The winter term of the Duncannon Schools began last week. They have a 6 months' term.
On last Friday morning Mrs. Powell of this place had a severe gash cut in her head, by a garden hoe falling from a grape arbor.
A valuable mare belonging to Harry Seidel, of Marysville, was choked to death by getting entangled in her halter a few nights ago.
The Lewistown True Democrat has changed editors and proprietors, and comes to us this week greatly improved in appearance.
A lecture on Music will be given in the Presbyterian Church, in this place, on Tuesday evening, by Prof. Kurzenknabe, of Harrisburg.
The employees of this office return their thanks to Mr. Henry Rice, sr., for a fine basket of grapes. He has choice varieties for sale at low prices.
We received a pleasant call from Rev. Stearn, presiding elder of this district of the U. B. Church, on Wednesday last. He was accompanied by Rev. Hoover.
A colored campmeeting will be held on the 12th inst., continuing over Sunday, in the woods about 1 1/2 miles southwest of Shermansdale.
Mrs. Derrick has again taken possession of the Eagle Hotel in this place, John Newcomer having removed rather unexpectedly.
Dave Rinesmith is bragging about his wheat. He says he has some Foltz wheat, from which ten sheaves yielded a bushel.
Recently Mr. George Barnett of this place lost a sheep. A few days later the pelt was found in a fence corner where the animal had been killed and skinned.
A three year old child of Mr. Lenas Moore of Wheatfield township, caught her fingers in the cogs of a mower on Friday a week and had several badly mashed.
Some of the young gentlemen and ladies of this borough "tripped the light (?) fantastic toe" last Monday night in the dining-room of the Eagle Hotel.
If the Town Council would only get some man of good sense as Street Commissioner and then let him use his judgment, the tax-payers would be benefited.
A severe storm passed over parts of this county on Wednesday evening. At Centre, the M. E. Church was moved several inches off the foundation, and a rail was blown through the window.
Wentz Curtis Miller, of Newport, a graduate of West Point and for several years a First Lieutenant in the 4th Cavalry, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted by the President.
At the Concord Camp Meeting under charge of Rev. A. W. Decker, there were 26 tents. On Sunday there were about 2000 persons on the ground. Rev. J. W. Cleaver preached in the morning, and Dr. Mitchell, P. E. in the evening.
David Stutzman, of Miller township, was recently bitten severely in the hand by a copperhead snake. The only remedy he applied in the case was to drink a gallon of whiskey, which he did in about two days, and the sore caused by the snake's fangs is now healed.—News.
On Sept. 19th, at 1 p. m., Amos Fouk, adm'r. of John Fouk, dec'd., will sell in Carroll twp., 2 1/2 miles northwest of Shermansdale, 2 cows, one 3-year old, 1 brood sow, spring wagon, sleigh, harness, tools of various kinds and many other articles.

Bass fishing is at its height and many Liverpool citizens are very successful. So far however, James J. Eberts has proved himself to be the "Boss Angler," as he has caught one hundred and seventy-four bass this season.

A tin box containing $100 in silver, was recently dug up on the Slonaker farm, in Heidelberg township, York county, by a member of the family. It is supposed to have been buried during the war by some unknown person. The money was still clean and bright.

Three of our professional men went gunning for squirrels on Tuesday last, and the combined result of their labors was a land turtle. We suppose they shot it on the wing.

Bob and Crist, beat the professional gentlemen just nine grey squirrels.

While attending the Granger's picnic, on Thursday, Mr. Wm. Sloop, of this county, was so unfortunate as to have his pocket picked by some of the light-fingered gentry. His pocket-book contained a small sum of money and notes to the amount of several hundred dollars.

The body recently seen in the river near Duncannon was again seen on Sunday by Joseph Monmiller. This time the remains were brought to shore, and were found to consist of the lower part only of the body of a boy apparently about 14 years of age. The only thing that can possibly give any clue to who it was is a boot now in the hands of Mr. Moses.

On Thursday a man named James Titler was arrested by Constable Shaeffer on a charge of stealing a maul and wedge preferred by Solomon Strawser, of Centre township. At a hearing before Esquire Clouser, of this place, it was demonstrated that Titler had borrowed the alleged stolen articles with the view of returning them, and he was promptly discharged from custody. The action of the Justice in the premises was commendable, as there are too many cases of a like character permitted to encumber our Courts.

$1,000 Reward.—The County Commissioners have increased the reward for the arrest of Albright to one thousand dollars. They evidently don't believe that Albright is buried.

Our Libel Suit.—We have captured a libel suit, and the history of the case is as follows: We had our attention called to an article in the Van Buren (Mo.) Times which showed very plainly that either some one in this vicinity was trying to swindle the people, or else that paper was telling what was not true.—For the information of the public we copied the article, not knowing whether such a fellow as Crist lived or whether it was an assumed name. It seems he does actually live at Marysville, and was so much pleased with us for publishing the article that he proposes to give us some notoriety by commencing proceedings against us for libel. The article which the land speculator took offence at was also published in the Harrisburg Telegraph with the annexed few lines which we give as being of interest in this connection:

[From the Harrisburg Telegraph.]

A TELEGRAPH reporter started out this morning in search of information on the subject. Mr. Fleming, as notary public, takes affidavits every day and it was hardly expected that he should remember every one, but after reading the extract he said he remembered John Crist very well; that he resided in Marysville, Perry county, and was a dealer in Western lands. "He came here," said Mr. Fleming, "some two years ago, and wanted to sell me lots in Christy City, and exhibited a plan, gotten up in a gorgeous manner, of the city laid out in lots, situated on the bank of a river. I did not purchase. Subsequently he wanted me to write him an affidavit to the effect that the deed for his land is recorded at Van Buren, Missouri, worded in such a way as to leave the impression that the plan of lots was on record. This I refused to do, as he had previously shown me a letter from the clerk saying that there was no plan of lots recorded, and that there was no river near Christy City." Subsequently Crist returned to Mr. Fleming with an affidavit which he swore to. The map Crist exhibited had a river running by Christy City, and when Mr. F. called Crist's attention to it and the Clerk's letter saying that it not exist, Crist coolly cut off that part of the map containing the river. Some of the lots have been sold to parties in Harrisburg and Baldwin. Crist no doubt owns land in Missouri, but there must be something wrong about that city. We give the whole affair for what it is worth, and if there are any lot holders in this city who are anxious about their money they can write and ascertain where the city is located, the Van Buren Times no doubt quite willingly furnishing the information.

As a part of this proceeding we will further note that we had a call from a very pleasant gentleman named Gamber, who had with him a warrant which commanded him to bring the body of F. Mortimer before his Honor, Theophilus Fenn, of Marysville. Though Mr. Gamber is very much of a gentleman, and a ride with him at ordinary times would afford us much pleasure, we declined on this occasion, preferring to give ball before Esquire Clouser to appear when wanted. Any further developments in this case will be placed on record as they occur. We will also give the public all the information we can obtain regarding Christy City, as we have taken steps to get thoroughly posted on that subject.

Barn Burned.—On Thursday evening, September 4th, the barn of Cyrus Ferree, in Liverpool township, near the borough line, was destroyed by fire, together with the contents. The insurance more than covers the loss. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Died of Lock-Jaw.—Henry Derr, of Liverpool, cut himself recently on the knee with a hatchet, and died on his father's boat, near Havre de Grace. He was aged about 20 years, and was much esteemed. He was prominent as a Sunday school worker, and his death is deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.—Democrat.

Run Off.—On Monday of last week Emanuel Wagoner in driving out to Kendig's peach orchard in Saville township, had some exciting experience with his team of two mules. The lines broke, and the animals ran away, safely passing another vehicle. The animals were finally stopped, no damage having been done, except to badly scare two young ladies who were in the vehicle.

August Weather Report.—B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of August, 1879: Average of thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 64° 4', and of barometer 30 inches minus 6-tenths. Average of greatest heat 77° 27', and of cold 60° 58'. There fell 7 inches of rain. Monday the 4th, was the warmest day, the thermometer registering 85°, and Sunday the 10th the coldest, the mercury sinking to 48°. More rain fell this August than there has fallen in same month for several years past.

Lamp Explosion.—On Thursday night, Mr. Abe Orwan, of this place, was awakened to find a lamp that stood near the bed had exploded, and the oil was in full blaze. Fortunately the quantity of oil in the lamp was small and he succeeded in smothering the flames with a felt skirt. The side of the lamp had blown out. This is probably the result of burning a lamp turned down too low. The nearer a lamp is full the safer it is, and a lamp should never be left burning unless the wick is turned up so there is no smell to the lamp.

Not So.—Some papers are publishing the following law. No such law was passed.

A law enacted at the last session of the legislature, provides that no quail shall be shot within the limits of this State from November 1st, 1879. This law was enacted in response to an urgent call from sportsmen, because of the growing scarcity of this species of game, caused by the ravages of persons who have no regard for the game law. A heavy penalty is inflicted for its violation, and we should like to see it enforced.

United Brethren Campmeeting on Bruner's Camp-ground.

This meeting commenced on the 29th ult. The first religious service was held at 7.30 P. M. The Presiding Elder of the district, Rev. C. T. Stearn, preached from a good audience. A service was held at the meeting started off with indications of future success, some eight or ten ministers from various churches of the Baltimore District, of which Perry circuit forms a part, were present ready for work. Saturday was all that could be desired for campmeeting purposes. Rev. Rice, of Mt. Wolf, Rev. Tripner, of Duncannon, and Wickey, of Eskook, preached. The children's meeting at 2 P. M., was very interesting. Two prayer and experience meetings were held during the day. These meetings were seasons of real religious profit.
The Sabbath day dawned upon the camp most grandly. The sky was clear, the air cool and delightful. The gathering of people was immense. The first religious service was a prayer and experience meeting. A great many Christians participated in this service. At 10 A. M., a very large and interesting audience was present and listened with close attention, the sermon made a firm impression. The subject of the discourse was "The Suffering of Christ." At 1 P. M., a very interesting children's meeting was held, at 3 P. M., Rev. A. H. Rice preached a good sermon. At 5 P. M., a very excellent social meeting was held at the stand. At 7.30 P. M., Rev. G. W. Lightner preached one of his characteristic sermons; he has all the energy and zeal of former years, and his preaching is as potent as ever. Every body seemed to enjoy themselves. The advancement in Christianization and civilization is seen in the good conduct of the large gatherings of our people in the grove. No drunkenness, no profanity, no disorder of any kind, such as used to be seen at such places.—One of the things worthy of note is the vast amount of good ratings spread out in every direction. Surely a grand and sumptuous table was spread here in the wilderness, and right well did the people enjoy these good things of earth, nor were those who prepared those things satisfied to enjoy them alone, all seemed eager to invite others to enjoy their hospitality. Monday was a day of quiet on the ground; several ministers of other denominations came in to exchange courtesies and fraternal greetings. Also, several other ministers of the U. B. Church arrived on the ground. At 10 A. M., Rev. C. T. Stearn preached. Subject—"Angels and their Employment." At 3 P. M., Rev. Tripner preached a very impressive sermon. Subject—"Prayer." At 7 P. M., Mr. Dier preached, subject—"The Neglect of Salvation." The usual children's and social meetings were held during the day. This was a good day, and the various services were most interesting and soul-inspiring.
Tuesday closed the encampment.—Quite a large congregation was present, but not so large by any means as would have been present had it not looked so much for rain. At 10 A. M., Rev. J. Smith, of York, Pa., discoursed to the people. Subject—"The Baptism and Exaltation of Jesus." The sermon was a fine production and moved the hearts of all present. The celebration of the holy communion, which followed, was a most solemn and a most solemn occasion. It is supposed that more persons went forward to commune than at any meeting ever held on this ground in former years. At 2.30 P. M., a conference meeting was held. The time was spent in singing and speaking. This service consumed all the time of the afternoon. At 7 P. M., Rev. J. H. Hutchinson, of Littlestown, Adams co., preached, his subject being "The Open Door."—The sermon was a very persuasive appeal to the unconverted to avail themselves of the salvation provided. Several came forward as seekers, and a general interest seemed to prevail among those converted. The altar service continued later than usual and good work was done. Wednesday rain was falling, and but few persons other than tent holders and their families were present. The tents were good and all were well protected and happy. Prayer meetings were held in several tents.

Rev. J. C. Smith of York, preached at 3 P. M. Subject—"Personal and Family Religion." This was a good and interesting discourse. At night the rain came down in torrents, and prayer meetings were held in several tents. Three penitents were seeking religion, two professed religion. The meetings were very good, and many saints were made to rejoice.

Thursday morning was bright and clear, and all felt encouraged to go to work in earnest hoping for a good time this last day of the camp.—Thursday. The day was bright and clear. The attendance was very large, the order was excellent and all seemed to enjoy themselves. At 10 A. M., Rev. S. Diller, of Dillsburg, York co., preached a very interesting discourse. At 2 P. M., a children's meeting was held. Singing, addresses and giving the parting hand among the young people was the order. At 3 P. M., Rev. G. W. Lightner preached a real old-fashioned substantial gospel sermon.—At 7.30 Rev. J. W. Hutchison preached after which several persons presented themselves as seekers of religion. At 10 P. M. a parting address was delivered, the circle was formed around and the parting service was participated in by a great number of persons.
This has been a very satisfactory meeting in every respect to those interested in getting it up. The religious services were under the supervision of Rev. C. T. Stearn P. E. of Balt. District. All the expenses were paid and a nice surplus left over which was presented to the pastor of Perry circuit Rev. G. W. Keracow who is much appreciated by the people of his charge.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

A little son of A. B. Neisley, of North Middleton township, met with a severe accident on Thursday last. He was plowing in the stubbles, when the plow fell on him, the shire cutting his leg into the bone, producing a very severe wound.

The Carlisle "Volunteer" gives the following graphic account of a bull fight which took place recently: The other Saturday when David Vogelsong, of Silver Spring township, turned his cattle out to water they strayed along up the creek, until opposite Joseph E. Musser's pasture field. Mr. Musser's bull being of a bellicose disposition, broke through the fence and challenged Mr. V.'s bull for a fight which the latter accepted. At it they went taking the creek for their battle ground and when the fight was finished Mr. Musser was minus a forty dollar bull.

While the heirs of Mr. George Baker, residing one mile east of town, were engaged, on Tuesday forenoon, in threshing oats, and just as one of the hands, Mr. Jesse Richwine, had quit feeding for the purpose of changing the strap from the cylinder to the shaker, the cylinder burst, scattering fragments in every direction. The cylinder was closed at the ends, and it is supposed that it was the confined air, with the greater velocity of the machine while running empty, that caused the accident. The parties in the barn made a lucky escape. This accident should serve as a caution to workmen, and teach a lesson to manufacturers.—Carlisle Sentinel.

On Monday last a son of David Neldigh, of Millin twp., aged 11 years, left his home soon after dinner to go to a field where a hand was at work. He stayed there a short time and then started home. At supper time when the hand returned from the field he was asked about the boy, when he gave the information that the boy had left the field for home some time in the afternoon. Mr. Neldigh and wife were in this place transacting business, and nothing was done in the matter until the arrival of the parents in the evening, when they were told of the occurrence. The parents became alarmed and search was made for the boy. He was found in a meadow, a short distance from the house, dead. On Tuesday Dr. W. G. Stewart was sent for and held a post mortem examination and found that the right lobe of the liver was ruptured which caused death. There were several bruises on his head, breast and right side. The supposition is that the boy got some fox grapes and had fallen down, as the tree stood near where he was found. Esquire Moffet was sent for who came and empaneled a jury and they rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—Enterprise.

Penn Township Items.

MR. EDITOR: Your correspondent has been waiting for something of importance to "turn up," so that he might have a little news, and he was amply paid for the delay for a few evenings ago, he in company with three other boys went on the Cove mountain to rob a bees' nest, and after cutting down a very large pine tree five feet more or less in diameter, the writer proceeded to business, that is, steal the honey, when he very suddenly received an injection in the upper lip, which caused it to turn in more ways than up, and the next morn I looked as though I had been prodded all over the face. The day is one to be long remembered by all present, as all were marked. It was a "poor night for honey too," as we got scarcely enough to eat. Mr. D. when you find another bee tree send for Dave.
Penn claims to have a Board of School Directors, that for intelligence and interest in the education of children in the District which they represent, are not excelled, and seldom equaled by any other township in Perry county. Four of the present members are serving their 3rd, 4th and 5th terms, showing the confidence of the people. The Board has had a new house erected instead of the old "Santeal" at Hickory Grove. The old houses are fast disappearing, and new, beautiful, and comfortable ones taking their places. When the school account was audited at the 1st of June, a balance of over $365.00 remained in the treasury of the board, the teachers salaries have been increased from $38.00 a month to $36.00, showing that they want their laborers to live on more than "sassa" or impure air. The teachers were selected on Saturday evening, 29th ult., and are as follows: Miss May Uhler for Upper Cove; David Boyd, for Middle Cove; Chester Steel, Lower Cove; J. F. Song, H. Stewart and Carrie Wilson for Duncannon; C. O. Smith and Ida Stewart for Baskinville; W. J. Shelby, Mt. Pleasant; S. Green, Hickory Grove, and Frank Ellis, Michener, and it is thus that another scene is ended, and if the election was over then we might have peace and rest for another year.
I'm glad that my "tab" dates to '80, so that I can send to the post office for my mail, if every one felt as your correspondent, your pockets would overflow with the "stuff," which is called the root of all evil. He thinks the "tab" is like a postal every body reads it.

Farmers are very busy preparing for and putting in the Fall crop. Summer crops promise a good harvest. Peaches are abundant, apples rather scarce. DAVE.

Complete Works of Shakespeare.

Best, Handiest, Most Legible Type—The "Anon" Edition—The Complete Works of William Shakespeare.

In issuing "The Avon Shakespeare" the publishers claim for it very great superiority over any octavo edition ever published, and for the following reasons:—
