

A Case of Swallowing a Pin.

About ten weeks since Annie Elizabeth, an eleven months' old daughter of Reuben Sapp, residing at 32 Bank street, Baltimore, became restless and fell away from a plump, rosy infant to a weak, puffy creature whose death was daily expected.

Dr. Gaitley had attended the little sufferer some time previous for impurity of the blood, and when a small red spot appeared on the body near the groin a week or two ago he was again summoned and prescribed as before.

The mother of the child followed the doctor's instructions, and a few mornings ago, while washing and dressing the sore, she felt a small, hard substance at the apex of the affected part.

Mrs. Sapp touched it with her thumb nail, and, to her amazement, drew out an ordinary pin. The secret of the child's indisposition was out, and since it has been relieved of the cause of its ailment it has rapidly improved.

The saving of the child's life [adds the Baltimore News] may be attributed to the fact that the pin had worked its way out head foremost.

A Strange Case.

Mrs. Cora E. Jones, of Fulton, Oswego County, N. Y., is said to be in a trance. She apparently died on Tuesday night a week, having been long ill of consumption. Preparations for the funeral were made on Thursday, but so lifelike was the countenance, and the lower limbs and arms being still pliable, the relatives decided she was not dead.

LATER—On Thursday last the woman was buried.

Destructive Fire in Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 10.—A fire broke out this morning, about 4.30 o'clock, in the county clerk's office, City Hall building. The entire interior of the building is consumed, leaving the massive marble walls only standing.

No estimate of the loss is at this time possible, although it will not exceed $100,000. The judgment records, chattel mortgages and records of proceedings of the supervisors are destroyed.

A shocking story comes from Birmingham which shows how thankful we ought to be that Edison has not yet invented the electric light. It appears that at the Holte Theatre a large chandelier was lighted by a number of electric lamps.

Mv. and Mrs. Holberg made it lively for four burglars at Cambridgeport, Mass. Holberg caught up a hatchet when he heard the robbers in the house and chased two of them into the street. Mrs. Holberg locked the other two in a room and yelled "Murder" until they jumped from a window fifteen feet to the ground.

Fees of Doctors.

The fee of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $5.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone!

CATARRH.

BROCKVILLE. C. B. LITTLEFIELD & Co., DEAR SIR:—I have been troubled with Catarrh in all its forms for the last 20 years, and have used all remedies recommended to cure, but received little or no benefit, until I tried the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. I have only used one bottle and a half, and I am so much better that I can say it has cured me. My daughter-in-law has also been afflicted for the last four years. She is now using the remedy with the same result. I can truly say it is a wonderful medicine, as I know from experience that it will cure any case of Catarrh. I formerly lived at Napoleon, Ont. Hoping that you will introduce the medicine through the Dominion thoroughly, so that my fellow sufferers may have an opportunity of getting cured of this disease. Yours respectfully, NELSON SHOREY.

N. B.—I have always been subject to headache; since taking the Constitutional I have not been troubled in the least. It will cure headache in two or three hours. N. SHOREY. 3w2m.
