Nellie Grant Dead.

LONDON, August 16. — Mrs. Nellie Sartoris, daughter of ex-President Grant, is dead.

THE MOST encouraging reports reach us of the iron trade not only in this state but in New Jersey.

Mormon Resentment.

OGDEN, Utah, August 12.—The conviction and imprisonment of Reynolds for polygamy, the murder of Standing the Mormon preacher in Georgia and the imprisonment of Geo. S. Cannon, the delegate to Congress, and the executors of the Brigham Young estate, have caused a bitter feeling, and the leading church paper has lately entertained threatening letters, and inflammatory speeches have been made.

The Riot Bill Cases.

The cases of the commonwealth against the persons charged with attempting to secure votes for the riot bill by means of bribery and corrupt solicitation, continue to excite much speculation.

Chas. B. Salter, 9; D. K. Shoemaker, 1; E. J. McCune, 1; C. Long, 1; Jesse R. Crawford, 4; A. W. Leisenring, 2; W. H. Kemble, 4.

The attorneys for Messrs. Kemble, Leisenring and Long were Wednesday morning notified to enter bail before Alderman Maurer for the appearance of their clients at court.

An interesting case, analogous to the famous Mollie Maguire case, is now on trial at Reading, Pa. A band of tramps skilled in all the tricks of outlawry have for a long time been preying on the people of Berks, hesitating at no obstacle to accomplish their designs, and directing their efforts against any point that promised a harvest, irrespective of the nature of the goods.

they are mostly Germans. Developments will probably disclose some terrible crimes, and the prosecution of the case is followed with a lively interest.

The Right of Secession Reasserted.

The position of Alexander H. Stephens as a political thinker gives an importance to his declarations such as can properly be accorded to no other leader of Southern public opinion. His intellect dominates his feelings and his utterances partake of the nature of a definition of opinion.

"The right of secession I never questioned and have defended with all the power I could command, but my judgment was very decided against the policy. My mind on these subjects has undergone no change and is not likely to undergo any."

This dangerous declaration deserves to arrest the attention of the whole country.

A Bold Robbery.

A daring robbery was committed yesterday afternoon at the Philadelphia Screw Works, corner of Twelfth and Buttonwood streets. Shortly after three o'clock a man entered the office, and upon pretence of desiring to order certain work done, engaged Mr. Richard C. Farthing, the cashier, in conversation.

Collision.

PHILADELPHIA, August 14.—A serious accident occurred upon the Atlantic City narrow gauge railroad this afternoon, which resulted in the death of five persons and the injury of two others. At half past two a special excursion train left this city for Atlantic city, consisting of nine cars and containing about 300 men, women and children.

There was great excitement in the cars when the collision occurred, and the passengers were compelled to crawl out through the windows.

Abducted and Probably Drowned.

The other night, while a young man named Henry Woods was calling on a Miss Hudson, at her father's residence at Lackey Bend, near Windso, Ill., a party of unknown men seized him and took him to the Okaw river, about a mile distant.

A Boy Accidentally Shoots and Kills Himself at Etna.

PITTSBURGH, August 12.—A little boy 15 years of age, named John Sellman, was accidentally shot and killed yesterday afternoon at Etna. The boy had taken an old musket, which had been standing in a corner of the room for a long time, and was working with it at the time of the accident.

contents passed through his head and caused his death in a short time. The mother of the boy and a child four years of age were at the dinner table at the time, and the boy was outside of the house. The mother did not know that he had the weapon until she heard the report, when she ran but and found him lying on the ground, with the fearful wound in his head.

A Night on the Edge of Destruction.

On Thursday morning Lucinda Gale, a maiden lady, got lost while bluberrying on the Sugar Loaf Mountain, in Alexandria, N. H. After dark she attempted to descend the east side of the mountain, and proceeded down its precipitous sides till she got to a position from which she could not retreat, and to go ahead would be instant death on the rocks 150 feet below.

Charles O. Shedd, while picking blueberries in Whipple's Swamp, Mass., heard cries of distress, and a search revealed a boy sunk to the armpits in a quagmire. He had been in mud about an hour, and was so faint from exertion and exposure that his voice could be heard but a few feet, and, but for his timely discovery by Mr. Shedd, he would soon have been suffocated.

Miscellaneous News Items.

Mr. Bailey, of near Constantine, Mich., thought he heard the fizz of cider escaping from his barrel, and felt around to find the leak. It was only a rattlesnake—that was all.

A seaman married his sweetheart at Savannah the other day, the license for which he had purchased two years before. The sudden sailing of his vessel prevented the marriage at that time.

The carpet covering the floor in an adjuster's room of the San Francisco Mint was taken up a few weeks ago for the first time in five years, and burned to secure the accumulation of gold and silver filings. The operation netted about $2,500.

Some miscreant recently went into the pasture of a farmer named Bremen, living eight miles east of Sterling, Ill., and cut the entrails out of a span of mules worth about $300. Bremen has no idea who could be guilty of such a dastardly act.

Serajevo, the capital of Bosnia, was at last accounts on fire. A vast amount of destruction had been wrought and many hundreds of poor people been rendered homeless. There is cause to fear that the flames will not be arrested until the greater part of the city has been destroyed.

Holcomb & Co., of New Haven, recently shipped an elegant coupe to San Francisco. It was enclosed in a canvas covering, to protect it from the weather. Some impecunious chap managed to get into it, and with a good supply of edibles, made the ten days' trip comfortably, escaping observation.

Lancaster county is infested with foot-pads traveling in the disguise of peddlers, one of whose tricks is to get the farmers' wives to go to the fields to call their husbands home. Meanwhile the foot-pads enter the house and walk off with such articles as suit his taste.

Charles Ballet, a livery-stable keeper at Middletown, Ohio, shot and killed his wife Tuesday morning, and immediately afterward shot himself through the head, dying instantly.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., August 11.—At Fairview, on Saturday evening, the six year old daughter of Edward Ryan endeavored to cross the railroad track by crawling under a freight train.

Miss Lizzie B. Abbey, a highly esteemed young lady and music teacher, residing at Boiceville, Ulster county, New York, while crossing the railroad bridge at that place last Saturday, broke through a rotten plank, and fell upon the rocks twenty-two feet below.

A horse hitched to a buggy took flight Tuesday morning on North Broadway street, Baltimore, and ran off at a furious pace. The buggy was dashed against the steps of a residence, on which several little girls were seated at play.

NORWICH, Conn., Aug. 11.—D. L. Tift, of Mystic, was arrested in Webster, Mass., on Saturday, by Deputy Sheriff Allen, of Mystic. Tift has been for years a member of the Baptist church at Mystic and was supposed to be one of the most respectable citizens of the place.

At Troy, N. Y., one night last week as Frank Brennan, a teamster, twenty-one years old, was walking along the street he met a party engaged in a row. He tried to quiet the disturbance, when an Englishman named James Garrett stabbed him in the groin with a chisel, severing the main artery. Brennan died in fifteen minutes.

A singular accident occurred at Blairstown, Pa., the other day. Two boys, each about ten years old, made a banter for each to start from the opposite side of the street with their eyes closed and run to the middle of the street to see which could reach that point the soonest.

A gipsy woman went to a store in New London, Wis., and bought a quantity of lace at thirty cents a yard. Then she visited the houses in the place and retailed the lace to the ladies she called on.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30, 1879.

It is claimed that, without any considerable increase in the amount of imports, the Government collected about $6,000,000 more of duties for the year ending June 30th, 1879, than in the last preceding year.

Mr. Tilden, who is perhaps as good authority as any one in such a matter, says the country is entering upon an era of great prosperity. Abundant crops, with a good foreign market, the perceptible revival of manufacturers, and a return of business confidence, are all signs of the prosperity Mr. Tilden speaks of.

Among the resolutions adopted at a meeting of delegates from all parts of Maryland, yesterday, was the following very wise one which might be generally adopted throughout the country with profit:

The late report that a poverty-stricken clergyman of this city had drawn a prize in a lottery, has had its usual effect here, and large numbers of persons are squandering their last dollar in an effort to do the same thing, forgetting the many thousands of chances against them.

We have seven Judges of the Courts of this District, yet but one has been in the District during the months of July and August, and for a part of the time not one. The reason for this is that the Judges are appointed by parties not responsible to the District, and the people having no vote, are powerless.

The Secretary of the Interior yesterday, with commendable firmness refused to hear an application to reinstate a person who was a clerk in that Department, and was twice discharged for drunkenness, though the application was earnestly pressed by gentlemen of standing and influence.

The President has yielded to circumstances in the matter of certain valuable lands in Dakota, which were withdrawn from settlement in 1875. The withdrawal was to prevent the whites from pressing too closely on the Indian frontier.

Is it Possible

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them we must believe and doubt no longer.
