattle, &c., can now be accommodated in this place.

The Duncannon and Bloomfield R. R .-The citizens of Duncannon have gone to work in earnest to raise their share of the money required to build the proposed road to that place. So well have they succeeded that it has been decided to go to that point, and the engineers are now engaged in locating the line between Montabella and Duncannon, It is probable that the call for the first assessment on the subscribed stock will be made this week, and that work will be commenced very shortly. The intention of the directors is to push the grading through as soon as possible with the expectations of completing it before cold weather.

party received a black eye, another got knocked down into the gutter, and another got her arm badly bruised. We might add that the participants are not children, but are considered young ladies. Whisky had nothing to do with this affair as it generally has with street fights. As it is against the law for females to appear in public in male attire, also to kick up a fight, and as the Burgess made his appearance shortly after the squabble, and the boys refusing to give the names of the party, the girls may be thankful that they got off as they did.-Duncannon Record.

The Chronicle says that during harvest The Chronicce says that during harvest Mr. Joseph Spangler, residing near Shippensburg, lost two children from scarlet fever, which caused a delay of much work. So one evening a party of twelve young men of Shippensburg visited his farm, and by the light of the moon cut, bound, and shocked ten acres of wheat for him. He greatly appreci-ates the kindness.

ates the kindness. Some time Monday afternoon, a young gentleman and lady drove up to the Branch House, West Main Street, this Borough, and engaged lodging for the night. When supper time arrived, mine host, Clark, invited the pair out to the supper table, but the groom--for it transpired they were a newly married couple-declined, saying they did not wish any. Finding that their bodies needed nourishment something more substantial than "honeyed words and loving smiles," the gentleman came up town and purchased a loaf of bread and a "hunk" of bologna sausage, from which they made their supper and breakfast next morning. They left, Tuesday morning, perfectly oblivious to the remarks they had subjected them-selves to by their unusual conduct, and perfectly happy in the possession of each other. We understand the party halled from the vicinity of Fayetteville. -Shippensburg News.
