Brief Items.

Some of the farmers who did their seeding early, are regretting that they did not do so later.

It is not often persons husking corn complain of the heat, but there has been reason for such complaint this season.

Persons who propose to become sub-scribers to THE TIMES, for next year, can, by subscribing now, receive the paper the balance of this year free.

Some of the Cumberland County farm-ers have sowed their wheat over again, the fly and drouth having used up the first sowing.

Ed. Clouser of this borough, com-menced wild turkey season by bringing in four nice ones. That may be called a pretty good day's work.

On Saturday a week, a cow belonging to Mr. David Dunkleberger, lost her life by jumping over a fence and rolling down a cliff on to the Peoples' Freight Dallward Railway.

A widow with a small family can have a good tenant house for her use and have employment at house work, care of milk, &c., by applying to ANDREW LOY, Cen-tre, Pa. 48-8t*

Don't fail to attend the auction sale of the entire stock in Mortimer's old Store room. The sale is positive and the stock composes the usual variety of a country store Cole community. a country store. Sale commences at three o'clock next Monday afternoon.

A Wonderful Escape. - While engaged in threshing on the farm of Judge Mötzer, in Madison twp., on Saturday a week, a young man named D. Heiser, made a most remarkable escape from a terrible death. He was caught by the clothing at the waist, by the tumbling shaft and when the machine was stopped, he was stripped entirely naked, except his boots and the wristbands of his shirt. Had his clothing not given away nothing could have saved him.

Strike and Discharge .- The puddlers in the rolling mill of this place struck on Monday for an advance of 10 per cent. on their wages. Mr. John Wister being away and knowing nothing of the strike until he came home on Monday and saw his men sitting around the station. After learning who the strikers were he wrote out their discharges, fifteen in number, and had them sent to the men. An advance of ten per cent. was made some time ago, which the company considered sufficient for the present. The strike causes all the works to lay idle. It is hoped that they will all come to terms and go on as usual.-Duncannon Record.

A Hard Case .- Mr. Samuel Comp, residing near this place, was unfortunate enough to lose a case involving quite a sum, in the Cumberland county court last week. The history of the case is this:

In 1868 Mr. Comp went to the Carlisle Deposit bank of which J. P. Hasslerwas cashier, and asked Hassler if they exchanged bonds there. Hassler said yes, and gave the old man four $500 and two $100 bonds in exchange for the 7-30's. Comp was about leaving the bank when Hassler called him back and asked him what he was going to do with his bonds ? He said he would take them home and leave them at the Perry county bank. Hassler then induced him to leave the bonds with him for safe keeping, saying that he would send him a check for his interest and the bank would be responsible, unless the bank was robbed or burned down. Comp left the bonds and Hassler sent the interest for six years after the bonds had been called in and redeemed by the government. Comp sued the bank, after Hassler's death, for the bonds. The bank set up the defense that Hassler, the cashier, and Smith, the teller of the bank, had conspired to rob the bank, and had so skillfuily manipulated the books of the bank that the directors could not have ascertained the fraud even with the greatest care. Judge McLean, of Gettysburg, presided in this case, as Judge Herman was a stockholder in the bank. The case was submitted to the jury on Monday evening, and they returned with a sealed verdict on Tuesday in favor of the bank. Judge Graham & Son and H. Newsham and W. A. Sponsler, Esq., of New Bloom-field, for plff.; Hays and Todd for deft. The loss to Mr. C. is quite a severe one, and though it may be law, the verdict seems to lack every element of justice.

Soldiers' Re-Union. -The fifth annual re-union of the sold lers of Perry county, was held at Liverpool on Thursday last. The gathering was not as large as it has ons, out everything passed off in a very pleasant manner. The town had been handsomely decorated and every arrangement had been made for the comfort of those attending, and the day passed off without any mishap to mar the occasion. The bands from Bloomfield, Duncannon and Millersburg, discoursed some excellent music. Owing to the heat and dust the parade was not as large as it would otherwise have been; but at 1 P. M. the procession was formed in the following order:

We Have the following from a correspondent at Shank,s Run Pa.

Wm. Aurand an employee of the P. R. R. Co., while going to work on Fri-day the 10th inst., was struck and instantly killed by an engine at the west end of Manayunk bridge. W. D. Cra-mer, Esq., train master at Mifflin, came to the place of the accident for the purpose of holding an inquest, but as some men that were working near by some men that were working hear by, saw the engine strike Mr. A., the hold-ing of an inquest was not deemed necessary. Deceased leaves a wife and three children.

Juniata County .- We copy the follow ing from the Juniata county papers of last week.

last week. On Monday evening, Wm. H. Fick-es, a brakeman on a freight train, in at-tempting to couple cars at the east end of Patterson yard was seriously injured. He failed to push the coupling pin en-tirely down and was walking along with the motion of the train. In endeavor-ing to cross a cow-ditch he was thrown down close beside the wheel and the box passed over him severely injuring his chest. He was brought to the Patterson House where his injuries were attended House where his injuries were attended to by Drs. Crawford and Banks. His home is in Harrisburg.

Cumberland County .-- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

A man named Leib, while assisting to load a freight car with ice at Captain Low's ice house at Laurel, on Thurs-day, had the misfortune to break one of his legs.

On Thursday, Mrs. Lydia Rheem (mother of Geo. W.), of Clearfield, had the misfortune to trip on a board and fall, breaking her right arm at the wrist. A physician was at once summoned, and the unfortunate lady, at last accounts, was getting along comfortably. Mrs. Rheem is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ma-tilda Woods.—" Herald."

Miss Ella Etter, at Bamp's mill, died early Friday morning of diphtheria, and her sister was immersed in the creek, which is near by, on Friday night, about midnight. Mr. Jacob Ramp, a neigh-bor of Mr. Etter has three children who are down with the diphtheria, but not dangerously lll.

While Mr. David Fogelsonger was threshing at Henry Stover's barn last week, a silver half dollar accidentally got into the machine from his pocket and knocked out some spikes. The half dollar came out slightly bent.

MAGAZINES FOR NOVEMBER.

MAGAZINES FOR NOVEMBER. LIPTINCOT'S MAGAZINE for November is equal to any of its predecessors in richness and variety of interest. "Later Pompeian Days," the concluding paper of "Rambles of Three," by Margaret Bertha Wright, is very amusing and capitally illustrated. The fifth chapter of provide the Sierra Madre, and gives an enter-taining glimpse of convent-life in the mountain-or Oswald's "Bummerland Sketches," de-scribes the Sierra Madre, and gives an enter-taining glimpse of convent-life in the mountain-ous region of Maxico. An article on Leadville, also well illustrated, will command attention, after all that has been published in regard to the "Carbonate City," by its copious informa-tion as to the value and prospects of the mines, is hints to investors, and its graphic account of the manners and habits of the population, at many other interesting articles. The source of the second of the second of the mainer, is cand it. PipPinCotT & Co., publishers, is and it. Market St., Philadelphis.

The November number of BALLOU's monthly magazine is issued, and can be found at all the newsdoalers' in the country, or if sent to sub-scribers at the low price of $1.50 per annum, postpaid. This is cheap enough for a first-class family magazine that contains so much interesting reading-matter as Ballow's, with its excellent illustrations, nice stories, thrilling sea-yaros, and first-class poetry. It is a serial for old and young, and no one can fail to find something in it that will interest and instruct. The December number will appear in new type, new form, and with many improvements. The contents for November are quite various. Published by THOMES & TALBOT, Boston, Massachusetts.

To the independent Democratic Voters of Perry Co.—Having been solicited by a number of my personal friends to offer my name as an independent Democratic candidate for the office of Jury Commis-sioner, I have consented to offer myself as a candidate for said office and most respectfully ask your support. If elect-ed, I will endeavor to perform the duties of Jury Commissioner with fidelity, and to the best of my ability. WM, KANE. Spring twp., Sep. 29, 1879.

The case of A. J. Burd vs. Penna. Canal Co., in which a verdict was ren-dered plaintiff as damages for injury to dered plaintiff as damages for injury to his boat from settling on a log in the bottom of the canal when the water was drawn off, and which was taken to the Supreme Court on a writ of error, and was argued at Harrisburg in May last, has been decided at Pittsburg, Pa. The Supreme Court reverses the court below, and don't gives new trial. By this the Canal Company wins the case.

this the Canal Company wins the case. Yesterday, while a horse belonging to Mr. Wright, a farmer from Fishing Creek Valley, was quietly feeding in front of Mr. Bower's smithshop, Elder street, near Broad, it had the lower jaw caught in the sharp hook of the double-tree, and in jerking its head suddenly from the trough, tore a deep gash into its lower jaw, from which the blood flowed profusely. Surgeon Watson, of Adams' Express Company's stables, was sent for and soon stopped the flow of blood.— Har. Patriot of the 15th isst.

John Lupfer's heirs will sell at public sale, 1 mile north-west of Bloomfield,on Friday, Oct. 24th, all their stock, farm-ing implements and household and kitchen furniture.

Mowing Wheat .- One of the farmers of Carroll twp., had a field of wheat so rank last spring, that about the 1st of May, he mowed it, raked it off and fed it to his cattle. Some of the neighbors thought he had ruined his crop, but the harvest showed that this was the finest field of wheat in this part of the State, not only in appearance but in yield.

Low Water .- We have never known the river to be as low here as it is now, and persons who have lived here 50 to 60 years agree that it is lower now than they ever saw it before. One can walk on dry land from the shore to the first pier of the railroad bridge, and between the main land and Nigger Island, a large branch of the river, not a drop of water passes down anymore, and one can cross from the shore to the island without wetting the soles of his shoes. -Selinsgrove Times.
