

The Bloomfield Times. HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

Taking out Stumps.

The editor of the Michigan "Farmer" lately witnessed the removal of stumps from a forty-acre field in East-Saginaw, in that State, by charges of giant powder, which did work not only effectively but rapidly.

Water for Cattle.

I often hear advice given to salt cattle often. Now, I believe that cows should have salt at least once a week—twice is really not too often—but care should also be taken that they have access to water.

Weaning Pigs.

The following plan was furnished for weaning pigs by a New Jersey farmer: when the pigs are a proper age to be taken from the sow shut them in the pen in the morning; let them out a little while at noon and again at evening.

Ice Houses.

In speaking of ice houses the Country Gentleman remarks that he never saw ice keep better than in an old board shanty, with inch boards for its wall, and an opening a foot wide all around under the eaves.

The editor of the Massachusetts Ploughman says he once visited a farm on the top of a high hill in New Hampshire that had been tilled so well and so long by the owner that not a single weed could be seen around his hoed crops, or around his barn the first of August.

A FARMER of some experience says that he has raised turnips with corn many years and has never had reason to suppose the corn crop was at all lessened by the turnips, for really they are not an interference. They make nearly all their growth after the corn is ripe.

Father is Getting Well.

My daughters, say, "How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters." He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable, and we are so glad that he used your Bitters.—A lady of Rochester, N. Y.

A PINT of mustard seed put in a barrel of cider will preserve it sweet for several months.

The Stomach is Strengthened, The Liver Regulated, the Bowels put in proper order, the Blood enriched and purified, and the nervous system rendered tranquil and vigorous by this inestimable family medicine and safeguard against disease, which is moreover, a most agreeable and effective appetizer, and a cordial peculiarly adapted to the wants of the aged and infirm.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.
