Why was Gollah very much surprised when David slung the stone at him? Because such a thing never entered his head before.

BY A Delaware doctor gave it as his written opinion that a patient of his was afflicted with "Bileyus feavor." The bad spell killed him-the patient not the doctor.

"Father," said a cobbler's lad, as he was pegging away at an old shoe, "they say trout blte good now." "Well, well," replied the old gentleman, "you stick to your work and they won't bite you."

SE A little girl in one of our public schools the other day had occasion to parse the word "angel." Coming to the gender she stopped in dismay, and asked her teacher if "there are any men augels?"

An honest ignoramus, who had escaped a great peril by an act of heroism, was much complimented for his bravery. One lady said: 'I wish I could have seen your feat,' whereupon he blushed and stammered, and finally, pointing to his pedal extremities, said: Well, there may be, mum.'

There is a paper at Janesville that continues to publish base ball news. Base ball, it will be remembered by old settlers, is a game played by eighteen persons who wear shirts and drawers. They scatter around the field and try to catch a cannon ball covered with raw-hide. The game is to get people to pay two shillings to come inside the "Young gentlemen," said the Rev. Dr. John Brown to his class of theological students, "ye need three things to make you good ministerslearning, grace, and common-sense. As for learning, I will try to set you in the way of it; as for grace, ye must always pray for it; but if ye have na brought the common-sense with ye, ye may go about your business."

Jones had prepared himself for a dinner to his liking. He sat to the dining-room table at peace with all the world, and said: "Now, Bridget, bring the cold shoulder of mutton. I want no bot meat this kind of weather." Bridget hesitated a moment and then said, "But I gave it away, sir." "Gave it away! Gave my dinner away? "Yes, sir. You said if any tramps called I was to give them a cold shoulder."

Two Hibernians were passing a stable which had a rooster on it for a weather-vane, when one addressed the other thus: "Pat, what's the reason they didn't put a hen up there, instead of a rooster?" "And sure," replied Pat, "that's alsy enough. Don't ye see it would be inconvenient to go for the eggs." A sceptic who was badgering a simple-minded old man about a miracle and Balaam's ass, finally said: "How is it possible for an ass to talk like a man ?"

"Well," replied an honest old believer, with meaning emphasis, "I don't see why it ain't as easy for an ass to talk like a man, as it is for a man to talk like an ass."

At a legal investigation of a liquor seizure, the judge asked an unwilling witness: "What was in the barrel you had?"

The reply was: "Well, your honor, it was marked whiskey' on one end of the barrel and Pat Duffy' on the other end, so that whether it was whiskey or Pat Duffy was in the barrel I cannot say being I am on my oath." A Joke on the Grocer.

A good story comes from Woodstock, Me. A grocer there owns a cow with horns of inferior length. Last week some mischievous boys obtained from the tannery a pair of cast-off horns which, with a lat of cement, they nicely fitted over the herns of the cow and left her go home at milking time. which she did. Her owner not only failed to recognize her, but actually used force to expel her from the premises. The village was searched in vain for the missing animal and an advertisement was inserted in the local paper. Day after day the stray cow was turned away, until at last, she refused to obey the verbal order, the victim of an innocent joke seized her by the horns, which came off and in the intruder he recognized his own property, for the loss of which he had so sadly mourned.
