KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

Is a sure cure for spavin, splint, curb, callous, sprains, swellings, stalls, lameness and all enlargements of the joints of limbs. It will completely remove a bone spavin without blistering or causing a sore. It is also at good for man as for beast and is used full stringth, at all times of the year, with perfect safety. A cure which we are knowing to is a person who suffered 15 years with hip joint lameness and was permanently cured two years ago with kendall's Spavin cure. Remember we claim it will cure a bone spavin and completely remove the bunch without blistering.

Statement Made Under Oath. Statement Made Under Uath.

To Whom it May Concern:—In the year 1875 I treated with Kendail's Spavin Cure a bone spavin of several months' growth, nearly half as large as a hen's egg, and completely stopped the lameness and removed the entargement. I have worked the horse ever since very hard, and he never has been lame, nor could I ever see any difference in the size of the hock joints since I treated him with Kendail's Spavin Cure. R. A. GAINES. Enosburg Falls, Vt., Feb. 25, 1879.

63 A stage driver in the White Mountains when asked what he thought of the Notch, replied: "Well, I was born aroun' here, you know, and I don't mind it so much. But if I should go down to New York I reckon likely I'd gawk around considerable myself."

Sa At a public gathering recently in New York, a shoddy gentleman present was called upon for a speech, and this is how he responded: "Gentlemen an' women-I ain't no speecher. More'n twenty years back I came here a poor idiot boy, and now what are I ?"

& "Why, did Gen. Washington cross the Delaware during the storm of an awful night ?" asked a teacher of her young class in history.

"I reckon," piped a small voice in answer, "it is because he wanted to get on the other side." The teacher gave ber class a fifteen minutes recreation.

An English undergraduate at examination, on being told to repeat the parable of the Good Samaritan, thus did it: "A certain man journeyed from Jerusalem to Jericho' and fell among thleves." Then he stopped. "Go on sir." said the examiner. "And —"
"And what? Go on, sir," "And the thieves sprang up and choked him!" triumphantly ended the youth.

& An old Bucks County Dutchman rode down town in a horse-car for the first time last Wednesday. When the conductor called "Thompson street," the B. C. In one of the American regiments in Mexico there was a corporal who, when the roll was being called, refused to answer to the name of "Ebenezer Mead." The officer repeated the call.-No answer. "Is Ebenezer Mead on the ground ?" "Eben Mead is here," quoth the corporal. The " Ebenezer" was repeated again in a tone like a northwester. "Captain," quoth the rampant corporal, " your name is Peter Read; would you respond if you were called Peter-sneezer Read ?"

Hallo, Robinson! I haven't seen you since you had your glass eye put in. How does it work?" "To a charm," said Robinson. "Can you see with it!" queried the friend. "Well, you see that town clock; it's 22 minutes past seven, isn't it?" "I declare it's wonderful, isn't it? Why, it must be as good as the eye you was born with!" and the friend passed on, perfectly dazed with the scientific discoveries of the occulists. The fact that Robinson's other eye was not glass didn't once occur to

How you can Squelch Him.

In playing cards or other games if you have a partner who keeps saying "if you had played so and so," you can easily squelch him by asking him if he ever heard the story of Uncle and Aunt. If he has, he will take the hint, and if he has not and asks to hear it tell him "If your Aunt had been a man she would have been your Uncle.

The Cost of Keeping a Cow.

A witness in a case in court here the other day was asked whether he had much experience in and knew the cost of feeding cattle and to give his estimate of the cost of feeding a cow, to which he replied: "My father before me kept a dairy. I have had a great deal of experience in buying and selling and keeping cattle, as man and boy, in the dairy business for fifty years. I think my long experience has qualified me to know as well as any man can the cost of keeping and feeding cattle."

"Well," broke in the attorney, impatiently, "tell us the cost of keeping a cow. "Well, sir, my experience after fifty years in the business is that it costswell it depends entirely on how much you feed the cow."
