The Court has decided that Mr. Spangler has a $300 interest in the hole where Dr. Sweeney's building once stood. It was never supposed to be a dangerous place till Spangler made the discovery, and we suggest that as such discoverer, the hole should belong to him, and he ought to remove it.

ought to remove it.

There are however hundreds of places in the county more dangerous, and it would be good policy for the proper au-thorities to care for them, if this decision is to be recognized as sound law.

Banquet to Judge Junkin .- The Hunting don Globe of last week says: A testimonial banquet was tendered Judge Junkin at the Leister House on Saturday night by the members of the Huntingdon bar. There were about thirty persons present, and the festivities were kept up until almost twelve o'clock. Speech making and the usual pleasantries were indulged in, and last, but not least, all partook of a sumptuous repast specially gotten up for the occasion by Mr. Leister. It was a pleasant affair and one long to be remember by all who participated. Among the guests was Judge Orvis, of the Centre district. Judge Dean could not be present.

[Reported by Chas. H. Smiley, Esq.] Court Proceedings. - On Wednesday of last week, the 18th inst., an interesting case was argued before Judge Bucher, in the Court House.

Some time since the borough authorities of Bloomfield contracted for the building of an engine house on the vacant lot forming the South East corner of the public square. At the instance of Hon. C. J. T. M'Intire, who is the owner of an adjoining lot, an injunction was issued by Judge Junkin to restrain the Borough authorities from the erection of the building. The position taken by the plf., was, that the lot upon which the proposed building was to be erected, had been dedicated to the public for the location of a market house, and that the had been dedicated to the public for the location of a market house, and that the authorities had no right to pervert it from the particular purpose of its dedication. Upon the other side it was contended that the dedication was to the Borough of Bloomfield; the fee vested in the corporation and if there was no necessity for the erection of a market house that the Borough was not compelled to hold it as a vacant and value. house that the Borough was not compelled to hold it as a vacant and value-less lot but that they could use it for such purpose as they saw proper until the necessity for the erection of a market house became apparent. Very able and exhaustive arguments were made by the counsel on both sides. His Honor holds the case over for consideration and will file his opinion hereafter. Seibert and M'Intire for plff. Barnett and Sponsler for deft.

Seibert and M'Intire for plif. Barnett and Sponsler for deft.

On the same day his Honor Judge Bucher read an opinion upon the reserved point in the case of Spangler vs. The Borough of Bloomfield. It will be remembered that in this case the defendant who was a stranger, fell into su excavation about 5½ feet deep on the premises of Dr. Sweeney on the Southwest corner of the public square on the 2nd of March, 1878, by which he received very severe injuries. The pavement where the accident occurred was at that time of the required width, and in good condition, but there was no guard or barrier to prevent persons from falling condition, but there was no guard or barrier to prevent persons from falling over. Upon the trial of the case it was argued that there was no negligence on the part of the Borough, because the excavation was on private ground and it would have been trespass to have invaded private premises to erect a guard or railing, while to have placed it within the required width of the pavement would have been to expose the Borough to an action for damages by any person who might have been injured thereon.

The jury were instructed that it was

The jury were instructed that it was the duty of the Borough to have protected the side walk, but the question whether it was the duty of the Borough authorities under the circumstances to place a guard or a barrier there for the protection of the traveler using the pavement, and whether they were guilty of negligence in not doing so was reserved a point of law for the judgment of the Court. Under the instructions, the jury found a verdict of $300 for Plaintiff. A motion was made for a new trial. Upon the reserved point his Honor in an elaborate and very careful opinion decides that under the circumstances in this case, the Borough was guilty of negligence in permitting the pavement to be unprotected by guards or barriers, and overrules the motion for a new trial, and directs judgment to be entered upon the verdict.

At M'Clure's Gap a few nights ago a cow beloaging to Mr. Reigleman hung herself by some means with the chain to which she was attached.

Sheriff Thompson offers $25 reward for the arrest of Edward Amber, who escaped from prison last Friday morning between one and two o'clock, by scaling the wall. A good riddance. He was only confined in jail for costs.

Hon. Andrew G. Miller, of Shippens-burg, died at his residence in that place on Saturday night, aged about 70 years. His death was caused by paralysis al-though he had been an invalid for many

One night last week as 'Squire Hemminger was returning from church he missed the road and ran into the fence, breaking one of the wheels of his buggy all to pieces, which, fortunately was the only harm done.—Volunteer.

On Saturday night between ten and eleven o'clock our citizens were startled by the cry of fire. A rush was made toward the engine houses and the bells were rung, but the discovery was soon made that the fire was out of town, and in the direction of Mt. Holly. We learned since then that the fire which caused the alarm, was the wagon shed and cornerib of Mr. C. H. Mullin at Mt. Holly, and that it was without doubt set on fire. The loss was comparatively light and without any insurance.

On Tuesday last Mr. John Bashore's team of six horses became frightened at the rattling of a log chain and ran away. The rare presence of mind and steady nerve of Mr. B. alone prevented what might have been a terrible accident. On the same day a two horse team owned by the Rev. Simon Shumbarger, ran by the Rev. Simon Shumbarger, ran away and threw the reverend gentleman into the Conodoguinet creek. A man who saw the whole affair, secured the horses and hastened to the relief of Mr. S. (who by this time had reached dry land) and was pleased to find him all right, having suffered nothing but a "complete sousing."

"complete sousing."

On Sunday night some one without the fear of the law before his eyes, broke a window in the rear of Ahl's warehouse at the crossing of East Main street and South Mountain railaoad, occupied by C. Inhoff, agent for the sale of coal oll. Once inside of the building, a fire was kindled against a partition and the fire bug slunk away. The next morning the paper and charred sticks were found scattered over the floor. The feed for the warehouse cat was usually thrown in the corner where the fire was started which accounts for the scattering of the kindling; but whether the cat scattered them after the fire went out or before it is not known. It is hard to imagine why anyone would desire to burn this property, but equally certain that there is some candidate for a long term in the penitentiary lurking about town. penitentiary lurking about town.

Employment For Ladies.

The Queen City Suspender Company of Cincinnati, are now manufacturing and introducing their new Stocking Supporters for Ladies and Children and their unequalited Skirt Suspenders for Ladies. None should be without them; our leading physicians recommend them, and are loud in their praise. This manfacturing establishment is managed by ladies who have made the wants of ladies and children a study, and they ask us to refer them to some reliable and energetic lady to introduce them in this county, and we certainly think that an earnest solicitation in every household would meet with a ready response, and that a determined woman could make a handsome salary and have the exclusive agency for this county. We advise some lady who is in need of employment to send a postal card to the Company, with her name and address, and mention this paper. Address, Queen City Suspender Company, Nos. 147 & 149 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.
