Public Sales .- Bills for the sale of the following described personal property, have been printed at this office :

Saturday, December 20, 1879, John Wolf, will sell a tract of land containing 42 acres, situ-ated in Carroll twp., having thereon erected a house, barn and other out-buildings.

Brief Items.

##, Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Saturday. Letters received Mondaymorning scarce-iy ever get published.

This is Institute week. It is expected the attendance will be large.

Juniata county Teachers' Institute will be held on the 15th to the 19th inst.

Thanksgiving day was not observed in this borough, accept by the bank.

Mr. Luke Davis of Juniata Co., had and overcoat stolen on the night of the Soldiers' re-union.

Mr. Witmer of Pfoutz Valley recently sold 3000 bushels of potatoes in the Harrisburg market.

The streams and springs in this vicinity were never known to be so low. Millers can do but little grinding.

On Saturday a week W. H. Peterman of Miller twp., accidentally put a pistol ball through his left hand while cleaning his revolver.

Mrs. H. Gantt wife of Hon. Daniel Gantt, formerly of this borough, is at present visiting her many friends in this vicinity.

A. B. Howe, Esq., of Buffalo, recently married a couple who were in such a hurry they did not get out of the buggy for the ceremony.

If you want a bargain in a farm, see the advertisement of Jacob Harnish. It is a chance for a bargain as he has the western fever severely.

Chas. W. Spahr, of this place, had the the good fortune to "bag" a wild turkey on Thursday last, that weighed seven-teen pounds.

We are informed that Col. Sanford, who lectured here last Institute week, will deliver two of his interesting and instructive lectures in the Court House this week.

Preaching at Sulphur Spring Church by Elder J. Rodenbaugh, Dec. 18, at 6 p.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the post office of New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa., Dec. 1st 1879. Mrs. Rooth Dorrenborger, Mr. James L. Jones.

Persons calling for the above letters please say they are advertised. SAML. ROATH, P. M.

We Call Attention to the advertisement of J. C. Miller, on eight page. As a penman, he stands at the head of the profession. At the present time he is teaching a class of thirty-three at the Academy in this place, and, knowing the merits of the advertiser, we take pleasure in calling special attention to his notice.

A White Owl was captured on Friday last, by Mr. Darius Long near his residence in Centre twp. He broke its wing and then caught it alive and will keep it if the bird will ent. These birds are very rare in this part of the country, as they belong far North, and their appearance here is evidence of a severe winter. Several years ago, one was shot by Mr. Henry Souder, and that one we had stuffed and mounted.

An Accident .- On Saturday, as Jacob Swartz, of Centre twp., was returning from W.P. Delancy's sale, the colt he was driving to a sulky shied as he was passing over a breaker, causing Jacob to lose his balance and fall forward on the shafts. Before he could recover his seat, the animal made another spring, throwing the driver to the ground with such force as to stun him, the sulky wheel passing over his head, making on ugly bruise. He was found in the road insensible, and taken to the residence of Mr. Hollenbaugh, where he shortly revived, so that he was taken home .-Fortunately the injuries did not prove to be serious. The colt was soon caught, but not before he had broken the sulky to pieces.

Poisoning of an Infant.- Information has been received of the death of a six months' old child of Myer Huber, of Ephrata, Lancaster county, under suspicious circumstances. The occurrence was on Friday a week. The baby had been in its usual health when the mother fed it cracker soup, shortly after which it sickened and died. An examination resulted in the discovery of traces of poison, and the mother, who ate the remainder of the soup, now lies in a critical condition. The infant's stomach has been sent to Philadelphia for analysis. The soup was prepared by a step-daughter of Mrs. Huber-a young woman perhaps nineteen years-and it is alleged that she recently purchased arsenic at a drug store in Ephrata.

Since the above was in type the young woman has been arrested and placed in jail to await the result of the Coroner's inquest.

For The Bioomfield Times. MR. EDITOR—As little things make up the sum of life, so little items will help to fill your valuable paper. The Loysville Debating Society was well attended last night, considering the weather. The question before stated in your paper was discussed and decision riven in favor of the negative. The your paper was discussed and decision given in favor of the negative. The question for Friday evening next is; "Resolved that the love of fame is greater than the love of money." Affir-mative by R. W. Dromgold and Frank Hostetter; Negative by 'Squire New-comer and 'Squire Wolf. The Loysville "News" was read by the worthy editor, P. S. Kell. The pa-per was a very good one, filled with much valuable matter that gave credit to the editor and correspondents. The editor, knowing the importance of hav-ing plenty of news, says to the patrons ing plenty of news, says to the patrons of the "News," hand in your contributions.

startled by the news of the suicide of George W. Prece, a quiet, hard working man, who had lived there for some years.

A chicken thief in a tussel with David Zellers, near Shippensburg, whose hen-nery was about to be entered, caused the gun in Mr. Z's hands to be discharged, but no one was hurt. The thief and the gun went off about the same time.

On Friday last, while at work in the shoe factory, Squire DeHuff was taken with a fainting spell and fell, failing upon a knife he had in his hand and lacerating his neck. The cut was within a quarter of an inch of the jugular vein, we are informed.

The residence of J. B. Engle, farmer, near Churchtown, was recently entered by a man supposed to have been at one time employed as a farm hand, and $65 in money and a lot of clothing was carried off. The family was absent from home at the time.

Mrs Elizabeth Trout, residing on West Main street, on Thursday last, started to go down stairs with a lighted lamp and a pair of sciesors in her hand, when she tripped on the top step and fell to the bottom escaping with painful but not serious injuries.—Carlisle Mirror.

On last Thursday, while Assessor Eyster of Penn township was on his way home from Carlisle, something became dis-arranged about the coupling of his buggy, and the horse becoming frightened ran off. Mr. Eyster was thrown out, but with the exception of having the skin peeled off his face and receiving a few bruises, was not hurt. His new buggy was considerably demolished.

Shippensburg has a kuklux organiza-tion. Recently, one morning, the fol-lowing notice was posted on the front dobr of Dr. R. C. Hays, a prominent temperance advocate. It has a drawing of a coffin, skull, bowie knife and revol-ver, and the following words written on it: "Doe, Hays, you are a marked man. Beware! Order your coffin and shroud. No second warning. You are doomed." On the coffin was also inscribed; "Tem-perance Shrieker Hays." The doctor is not at all alarmed, says the "Chronicle."

not at all alarmed, says the "Chronicle." On Sunday last a most outrageous and brutal assault was made on the person of Katy Hickory, residing about one and a half miles south of Churchtown, on the South Mountain, by her husband, John. John is a German who earns a precarious livelihood by chopping wood, and splitting pine in the mountain; exposure and exercise having made him as strong as a bull, his muscles standing out from his arms like whip cords. Katy, his wife, is of Irish descent. Both have a weaknes for a little of the "cra-tur," and a semi-occasionally go into Churchtown and get boisterously brunk. On the occasion mentioned above, John On the occasion mentioned above, John returned from Carlisle tight and devilish, and accusing Katy of stealing five dol-lars; he dragged her from her bed and beat her mercilessly, tramping her, breaking several ribs, breaking her nose and collar bone, and bruising her from head to foot, that there is scarcely a square foot of her body that is not black and blue. Information was made against him, but as yet no arrest has been made. The people of the neighbor-hood are afraid to appear against him. He is a desperate character. His wife is not expected to live.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

Mrs. John Adams, mother of Mr. A. S. Adams of Walker township, was so unfortunate a few days ago as to fall and break a limb near the hip-joint. Mrs. Adams is about 77 years of age, and the mishap has affected her health quite se-vioually. riously.

A four-year-old son of Mr. Paden, of carora township, s leit alon the house while the mother made a short visit to a neighbor Abram Noss's family. While the mother was absent the child's clothing caught fire from the stove. The little boy ran out of the house on to the road, where he was met by Mr. John Woodward, who sprang out of his wag-on and wrapped his lap blanket around the child and extinguished the fire, and thereby saved the life of the unfortunate one.

Railroad was the title of an article read by Miss Alice Conrad. After singing No. 48 in Gospel Hymns No. 1, the Association adjourned to meet three weeks hence, (Dec. 12th.) in the Ref. Church, when Dr. Cisna of Ickesburg, will deliver a lecture on "The Effects of Alcohol on the Human System." All are cordially Invited.

A Pennsylvania Border Tale.

A Pennsylvania Border Tale. In the Philadelphia WEEKLY PRESS of date November 29 is commenced a thrilling Pennsylvania historical ro-mance, entitled "The Brady Brothers; or, Bald Eagle's Nest." Its scenes will be located on the West Branch of the Susquehanna during that bloody and troubled period immediately following the massacre of Wyoming, and "the great runaway." John Brady, his brave and stalwart sons, James and Samuel; Colonels Kelly and Plunkett, Queen Es-ther, Bald Eagle and other borders cele-brities of that time will figure promi-nently. The theme was suggested by the late Brady centennial celebration at Muncy, and is from the pen of Charles McKnight, author of "Our Western Border," "Simon Girty, the White Sav-age," and "Captain Jack, the Scout.",

FOR THE TIMES. Minutes of the Elliottsburg Temperance Association

In the absence of the President and both Vice-Presidents, the meeting was called to order by the Rev. J. M. Longsdorff. The rellgious exercises consisted of singing by the Association, reading of a portion of scripture by the Pres. Pro. Tem., and prayer by Mr. D. R. Smith. The minutes of previous evening were read and adopted. Letters from Rev. Weldler and Mr. Wallace expressing their acceptance of the invitation tendered them to address the Association, were read by the Secretary. Also one from the latter gentleman assigning the cause of his absence. The Constitution pre-pared by the Ex. Com. was read and after a few amendments and additions was adopted. The election of officers was postponed until next meeting. A short address was then delivered by Rev. Longsdorff, giving evidence of his enthusiasm for the cause. Black Valley
