THE contractor who is working the quicksand out of the Gap on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Lancaster, has a hard time of it. The other day about thirty feet of wall sank into the tunnel, and disappeared from sight entirely.

A CIRCULAR has been issued by the Commissioner of Pensions directing that hereafter all claims on account of service after March 4, 1861, must contain the name of the soldier, State, regiment, company and number of claim or pension certificate.

DIPHTHERIA in Russia has taken the form of a plague. Its ravages are terrible. In Odessa alone seventy-six per cent, of the children have died from the disease since last May, and elsewhere in that district it has been equally

THOMAS J. BRADY, second assistant postmaster general, is estimated to be worth $5,500,000. He recently invested $30,000 in the stock of the Bell Telephone Company, which has advanced from $50 a share to $600 a share. He has bought for $35,000 the late residence of Hallett Kilbourn. There is no foundation for the report that he proposes to resign his office, but why in thunder he holds office is the wonder of all men who are less greedy than this mil-

THE COMMISSIONERS of Northumberland county have called a meeting of all the Assessors of that community for the purpose of adopting some standard of valuation to guide the Assessors in making their triennial assessment. This is certainly a sensible arrangement, and if adopted in this county would, perhaps, equalize the assessment in the different districts. As it is, there is a shameful discrepancy in valuations. We know of some instances where property worth twice the value of a property in this place is assessed at only one-third as much as the poorer property here.

Another Swindle.

We have received an advertisement from a New York firm calling themselves" bankers," who desire to make stock investments for country people, of small sums, which they guarantee to result in a fortune. These kinds of "ads" are invariably swindles, and even worse than lotteries. They call it dealing in "Puts and Calls." We suppose that means you are asked to put money in their hands and they will soon call for more. Our advice is don't "put" any money in these chaps hands.

The Census.

The formation of the Supervisors' distriets under the provisons of the Census act of March 3,1879, has been completed, except in regard to the States of Massachusetts and California, and approved by Secretary Schurz. The details are of interest for the reason among others that the appointment of Supervisors must be made in every instance by selecting from the applicants resident within the boundaries of the respective districts. These important offices, which will practically control the thousands of local appointments necessary for the work of taking the census, are to be filled by the 1st of January. General Walker says that in the formation of districts reference has been had solely to the exigencies of enumeration, date, geographical features of the States and to the existing conditions munication. The following are the Pennsylvania districts:

First district—Philadelphia county. Second district—Chester, Delaware and Laucaster counties.

Third district—Berks, Dauphin, Leb-anon, Northumberland and Schuylkill counties.

Fourth district — Bucks, Carbon, Le-high, Montgomery and Northampton

counties.

Fifth district—Columbia Lackawanna, Luzerne, Monroe, Montour, Pike Sullivan, Wayne and Wyoming counties.

Sixth district—Bradford, Cameron Lycoming, McKean, Potter, Susquehanna and Tioga counties.

Seventh district—Adams, Clearfield, Clinton, Cumberland, Franklin, Fulton, Huntington, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry, Snyder, Union and York counties.

Eighth district—Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Somerset and Westmoreland counties.

Ninth district—Allegheny, Beaver,

Ninth district — Allegheny, Beaver, Lawrence and Washington counties. Tenth district — Armstrong, Butler, Clarion, Crawford, Elk, Erle, Forest, Jefferson, Mercer, Venango counties.

Hesitating About a $1,000,000 Offer.

James Appleyard & Son, of Lansing, Mich., were offered $400,000 for their mining claim at Leadville, and refused it. The son dug a few days more and struck ore that brought out an offer of $1,000,000, and Mr. Appleyard, Sr., is scudding westward to see about it.

An Old One.

Benjamin Sharrock, who has resided not far from Gallon, Ohio, died on Sunday at the residence of his son William, a few North of Iberia. He settled in that part of the State in 1818. His exact age is not known, but is variously given at from 100 to 114. - Mt. Gilead

A Nice Servant Girl.

PHILADELPHIA, November 18.—Lizzle Livingstone, a domestic living in the family of Edwin M. Brooks, was arrested this morning charged with arson and robbery. The house in which she, lived was discovered to be on fire this morning, and after the flames were extinguished the theory of incendiarism was confirmed. Lizzie was arrested and a hundred dollars' worth of her employer's silverware was found in her possession. She denies having attempted to fire the house.

Destitute Lottery Victims.

Sioux City Journal says: Postmaster Kirk says it is perfectly astonishing the amount of money that is sent through his office to the lottery company at Louisvile, Ky., which advertises extensively through this section as the "Commonwealth Distribution Company." And in most cases the senders are poor people, who can illy afford to throw away their money in this way. Some families, who are actually destitute of clothing and food, will scrape together $20 or $30 and contribute it to the swindle. So far as known not a dollar has been received in return for the hundreds expended for tickets.

When the wedding guests at the residence of Robert J. Douglass, in Yonkers, N. A special from Leadville says that two prisoners, a foot pad named Steward and a claim jumper named Fradscham, were taken from jail last night and hanged. Great excitement prevailed. A plaeard around Fradscham's neck bears the following: "Notice to all lot thieves, banko thieves, foot-pads and chronic bondsmen for the same and sympathizers with the above class of criminals - This is our commencement and this shall be your fate. We mean business, and let this be your last warning."

D. Lothrop & Co.'s Fall Books.

No publishing house in the country is making more active preparations for the holiday trade than D. Lothrop & Co., and their list of announcements exceed in extent and attractiveness that of any past year. As usual, the strongest effort has been made in behalf of young readers, and the books offered for their delectation are as beautiful in their outside appearance as they are fascinating inside. Stories in prose and stories in poetry, funny stories, pathetic stories, stories in matural history and stories about people and places, delightfully written and charmingly illustrated, form a large proportion of the catalogue, while books adapted to the needs and capacities of older readers are not wanting.

Among the larger and more important books are Mr. Benjamin's American Artisis, an elegant quarto volume, filled with portraits of some of our most famous painters, with illustrations from their own hands, drawn expressly for the work; a second volume of Poets' Homes, brought out in the same manner, containing portraits and blographies of Holmes, Bryant, Emerson, Paul H. Hayne, John Boyle O'Reilly, and other prominent authors; a new edition of Out of Darkness into Light, a volume which a New York critic call "a rich work of art;" a red-line, quarto edition of Pilgrims' Progress. on plate paper, with 17

National Hymn, with several exquisite engravings and a sketch of the author.

Of the books for young people, prominent is Wide Awake Pleasure Book "F;" uniform with the five volumes which have preceded it, yet with a richer and more attractive table of contents than sither of them; Don Quixète, Jr., being a history of the further adventurers of Mililades Peterkin Paul; Miss Younge's Young Folks' History of France and Rome; The Dogberry Bunch; Royal Lourle's Last Year at St. Olave's; and Breakfast for Two, by Joanna Mathews. Others are in preparation and will be early announced.

But it is the children who have particular reason to feel grateful to Messrs. Lothrop, who have provided for them a list perfectly bewildering in its variety and attractiveness. One of the first books to tempt the eye of little pairons is Child Lore, a beautiful bound quarto volume with engravings and colored illustrations. It contains the Babyland Classics, old and new, with short rhymes and jingles, compiled and edited by Clara Doty Bates, and is good for all times and seasons of the year. Once upon Time, by Miss E. E. Brown, is a charming book of stery plays. good for all times and seasons of the year. Once upon a Time, by Miss E. E. Brown, is a charming book of story plays, illustrated of course, and bound in taking style. Then there are Stories and Pictures of Domestic Animals, and Stories and Pictures of Wild Animals, companion books, in large type, in chromo board covers; a new edition of Little Lucy's Wonderful Globe; Children's Funny Book, a big quarto, full of pictures; the Birthday Picture Book, with thirty full-page engravings and mottoes for each day in the month; and several "baby books," chief among them Babyland for 1879, Baby's Object-Lesson Book, and Baby's Portfolio.

for 1879, Baby's Object-Lesson Book, and Baby's Portfollo.

Unusual attractions are also offered in the little "Libraries" and "Series," The Wide Awake Library, containing the eight volumes of the magazine, ought to be in the possession of every family where there are children, and no cheaper or more fitting present could be made by parents than this. The Out of School Series, consisting of four volumes by popular writers, is a special attraction. Then there are the Merry and True series of 10 volumes; Little Chata with Little Folks, 6 books in a box; Baby Classic Toy Books; Favorite Quarto Toy Books; the Natural History Series and Stories, Chats with Little Folks, 6 books in a box; Baby Classic Toy Books; Favorite Quarto Toy Books; the Natural History Series and Stories, and Johnny's Discoverles, in three volumes.

The presentation book upon which the Mesers. Lothrop are bestowing particular attention, and which, from its peculiar character, ought to have special attraction for every patriotle American, is Dr. S. F. Smith's America, which for nearly half a century has served as our national hymn. It is brought out in large quarto form, magnificently illustrated and bound, and containing, beside the hymn, an illustrated sketch of the venerable author, who is still living. It would be interesting if we could know the various important occasions upon which this hymn has been sung since it was first written. During the war it exerted a wonderful influence at home and in the field in the way of strengthening patriotic feeling, and it has lost none of its popularity or power since. The volume which presents it is artistic and beautiful, and it should be found in the household of every true American.

The five handsomely printed volumes which constitute the Idic Hour Series, and which have put off their light summer clothing for tasteful put off their light summer clothing for tasteful cloth covers, claim the attention of all lovers of choice literature. They have all been warmly praised by the press, and in their cheaper form have had a large and steady sale. Their character is not ephemoral, nor are they simply intended as "summer books." One can enjoy the experiences of the "Two Girls who Tried Farming" by a coal fire as well as in a hammock, or the narrative of the trio who salled "Up and Down the Merrimae" when that famous river is frozen as well as now. "My Daughter Susan and Priscilla Hunter" are sceptable acquaintances at any time of year, and there is no particular season to be set apart for "Poor Papa."

quive special mention. The first, "History and Siography," containing five volumes, and "Famous Americans," containing the lives of Franklin, Bumner, Webster and Amos Lawronce. They are books which every boy should should read, and will be the better for reading. Another new book, "Waifs and their Authors," is now in prees, and nearly ready for issue. It will be in the regular quarto form, illustrated. Of new editions, prominent are Tarbox's Life of Israel Putnam, which has been materially reduced in price; "Sunshine for Babyland;" Pansy's three ever popular books, "Mother's Boys and Girls," "Picture Book" and "Our Darlings," all of them enlarged, and in choice bludings. The "Children's Almanac," which created such a sensation last season, should not be forgotten. It is one of the most useful and beautiful little volume ever brought out by the publishers, and is one of the most useful and beautiful little vol-ume ever brought out by the publishers, and is sold for hardly more than a nominal price. 'The World' for 1880.

Democrats everywhere should inform themselves carefully allke of the action of their party throughout the country and of the movements of their Republican opponents. A failure to do this in 1876 contributed greatly to the loss by the Democracy of the fruits of the victory fairly won at the polis

The year 1887 promises to be one of the most interesting and important years of this crowded and eveniful century. It will witness a Presidential election which may result in reestablishing the Government of this country on the principles of its constitutional founders, or in permanently changing the relations of the States to the Pederal power. No intelligent man can regard such an election with indifference. THE WORLD, as the only daily English rewspaper published in the city of New York which uphoids the doctrines of constitutional Democracy, will steadily represent the Democrat party in this great canvass.—It will do this in no spirit of servile partisanship, but temperately and firmly. As a newspaper The WORLD, being the organ of no man, no clique and no interest, will present the fullest and the fairest picture it can make of each day's passing history in the city, the State, the country and the world. It will aim hereafter, as heretofore, at accuracy of all things in all that it publishes. No man, however humble, shall ever be parmitted to complain that he has been unjusty dealt with in the columns of THE WORLD. No interest, however powerful shall be permitted truly to boast that it can silence the fair criticism of THE WORLD.

WORLD.

During the past year THE WORLD has seen its daily circulation trobled and its weekly circulation probled and its weekly circulation cushed far beyond that of any other weekly newspaper in the country. This great increase has been won, as THE WORLD believes, by truthfulness, enterprise, ceaseless activity in collecting news and unfailering loyalty to its readers in dealing with the questions of the day. It is our hope and it will be our endeavor that THE WORLD'S record for 1880 may be written in the approbation and the support of many thousands more of new readers in all parts of the Indissoluble Union of Indestructible States.
