KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

[A sure cure for spavin, splint, curb, callous, sprains, swellings, galls, lameness and all enlargements of the joints of limbs. It will completely remove a bone spavin without blistering or causing a sore. It is also a good for man as for beast and is used full strength all the time of the year, with perfect safety. A cure which we are knowing to be a person who suffered 15 years with hip joint lameness and was permanently cured two years ago with Kendall's Spavin Cure. Remember we claim it will cure a bone spavin and completely remove the bunch without blistering.

Statement Made Under Oath. To Whom it May Concern:—In the year 1875, I treated with Kendall's Spavin Cure a bone spavin of several months' growth, nearly half as large as a hen's egg, and completely stopped the lameness and removed the enlargement. I have worked the horse ever since very hard, and he never has been lame, nor could I ever see any difference in the size of the hock joints since I treated him with Kendall's Spavin Cure. R. A. GAINES, Enosburg Falls, Vt., Feb. 25, 1879. Sworn and subscribed to before me this 25th day February A. D. 1879. JOHN G. JENNE, Justice of the Peace, Office U. S. Marshal, Western Dist. of Mich., Kalamazoo, Apr. 14th, 1879. B. J. Kendall, Enosburg Falls, Vt.—Dear Sir:—I received the two bottles of your spavin cure forwarded by express in January last. I am happy to state that it performed all your advertisement called for. In three weeks after I commenced using it, the spavin was entirely removed and a valuable horse restored to usefulness. Very truly yours, JOHN PARKER.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives you a better view of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Drug-dists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists.

A Puzzler. "What are you puzzling over, Penso-by?" "I'm trying to answer a note from the "Dear Duchess," as you call her. She's done me the honor to write and ask if that St. Bernard pup I gave her should be fed on meat or biscuits."

"Well, biscuits, shouldn't it?" "Of course; but she spells biscuit with a k, you see, and I don't like to spell it properly for fear of hurting her Grace's feelings; and yet I don't want it to get about that I spell biscuits with a k."

"Say meat, then." "But she spells meat with two e's."

If the young man who insists on stealing kisses don't abandon the practice he will soon find himself behind the bars of wedlock.

Before marriage a girl frequently calls her intended "her treasure," but when he becomes her husband, she looks upon him as "her treasure."

Young wife marketing—I'm giving a small dinner to-morrow and shall want some lamb. Butcher—Yes'm; fore quarter o' lamb'm. Young wife—I think three quarters will be enough.

"Martha," said a new-made gran-ger to his wife, "we shall have lots of pumpkins next year. I planted about forty; had to dig awful big holes to put 'em in though."

When some one with bad taste raised a laugh against Foote on account of his halt step, he turned fiercely on his tormentor, and squelched him with the curt query: "Why attack my weakest part? Did I ever ridicule your head?"

On a certain American railroad a young man put his head out of the car window to kiss his girl good-by, when the train went ahead so rapidly that he kissed an aged African female at the next station. This is supposed to be the fastest time ever made on a railway train.

"Yes," said Jones, "I was at church to-day and enjoyed it profoundly." "Ah," remarked his pious landlady, "I didn't see you; on which side of the church did you sit?" "Ahem—ahem—well—yes—ahem"—stammered the disconcerted boarder, "I sat on the outside."

The smartest Newfoundland dog yet discovered lives at Haverhill, Mass. He meets the newsboy at the gate every morning and carries his master's paper into the house; that is, he did so till the other day, when his master stopped taking the paper. The next morning the dog noticed the boy passing on the other side without leaving the newspaper, went over and took the whole bundle from him and carried them into the house.

A boy from Honey Lake Valley, who for the first time in his life saw a military company out for a drill in Virginia City, with fife and drum, gave his mother the following account of his business: "A little man bowed on his squeal'n' stick, and a big man that stood beside him hammered on his thunder box, then the boss man pulled out a big long knife and shook it at the fellers what was standin' up in a long row, and they all walked off on their two legs."

Two young folks were talking about mistakes in courtship, when Uncle Job broke in with the declaration "that there was not any such thing, for," said he, "nobody ever makes any mistakes worth mentioning in courtship. It's after the courtship's over and the lovers have been married that the hurtful mistakes begin." "Well, uncle," said one of his nieces, "what's the moral of all that?" "The moral!" exclaimed Uncle Job. "What's the moral? Why, I suppose the moral is, keep on court-ting!"

A small boy with a big cent in his hand stood before a Michigan avenue grocery for a long time the other day before making up his mind to enter. When asked what he desired, he inquired: "If a boy should come here and get trusted for a stick of gum, how much would it be?" "One cent," was the reply. "And if a boy should come here with the cash, how much would it be?" "One cent," was the reply. "Just the same." "Then I guess I'll get trusted," quietly remarked the financier, as he slipped the cent down into his pocket.
