THE Twenty-sixth Annual Exhibition of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society will be held in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, beginning on the 8th and continuing till the 20th of September.

THE CALIFORNIA election which took place on Tuesday last, has resulted favorably to the Republicans, who elect the Governor, and three of the members of Congress, and perhaps the fourth. The Legislature is in doubt, but the Democrats elect the Supreme Judge and two associates. The tickets were so numerous, and the cutting so great that the returns come in slowly. Rev. I. S. Kalloch, who was shot by De Young, is probably elected Mayor of San Francisco, on the Workingmen's ticket.

A Southern Squall.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2. - Forty-five coal boats moored above the city sunk during the storm yesterday. The loss is estimated at $300,000; no insurance. This will probably involve a corner in coal. Many trees, fences and chimneys were blown down and several houses unpoofed. The only loss of life reported is that of George S. Kuntz, a pumper on the coal fleet, who is believed to have been drowned.

MORGAN CITY, Sept. 2. - The storm abated about five o'clock last night. In addition to the damage reported yesterday, the Morgan Line round-house at Berwick-City, a new building just completed to accommodate engines on the next extension, and many dwellings had their roofs blown off' and chimneys blown down. The negroes' cabins at Freetown were nearly all demolished .--The gale was so furious that it carried plates from the iron warehouse at Morgan wharf.clear across the bay into Berwick.

Perquisites of Washington Pages.

One of the pages of the United States senate, in a letter to the St. Paul Pioneer Press, says: "We used to get $90 a month, but now it is only $75. The boy that gets the president's room is rewarded with $1,400 a year. The perquisites for the pages are considerable. A good one has no trouble in making $100 a month. A complete book of the autographs of congressmen and the heads of departments brings $50. A page made three hundred dollars out of what was known as the 'dead lock picture'a humorous sketch. While toral commission was in session the boys had a good opportunity to make something. They speculated on the extra tickets the congressmen shelled out. I sold one to Lizzie Snow for $80; Washinton people know who she is. I know a boy who made $80 off the bier of Charles Sumner. He sold the flowers for $20; Wormley paid him $10 for one bouquet. When the casket was removed he watched his opportunity and cut the fringe from the bier. He sold it to the colored people for $60, dealing it out in pleces."

The inhuman woman's name is given. as Mrs. Silas B. Graham, and her ingenuity in preparing tortures is described as almost beyond belief.

Bold Robbery and Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.-The Eureka stage coach was stopped above Nevada City yesterday by two masked men, the express bag taken, and the passengers made to stand up in the road, and dellyer their personal property, William F. Cummings, a banker of Moore's Flat, resisted the robbers, when they attempted to take a gold bar belonging to him, and was shot through the head and instantly killed. A parge force are now searching the country for the highwaymen.

137 The bodies of two women and a little girl were found in a house at Waynesville, Ohio-a station on the Little Miami Railroad, Tuesday afternoon. They were all evidently murdered some days ago, as the steach from their bodies was dreadful. They are supposed to be Mrs. Hatte, ber sister, and her sister's child.

13" A pretty widow of Ebert county, Georgia, has been kiduapped by men representing themselves to be revenue officers. When she asked who was at the door, they broke open the door, made her dress in the dark, and then compelled her to go off with them, leaving her little daughter alone in bed.

W Virginia L. Minor, a St. Louis lady, says she honestly believes and conscieniously makes oath that she has not a dollar's worth of property subject to taxation, because the principle on which this government rests is representation before taxation, and her property is denied representation. TT A family named Sussick, at Linden, N. J., consisting of father, mother and four children, were poisoned on Monday night by eating toadstools for mushrooms. Two of the children are dead and the other two are dying. The parents are sick, but are recovering, they having eaten very little.

dren. The School Board asserts they are entitled to admission to the common school, but that the State Supreme Court has held that town authorities can bar them from the High School.

137 Richard Stevenson, United States Deputy Marshal, was shot to death in Kingsman county, Kansas, on Saturday, by a horse thief, who escaped to the Indian Territory. He had arrested the thief at Wellington, and was returning the prisoner and property to Kingsman. Both men, together with a drummer, were in a carriage. In descending a sudden declivity the thief snatched Stevenson's revolver and shot him.

Shortly after twelve o'clock yesterday morning a patrolman found five little children at Twenty-second and Hamilton streets, who said their mother was drunk and their father in prison for theft, and that they were destitute. Their mother, whose name is Nichols, was found drunk at Sixteenth and Carlton streets. The children were provided for by the S. P. C. C. They said a constable had put them out of their home for non-payment of rent .- Phil'a. "North American."

CF William Grane, a merchant tailor of Bradford, walked into his house on Wednesday afternoon a week, and after lightning his pipe and sitting down, said to his wife, "Good-by; I hope we part friends; I am tired of life, and I shouldn't wonder if I died in two hours." His wife paid no attention to him, as she thought he was drunk, and in ten minutes he was seized with a sickness that took him off in two hours. He had taken poison with suicidal intent on account of business troubles.

137 Samuel Ham, a farmer living near Roscoe, in St. Clair county, Missouri, was murdered recently. Three unknown horsemen rode up to Ham while he was engaged in boiling sorghum and shot him dead .--He was supposed to have a considerable sum of money. After searching the body and failing to find money, they rode away. Parties are scouring the county, but so far have not come up with the murderers .--Ham was recently from Kentucky, and one theory is that the homicide was the result of an old feud.

Crosse sawmill, Monday, showed great presence of mind. He was engaged in putting a belt on a pully, when his left hand was caught between the belting and the wheel and was terribly smashed. It is stated by witnesses of the accident that he would have been killed, or at least suffered much more serious injury, had he not, as soon as his hand was caught, taken his knife from his pocket with the other hand, and opening it with his teeth, cut the belt in two.

13 Lewis Gray, aged twenty-seven, and Charles Jones, aged twenty-one, of Bradford, were killed at one o'clock Tuesday morning by the explosion of sixty pounds of nitro-glycerine with which they were about to torpedo an oil well at Bell's Camp, eight miles from Bradford. The men were scattered into so small fragments that not a single one of many pieces of flesh found scattered around on trees and hill-side could be identified as belonging t either of them. A team of horse buggy were also blown to atoms by th explosion. It is supposed that the men were lifting one of the cans of glycering from the buggy, when the handle gay way. The report of the explosion wa distinctly heard in Bradford. 137" A negro widow of Brunswick, Ga. captured a beau. He pretended to lov her, and she joyfully accepted his affection The wedding day and hour was fixed, and the ebony bride, attired in the height o Georgia African fashion, anxiously awaite her equally ebony bridlegroom. But the e b. g. didn't come, and the guests, whose appetites were growing ravenous, went i search of him, saying ; "We'll find da nigger, dead or alive." All through that long and weary night did they seek withou finding, but the next morning they caugh him up a plum tree, dragged him down conducted him to the bride, and wer about to send for the preacher, when she interrupted the proceedings by exclaiming "I'se got enough 'specimen wid dat nig gor," and administered to him a lively drubbing with a broomstick. Arrested on Spirit Evidence.

A lady living in Chicago, 111., had a small amount of money stolen from her recently, and went to a fortune-teller to ascertain whither it had gone. The accommodating fortuneteller, after going through the usual ceremonies of her kind, discovered the culprit and exhibited his picture to the owner of the stolen money. The lady recognized the picture as that of a young man of her acquaintance, and forthwith had him arrested and arrainged before Justice Peters. There was nothing but the very intangible evidence furnished by the spirit land, and the case was dismissed at the request of the lady, who half repented that she had undertaken a prosecution on such grounds.

A Female Fiend.

PORTSMOUTH, O., August 30 .- A terrible story of cruelty to an orphan girl has been given to the public here. For no cause whatever, Miss Hattle Parker, aged about 16 years, has, it appears, been frequently beaten by her mistress until her body was a mass of bleeding flesh, red pepper pods have been inserted in the wounds and salt and water sprinkled over them. Added to all this, the child's feet have been bent forward before her on the floor and her toe-nails pounded out by a hammer or hatchet.

IT A Gratiot county, Mich., man collected a pension claim of $2,640 for an old lady, and modestly kept the odd $640 as a recompense for writing a few letters to the pension office, making out a few papers, etc. The law only allows a pension agent or attorney $10, and he has been arrested. The lady says she had agreed to give him $100.

63" A cow belonging to Mr. Abram Quay, of Glenloch, died, it was feared, with pleuro-pneumonia. On opening the cow, there was found imbeded in the heart a darning needle, between three and four inches long. The needle to all appearances, had been swallowed some time ago, as it was very much discolored and looked as if it had been eaten with acid.

Con a recent Sunday at Bradford, a lad carrying a large basket filled with sealed envelopes, took a position near the the Methodist Church, and as the congregation passed out he presented each person with an envelope. Great was the surprise of the pious people when, upon breaking the seal, they saw a flaming bill announcthe attraction to be seen at one of the variety theatres.
