"The better the day the better the deed," says the proverb, and yet a deed made on Sunday is no good, in law.

er Poet-"Do you want any of my blank verse?" "No, we don't want any of your-verse," said the editor.

65 One Sammy Snowden, was a noted colored preacher in Boston forty years ago. His discourses were original and amusing-his prayers especially so. One evening he concluded a prayer with: "Lord bless every body, 'ceptin de brudder who put de jackass cent in de contribution box.

$3 A Delaware man arrested for murder, proved that on that night, and at the hour of the murder, he was at home whipping his wife, and this fact saved him. A word to the wise is, and so forth.

An eccentric preacher who had married a couple the other day in the city, finished the ceremony by saying: 'I now pronounce you man and wife, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls."

"If you marry Grace," exclaimed an irate father to bis son, "I will cut you off without a cent, and you won't have so much as a piece of pork to boil in the pot." "Well," replied the young man, "Grace before meat," and he immediately went in search of a minister.

A young man writes us asking 'how long girls ought to be courted?" If he really wants any advice on this subject we would say, court her just as you would a short girl," and if you don't know how that is, bring us the girl and we will show you, that is if she is pret-

A young girl occupied one of the front chairs at the entertainment in an Opera House. A snobbish young man with a face showing considerable assurance and accompanying two young women, tapped her on the shoulder and blandly inquired:

"Would you mind taking seat at the door, ma'am, and give these two ladies a place at the front, so that they may see good ?"

She looked up into his face and inno-

An Astonished Wench.

Some of our worthy colored brethren of the Baptist persuasion had a baptism down at the creek last Sunday, and the ceremony attracted a very large crowd of people. Mrs. Pitman's colored serant girl was very anxions to be n and as it was not her Sunday out, she slipped away from the house while the dinner was cooking, and went in her working clothes. Her interest was so intense that she stood close to the minister, who was in the water while the ceremony proceeded. After six or seven had been dipped, the clergyman, filled with enthusiasm, seized her and pulled her into the water. She resisted, but the minister imagined that she was merely afraid of the coldness of the water, so before she could explain the situation, he soused her .-She came up spluttering, and exclaim-

"What you doin? Lemme go, I tell you !" But he exerted his strength, and sent her "ker-chuck" below the surface again. She emerged, clawing the air wildly and shouting :

"G'way from here! Don't you chuck me under again, you nigger!" But the clergyman was inexorable, and he plunged her under a third time, and held her there for a minute, so as to let it soak in and do her good. Then she came up and struck for the shore, and standing there, looking like a draggled mermaid cut in ebony, she shook her fist at the astonished pastor, and shrieked:

"Oh! I'll fix you! I'll bust the head offen you, you or nary trash! sousen' me in dat dare creek and nearly drownded me, when you know well enough all de time dat I'se a Methodist, and bin chrissened by dem dat's yer betters, and knows more about religion than all de Baptisses dat ever shouted, you mis'able black scum | and me got the rheumatiz enough to set me crazy! Oh, I'll see what de law can do for you! I'll have you 'rested dis very day, or my name's not Johanna Johnson, you woolly-headed herrin'! You hear me?"

Then Johanna went home to re-dress, and the ceremony proceeded. Miss Johnson is now persuaded that the Baptists are not any better than pagans.
