PROF. HARRIS' RADICAL CURE FOR SPERMATORRHOEA. "SEMINAL PASTILLE" A Valuable Discovery and New Departure in Medical Science, an entirely New and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent Cure of Seminal Emissions & Impotency by the only true way, viz: Direct Application to the principal seat of the Disease, acting by Absorption, and exerting its specific influence on the Seminal Vesicles, Ejaculatory Ducts, Prostate Gland and Urethra. The use of the Remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience. It is quickly dissolved and soon absorbed, producing an immediate soothing and restorative effect upon the sexual and nervous organizations wrecked from self-abuse and excess, strengthening the system, removing the Dangers of Sight, Nervous Debility, Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, Etc., Etc., and the appearance of premature old age usually accompanying this trouble, and restoring perfect Sexual Vigor, which has been denied for years. This mode of cure is now pronounced the best in all cases, and is now a pronounced success. Drugs are too much prescribed in these troubles, and, as many can bear witness to, with but little, if any permanent good. There is no Nonsense about this Preparation, but an observation to obtain a positive guarantee that it will give satisfaction. During the eight years that it has been in general use we have thousands of testimonials as to its value, and it is now considered by the Medical Profession to be the most rational and successful mode of reaching and curing this very prevalent trouble, that is well known to be the cause of untold misery to so many, and upon whom quacks prey with their various nostrums and big fees. The Remedy is put up in a neat box, enough to last a month, and sent in a plain wrapper by mail sealed for $2.—Two boxes, sufficient to effect a permanent cure unless in severe cases, $3.—Three boxes, lasting three full months, will stop emissions, and restore vigor in the most cases, $7.—Full DIRECTIONS for use sent free to any address. "What are you about?" growled a surly fellow, as a pedestrian jostled him. "About thirty-five," was the matter-of-fact answer.

A man was sitting for his photograph. The operator said, "Now, sir, look kind o' pleasant. Smile a little." The man smiled, and then the operator exclaimed, "Oh, that will never do. It is too wide for the instrument."

A Scotch lady had invited a gentleman to dinner on a particular day, and he had accepted with the reservation, "If I'm spared." "Weel, weel," said the lady, "if ye're dead I'll not expect ye."

A Georgia farmer kills snakes, lays them in a furrow and plants corn in the furrow.—New York Herald. Great Scott! When the corn comes to be distilled and consumed—! But we don't like to think of it.

"Have you any objects of interest in the vicinity?" the tourist asked the Burlington man. "I have, I have," eagerly replied the other, "but I can't get at it to show it to you. It's a ninety days note and it's down in the bank now, drawing interest like a horse-race or a mustard plaster."

Two Hibernians were passing a stable which had a rooster on it for a weather vane, when one addressed the other thus: "Pat, what's the reason they did n't put a hen up there, instead of a rooster?"

"And sure," replied Pat, "that's aisy enough. Don't ye see it would be inconvenient to go for eggs?"

"Who was the first man?" asked a Sunday School teacher of her prodigy, George Washington, was the prompt reply. "No, no," corrected the teacher, "It wasn't Washington, it was Adam, you know."

"Oh," said the boy in rather a disgusted tone, "perhaps Adam was, if you're goin' to count foreigners."

It is pretty hard to throw off old habits all at once. A Nebraska dealer in agricultural implements "got religion" and felt it his duty to point out the way to others, and said to a farmer—"Brother Jones, I will guarantee that if you join our church you will not only find it the best in the market, but will take you through without any further inventory. Give it a trial, and if not satisfactory I will take back your religion and refund your money."

A farmer required a number of reapers; several presented themselves, and all were engaged with one exception. The poor man thus omitted said, "Master, won't you hire me?"

"No," said the farmer. "Why not?" "Because you are too little."

"Too little!" exclaimed Paddy, "does your honor reap your corn at the top?" What could the farmer do but roar with laughter, and send the little man to join his comrades in the field?

While a man was dashing with all his might and main down the street to catch a train one day last week, a gamin rushed after him and shouted: "Hey, mister, have you got a pin?"

"I have," responded the man, coming to a sudden halt and feeling under the lapel of his vest. "Well, then," yelled the boy, as he jumped out of the way, "you had better fasten your ears together behind your head so you won't smash any swingin' signs with 'em." The pedestrian passed on unheeded of the advice given him.

"Please, sir," said Pat, an Irish Corporal, "I think me horse wants to roll."

"Very well," said the Captain, "take off his saddle and let him roll, but you mind you mount as soon as he is through."

"Yes, sir," said Pat, saluting and falling in the rear. There was a brush with the "Johnnies" a few minutes later, and there was lively work for the next half hour. When a lull came the Captain saw Pat sitting quietly on a stump holding his saddle. "Where's your horse?" asked the Captain. "Down in the field there, sir," answered Pat, rising to salute his commander. "Didn't I tell you to mount as soon as he had done rolling?" "Sure you did, Captain, an' it's for that I'm waiting. He hasn't begun yet." It was Pat's last sally of wit. The poor fellow fell at the next charge.
