KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

Is a sure cure for spavin, splint, curb, callous, sprains, swellings, galls, lameness and all enlargements of the joints of limbs. It will completely remove a bone spavin without blistering or causing a sore. It is also as good for man, as for beast and is used full strength, at all times of the year, with perfect safety. A cure which we are knowing to be a person who suffered 15 years with hip joint lameness, and was permanently cured two years ago with Kendall's Spavin Cure. Remember we claim it will cure a bone spavin and completely remove the bunch without blistering.

Statement Made Under Oath.

To Whom It May Concern:—In the year 1875 I treated with Kendall's Spavin Cure a bone spavin of several months' growth, nearly half as large as a hen's egg, and completely stopped the lameness and removed the enlargement. I have worked the horse ever since very hard, and he never has been lame, nor could I ever see any difference in the size of the hock joints since I treated him with Kendall's Spavin Cure. R. A. GAINES. Enosburg Falls, Vt., Feb. 25, 1879. Sworn and subscribed to before me this 25th day February A. D. 1879. JOHN J. IRVINE, Justice of the Peace. Office U. S. Marshall, Western Dist. of Mich. Kalamazoo, Apr. 15th, 1879.

B. J. KENDALL, Enosburg Falls, Vt.—Dear Sir:—

I received the two bottles of your spavin cure forwarded by express in January last. I am happy to state that it performed all your advertisement called for. In three weeks after I commenced using it, the spavin was entirely removed and a valuable horse restored to usefulness. Very truly yours, JOHN PARKER.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, or for our knowledge, for best as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. A Disgusted Officer.

Among the many curious stories told about the old frigate "Constitution" is the following: On board the "Guerriere," when captured was Lieutenant (afterwards Admiral) Chads. Ill-luck put him on board the "Java" when she was crippled and sunk. Years afterward, Lieut. Chads having become captain and admiral, found himself lying along-side his old enemy in the harbor of Toulon, Commodore Patterson in command. By some great oversight in firing a salute, the guns of the "Constitution" were left shotted, and the missiles were sent wildly among the peaceful shipping among others reaching the English flag-ship, and killed several.— Tradition says that Admiral Chads rushed on deck, and rather impetuously remarked, "D—that old ship, I believe she will never stop firing at me!"

Clerical Jokers.

Two young men were chums and intimate friends in college. One became a Baptist minister, the other an Episcopalian. They did not meet again for years. When they did it was in the pulpit of the Baptist, for whom the Episcopalian preached, to the great satisfaction of the congregation. Sermon over, the two divines ducked their heads behind the breastwork of the preaching desk and held the following colloquy: "Fine sermon, Tom: much obliged. Sorry I can't repay your kindness for preaching by asking you to stay to our communion. Can't though; you know, because you have never been baptized." "Oh, don't concern yourself about that Jim; I couldn't receive the communion at your hands, as you have never been ordained."

The Best Diamond Out.

"Jerusher," exclaimed her true love (it was in Bridgeton, Conn.) "Jerusher, what'll you take for that gold ring o' yours?" "Well, I don't know, Jeremiah," said she; "you know it's 18k." "Just let me have it," pleaded Jerry, "and I'll send you a diamond for it tomorrow; as good a one as there is anywhere."

Honest injun, Jeremiah?

"No mistake." He captured the ring, and just before he started for Texas next morning, he sent her the jack of diamonds, bearing this inscription: "If diamonds are trump, this is the best diamond out. Amen."

Wanted Her Affirmative.

He asked her for her photograph.— She excused herself with some kind of a story about her negative being lost, and another would have to be secured, &c., when he interrupted her rather warmly with the remark:

"What do you suppose I care for your negative, Carrie? It's your affirmative I've been after these six months!"

She said nothing, but kind o' turned up the whites of her eyes, and he—well, it is no body's business what he did. It is only necessary to say that he started for the tailor's first thing next morning, and she—why she has done nothing but try on all sorts of things ever since.

"Are you fond of game?" asked Belida's husband, sticking his fork into the canvas-back. Mrs. Codington did not answer for a moment. It was clear that the query had called up recollections of the past. Looking up, with a smile perambulating around the deep ruts Old Time had worn in her kindly face, she said: "When Daniel was alive we used to have a good rubber of what now and then; but as for your new fangled games, such as eureka, cabbage and physige, I'm too old to learn any of them. But don't mind me, Theodore; if the young folks want to play, let them; I would be the last to interfere with any of their harmless recreinations."

When the triangle had called the meeting to order, Brother Gardner arose with his usual sleekness, and said: "Gem'ten, if it wasn't for de wheels on a wagin, de wagin wouldn't move. When de wheels am on, den what?" "Grease!" the old man Toots solemnly exclaimed.

"K-rect!" whispered the President softly, rubbing his hands together; "We hez the wagin an' de wheels; we'll now pass de hat round for de grease!"

It is said that two Presbyterians, two Baptists, two Universalists and an active Jew recently met and conversed on theology together without quarrelling in Boston. The reason they did not quarrel in Boston was because they were in New York.
