The silver certificate bids fair to take the place of the standard dollar to a very great extent. In paying out ten per cent. of checks in silver dollars, the Treasurer is generally faced with the demand for certificates in their stead.

A Modern Gunpowder Plot.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 16.—The Corbin hotel, occupied by Henry Corbin, at Westerville, in this county, was blown up on Sunday night by gunpowder. The building was occupied by a number of people, but no one except Corbin was injured, and he not fatally.

Wreck of a Railway Train.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—A special dispatch from Quincy, Ill., to the Journal says: "An incoming passenger train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, at 9.40 last night, was wrecked seven miles from Quincy, while under ordinary speed, by a tie which some malicious person had bound across the track."

Caught After Sixteen Years.

Sixteen years ago there lived a man named Arthur Elliott, a hermit, on the banks of Muscotatuck river, on the line between Jackson and Washington counties. He was the possessor of a large amount of money, and one dark night, August 21st, 1864, he was shot and mortally wounded.

A Disappointed Jew.

A Hebrew in Salt Lake City was sentenced to three months in the chain gang. After a month was served he got very tired of it, and thought he would try to get himself out. Learning that a span of mules had been stolen, he inquired about the time of the theft and a description of the mules, determined that he would make use of this information in order to regain his liberty.

Probable Disaster to a British Steamship.

BALTIMORE, September 15.—A morning paper says: "The British steamship Lovaine, Captain M'Cauley, which cleared hence August 16 for Tyne Docks, England, with 84,979 bushels of wheat, and 120 head live beef cattle had not at the close of business on Saturday been heard of as arriving at her destination."

been out twenty-six days and is long over time caused apprehension. The cargo was valued at $100,000 and the grain was insured in a New York office. It is stated that the underwriters' board of surveyors here objected to the manner in which the grain was loaded.

The Longest Beard in the World.

In Norwich, Connecticut, there is a man who probably wears the longest beard of any man in the world. His name is Henry C. Cook, a tailor by trade. He never makes a display of his beard, but wears it concealed in a little bag under his shirt bosom. The beard is six feet six inches in length, and when allowed to fall its length it will reach his toes and stretch out on the floor ten inches and looks like a large skein of brown silk.

A Long Search.

On the 9th of February a three-year old daughter was stolen from William Price, a tailor of Aurora, Ill., while she was playing in front of the house. After being completely satisfied that she was not in town, he went to Chicago, whence he traced her to New York. After weeks of unavailing search, he had given up and was about to go home, when, as he was passing the Foote House, corner of Twenty-sixth street and Third avenue, he saw a child at a window. He ran to a police station for help, but when he returned she was gone.

Miscellaneous News Items.

A woman, supposed to be from Chester, deserted a two month's old female child at the Baltimore depot Tuesday afternoon.

A Columbia man was in doubt whether the law prohibited catching bass by outlines, so he caught some in that way and had himself arrested and tried, to settle the matter. The jury's verdict was a fine and costs, and the man is now satisfied.

The other day at a circus show at Paris, Ill., a young lady started out of the audience, rushed up to a performer, took his arm, declared she had fallen dead in love with him and that he must marry her. The half-crazed girl was put out with difficulty.

A rural couple over in Tuscola county, Mich., were married the other day, and immediately after the ceremony quarreled about some trivial matter. The bride went home to her pa, and the next day the bridegroom started for Kansas with the intention of staying.

A merchant sitting in his office in New York recently received an answer to a dispatch sent to Shanghai, China, six hours previously. Shanghai is 36,000 miles distant from New York by telegraph, and the message (not making allowance for delivery at the two cities) traveled at the rate of 100 miles a minute.

Owners of lake vessels are excited over the shortage of cargoes loaded at Chicago when they come to be unloaded at Buffalo. A cargo weighed in Chicago at say 10,000 bushels will turn out at Buffalo only a little more than 15,000 bushels, and as yet it has not been discovered where the mistake or fraud occurs.

New York, September 10.—A notorious cracksmen named Williams and a companion were arrested on Monday in Westchester county for burglary and were taken to White Plains. The Grand Jury indicted them: they were brought into court to plead to the indictment, pleaded guilty, and were, at 3 P. M., sentenced to eight years each in the State Prison at hard labor.

A negro who died recently at Oxford, N. C., was famous for his great strength. He could lift a barrel containing thirty or forty gallons and drink from the bung; could throw an ordinary anvil twenty-five yards, and could pull four men with a handspike at one time. He once killed a deer with a rock, overtook and despatched a bear with an ax, and caught and hamstringed a ferocious bull.

In the "American Agriculturist" for September the editor of the "Humbug Exposure Department" of that journal, says that Syracuse, N. Y., is the headquarters of many swindlers who operate on unsuspecting farmers and cautious Pennsylvania farmers to be on the outlook for the "man with the patent churn." Our rural friends visiting the State and county fairs should go for the churn man, if they come across him, and "churn him out of camp."

St. Louis, September 16.—The body of Harry Merritt, a traveler for a soap manufacturer, at Buffalo, or Dayton, Ohio, was found dead, terribly mangled on the track of the Missouri Pacific railroad, near Conner station, Wyandotte county, Kansas, on Sunday morning. An examination shows that the man had been murdered, he having a pistol ball in his head and a terrible stab in the left breast. He had also been robbed. His body had been thrown on the track, and was run over by a freight train and nearly torn to pieces.

An amusing occurrence took place in this city a few days ago. One of our professional gentlemen thought to play a joke on his wife. He invited her to take a carriage ride, and in a few moments drove up to the house with a small donkey attached to a donkey-cart. The lady came to the window, looked at the "rig," and asked if that was the outfit that she was expected to ride in? He replied, yes. Well, said she, I could stand it to ride with one donkey, but not with two. Excuse donkey and driver, suddenly.—Lambertville Record.

A few days ago, a well known farmer of Norriston township, was plowing up potatoes, and left his horse standing for a few minutes in the field, apprehending no danger as the animal had always been quiet. While he was gone the horse ran off. He soon tore loose from the plow, ran through the garden, jumped a fence and ran to a neighbor's, where he charged straight into the kitchen, and was only prevented from entering the sitting room by the fact that the lines caught in a board just outside the kitchen door. An infant child which was sitting on the doorstep of the kitchen was providentially taken away a moment before the horse arrived.

KANSAS CITY, September 14.—A heart-rending tragedy was enacted at Shawnee, a little town nine miles south of Kansas City, at an early hour yesterday morning. Mrs. Mary Bonesteel, who resides at that point, administered poison to two of her children, aged five and nine years, and then hanged herself to a bedpost. Morphine was used, and both children are dead. Mrs. Bonesteel was discovered in time to save her life, but expresses no regret at the terrible deed, and vows an intention to kill herself at the first chance. Her husband ran away a year ago with two of their children, and his departure and her loss of means of support drove her crazy.

A Card.

Believing nearly one year ago that the present Autumn would see the country on the high road to prosperity, we commenced then to make preparations for a business of great magnitude.

To properly arrange for a stock surpassing all we had before attempted, we sent aboard several buyers, who visited all the chief manufacturing centers of Europe, especially in England, France and Germany.

Through them we have succeeded in contracting for large quantities of Specialties, which will be confined to ourselves exclusively, as well as a general stock of Novelties and Staple Fabrics, unsurpassed in the American market. The most careful study has been given to the cheapening of supplies, and it is believed that with our present arrangements the consumer who deals at our house will stand nearer to the producer than ever before in the history of the trade.

The products of the best makers. Foreign and Domestic, will be distributed by us in any quantity, small or large, with only our own small profit added to the lowest prices (less all discounts) at which manufacturers will contract with the largest cash buyers.

A number of alterations and improvements have been made to our store property conducing still further than heretofore to the convenience and comfort of patrons, and respectfully inviting visits of inspection on and after this date, September 15, we announce the formal opening of the Fall Business of 1879. Respectfully submitted by STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER, Eighth and Markets Sts., Phil'a.

Magazines for October.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for October comes to us as welcome as usual. "Peterson's" is not only a magazine of art and fashion, it is one of literature also, and no lady's book approaches it in its powerful stories and novelets. Notably, among these are "The Tragedy of Trevilian," by Mrs. Ann B. Stephens, and "Miss Defarge," by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, two novelets of exceptional merit even for this periodical. In addition "Peterson's" boasts of such contributors as Frank Lee Benedict, Mrs. R. Harding Davis, Marietta Holley, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife," etc., etc. The terms of this, the cheapest and best of the lady's books, are but two dollars a year, with very great reductions to clubs, and a free copy and other premiums to those getting up the club. Now is the time to begin to get up clubs for 1880. Specimens sent gratis, if written for, to those wishing to get up clubs. Address CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut St., Phil'a.

GOOD COMPANY, Number One, is a first and inviting issue of a new volume, with which subscriptions, which should be sent now, should commence.

The cover is new in color and design, both in excellent taste, and the latter as gemmets among magazines. It is the work of Mr. E. J. N. Steet of New York.

After a charming bit of poetry by Lucretia, come some pleasant pages from Mr. Charles Dudley Warner, entitled, A Wilderness Romance. It is one of his delightful Adirondack sketches. Next there is an account of Hospital Work in New York, carefully done and readable, by Mr. William H. Riding. It will surprise many to learn that there are several hospitals in New York finer in construction and equipment than any in the Old World. Following this are a sketch from life by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, and some verses by Miss Lucy Larcom, characteristic and therefore good. Miss Larcom has a second poem of the number.

A gentleman who resided for several years in Japan gives visions of the maxims of their social code, which have an interest as having been largely instrumental in producing the polished courtesy of manner and rare politeness that we so much admire in the Japanese. It is entitled The Politeness of Ogasawara. The other contributions are varied and excellent. The number concludes with The Editor's Table and "Talks."

It should be distinctly understood that this magazine presents original matter only. $3.00 a year, postage paid. Good canvassers wanted. Address GOOD COMPANY, Springfield, Mass.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for October is at hand, and there is no magazine in this country that can compare with "Balloon's" for originality, freshness and cheapness. The engravings are fresh and appropriate, the stories of a high order of merit, and the poetry the best that can be obtained. The magazine has a household page each month, and all of this can be obtained for only $1.50 per annum prepared, and at club rates even cheaper. It is a family publication, and should be in every household in the Union. Buy a copy, and be convinced of its superior merits. The October number is just issued, and contains a great variety of matter.

Published by THOMES & TALBOT, Boston, Mass.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for October opens with a very bright and amusing article, by Margaret Bertha Wright, depicting the rambles and experiences of a party of American artists in Italy. The illustrations are in keeping with the text, being full of vivacity and point. The fourth chapter of Dr. Oswald's "Summerland Sketches" treats of "The Western Sierras," and is not inferior to the former installments either in the interest of the narrative or the illustrations. A third illustrated article, "Chamois-Shooting with the Emperor of Austria," is by W. A. Ballie Grohman, author of "Gaddings with a Primitive People." "Sunday in England" is the production of an English writer, who treats his subject with that intimate knowledge which none but a native could be expected to exhibit. "Through Winding Ways," which has proved one of the most attractive serials ever published in the Magazine, is concluded in this number, and there are several short stories suited to different tastes. The "Monthly Gossip" is entertaining as usual, and the number on the whole is as readable as any of its predecessors.

Address J. B. Lippincott & Co., publishers, 715 and 717 Market street, Philadelphia.

DEMOREST'S MAGAZINE has already been received, and a perusal of it shows that it keeps up its reputation of being the finest of the monthly magazines. As a work of art no monthly equals it, while its reading matter, Fashion Reports, Patterns and Household receipts bear a favorable comparison with its competitors. The Oil Chromo given in this number is charming while there are two other fine pictures, that are gems. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, New York at $3 per year.
