AT THE Editorial meeting held on Thursday last, it was decided to visit Watkin's Glen again. Places of Interest must be getting scarce, when it becomes necessary to go over old routes.

Terrible Death of a Little Girl.

A few days ago a little daughter, six year old, of Daniel Boncer, of Middle Valley, Wayne county, Pa., met a horrible death. A man who was in the employ of Mr. Boneer was chopping wood in front of the house, and the little girl was near him picking up chips. As the man was chopping his axe glanced, flew from his hands, and struck the child a glancing blow on the side of the neck, making a fearful gash and severing entirely the jugular vein. The child bled to death in three minutes. Had it been a direct blow, the child's head would have been entirely severed from the body.

Seventy Lives Lost.

LONDON, Jan 21. - A terrible explosion occurred in the Lycett Colliery, at Newcastle-under-Tyne, this morning at 8 o'clock. There were seventy-seven persons in the pit at the time. It is believed that not more than six of the rescued can possibly recover. Twenty-five of the corpses have already been brought up, a majority of them being so disfigured as to be unrecognizable. The few who were rescued alive are dying rapidly. The scene at the mouth of the pit is most heartrending. One of the recovered corpses had lost part of the head .--Some of the others were burned to cinders, while some appeared to have been killed by concussion. Gangs of volunteers are descending frequently. The part of the Lycett Colliery where the explosion occurred is known as the Fair Lady Pit, and is the same in which six men were killed last autumn. The coal belongs to the Badbury or fiery seam, in which all of the great Staffordshire explosions have occurred.

LATER .- Five more bodies have been recovered from the mine and twenty others have been found in the pit. They will be brought up to-night. Ventilation has been restored.

Three Rascally Tramps.

POTTSVILLE, January 22. - A daring tramp outrage was committed near Pinegrove on Tuesday afternoon. Two men named Jonathan Schultz and Jacob Zeigler, were digging a well on the farm of William Messersmith, and had gotten it about 20 feet deep. Schultz digging at the bottom, while Zeigler operated the windlass on the surface, when three tramps came along the road near by and stopped. One of them asked Zeigler for a chew of tobacco ; Zeigler handed him a plug, after biting off a chew, put the rest in his pocket. Zeigler remonstrated and a fight followed, in which all the tramps took part. Zeigler was knocked senseless with a club and robbed of a silver watch and a small amount of money. The tramps then broke up the windlass and threw the pieces, together with the bucket and rope, down upon Schultz, who was thus imprisoned, with no means of getting out. He set up a vigorous yelling for help, but it was an unfrequented spot, and there was no response. After some time Zeigler recov. ered consciousness, and, though badly beaten, made his way a quarter of a mile to the farm house, where he found assistance and sent men to the rescue of Schultz, who was found to be suffering from a severe scalp wound, caused by the falling timber. The neighbors organized a hunt for the tramps, but they could not be found.

had the presence of mind to fall down and roll over continually, by which means the flames that enveloped her were finally subdued, but she was terribly burned and became unconscious. The bright glare of the flames attracted a neighbor, who arrived upon the spot as soon as possible, but only in time to find Mrs. May and Miss Kate two burning corpses and Mrs. Herndon lying on the ground unconscious. Mrs. Herndon though still alive is in a very precarious condition, and but little hope of her recovery is entertained.

The Rev. A. D. Maderia of Kansas City is engaged to marry Mrs. Diggs. She is beautiful, accomplished, and a judge's daughter, but she is a divorced woman, and on that ground many members of Dr Maderia's congregation object to the union. The pastor called a meeting of his congregation, to consider the question. Arguments for and against the marriage were made by laymen and the clergyman in an impassioned speech maintained Mrs. Diggs' right to become his wife. A vote was not taken, because he intimated that he meant to do as he pleased, regardless of consequence.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21, 1880. No less prominent a Congressman than Speaker Randall says that when the new House rules are adopted, the appropriation bills will be passed speedily, and that neither financial debates nor anything else will be allowed to interfere. Senator Beck speaks to-day against Senator Bayard's greenback resolution. A few other Senators will follow him but the debate will not be long.

Despite some grumbling, the selection of Census supervisors seems to be a judicious one.

I hear no complaints that the appointees are not fit and competent persons.

This government has decided to recog nize the King of the Samoan Islands. Now does any first class statesman want a foreign mission ? If so ; now is the chance.

There was, last evening, an enormous meeting of the best citizens of Washington to provide means of a relief for suffering people in Ireland. A large amount was suscribed, and efficient agencies formed to secure further aid. The proposal that Congress shall appropriate half a million dollars as a relief fund meets with opposition and will hardly succeed.

Mr. Wallace R. White of Maine, must be considered in one respect a fortunate man. Accused of bribery, he refused to appear before the Fusian Legislature which investigated the case. Now the investigation is to be had before the Republican Legislature, but the witnesses against White are Fusionists and will not recognize the Republican Legislature by testifying before it.

Of all the public officers at Washington, I believe no one is more worthy of praise than assistant Secretary of the Treasury, John B. Hawley of Illinois. He has been in public life long enough to be so favorably known the praise seems to be superfluous. I speak of him now solely because nell. The earth is still cracking and is liable to sink at any moment.

This is the third time that the earth has sunk over these workings. Work has been stopped for several weeks past on account of an application for an injunction to restrain the owners from taking out the coal, as it supports the surface.

137 Methodism was introduced into New England in 1789 by Rev, Jesse Lee. It has now 1,000 traveling and 500 local preachers, 126,000 members, 1,500 churches, and 120,000 scholars in Sunday schools.

137 The family of Mr. Milas A. Secrest, who lives five and a half miles north of Monroe, N. C., has certainly been sadly afflicted. Every member of the family, nine in number, have had the typhoid fever this season, four of them having died within six weeks of each other.

13" A gold watch which had been lying on the bottom of Seneca lake, near Geneva, N. Y., for eighteen months was recently recovered. A man in towing a log through the eel grass saw something bright in the water and fished it up. It was a valuable watch.

The boys of Bismarck Dakota, had some fun at the expense of a frontiersman who came to town in search of a wife. They dressed a beardless youth in woman's clothes, and actually married him to the man, after which there was much drinking and festivity. The married man is now hunting for his wife.

Chief Justice Park charged rather against the Rev. Herbert H. Haydon last week, at New Haven, on the ground that Mr. and Mrs. Hayden were the only material witnesses for the defeuce, and because the murder of Mary Stannard had not been traced to any one else, except impliedly and very vaguely.

The jury finally could not agree and was discharged by Judge Park .--The last ballot stood eleven for acquittal and one for murder in the second degree. Counsel will move for Hayden's release on bail at the first opportunity. There is scarcely a probability of another trial. Hayden was warmly congratulated by his friends.

13 Joseph C. Waldo was instantly killwhile out hunting with a party of friends Tuesday morning, near Woodmanses, N. J. He was in the act of loading the sec-ond barrel when the charge in the other ex-ploded, tearing away the left side of his head and shoulder. ed by the accidental discharge of his gun, Library of Universal Knowledge.

Volume IV. of this great work, published by the American Book Exchange, New York, is ready January 15th, and volume V. will be issued about ten days later. They have been delayed somewhat by the printing of the large editions of the previous three volumes and the other publications of the house, their facilities for manufacture having been taxed far beyond their capacity. Removing January first to the Tribune Building, and to the large building No. 36 Beekman and No. 16 Spruce street, where their facilities will enable them to man-ufacture from 6,000 to 8,000 volumes a day. ufacture from 6,000 to 8,000 volumes a day the publishers expect to complete the entire work within the year, as announced. The volumes thus far issued being only the reprint of the last edition of the well-known Cham-ber's Encyclopedia, nothing more need be said of them than that they are well printed and bound; their form is vasily more convenient than the usual unitable constrict or content bound ; their form is vasily more convenient than the usual unwieldly quarto or octavo, and their price is cheap beyond all precedent in book making, so that to the uninitiated it is a mystery how so much can be given for a little money, but to the practical printer and book maker, who knows how the greatest element in modifying the cost of books is the number of buyers among whom the investment cost is to be distributed, the wonder would be not that the books can be made for the price, but that the number of buyers should be counted except by millions. Those who take pleasure in the dissemination of useful knowledge and choice literature will be glad to aid with their influence an enterprise so altogether wortby. The publishers will send any quantity of descrip-tive catalogues, to those who apply, for distri-bution among acquaintances.

Five Years experience with the sur-rounding trade has taught us the wants of the people. As heretofore we will continue to hold the lead, and give our customers the benefit of any extra bar-gins which can be picked up by Mr. Schwartz or other experienced buyers in the City. Three Victims of a Kerosene Lamp.

A fatal catastrophe occurred recently in Pittsylvania county, Va. Mrs. May, an aged widow lady living with her two daughters, one being Miss Kate May, a beautiful young lady, eighteen years of age, and the other Mrs. Herndon, a married lady, was placing a kerosene lamp on; the mantel, about eight o'clock in the evening when it was overturned, and an explosion followed. Mrs. May was enveloped it the flames in a moment. Mrs. Herndon and Miss Kate May ran to their mother's assistance, when the clothing of both took fire. The three ladies rushed into the yard. Mrs. May and Miss Kate continued to run round in a circle screaming and praying loudly for help, until they both fell dead in their tracks, completely suffocated and most frightfully burned. Mrs. Herndon he is widely named as the probable candidate for Governor of Illinois, to be elected next fall.

His experience in Congress as well as in his present office, shows that his party could not do better, while his taking away from Washington will be a serious loss to the present administration. OLIVE.

Fifteen Thousand Houses Destroyed and 15000 People Homeles, and 100 Lives Lost.

YOKOHAMA, January 3 .- Public attention is entirely absorbed by a disastrous conflagration in Tokio, December 26, the third similar overwhelming calamity in seven years. Miles of ground were burnt over, 15,000 homes destroyed and 50,000 persons rendered destitute. The actual pecaniary loss is undetermined, but is not co great as it would be in western countries, owing to the cheap construction of houses.

The loss of life is put down at about one hundred. The number, however, is quite uncertain, many in the rapid progress of the flames having been overtaken and destroyed, and of which no vestige remains. As happened on two previous occasions of great fires, a considerable portion of the foreign district was destroyed, including several missionary establishments, one church, and the office of the foreign newspaper, the Tokio Times. The United States legation was in danger, but fortunately escaped unharmed.
