The cry of fire on streets on Thursday afternoon last, was caused by the burn-ing of the roof on the stitchen attached to the house of Mr. Wm. Clouser. Had the fire been discovered five minutes later, it would have been impossible to have saved the property, as there was a high wind prevailing at the time. This is second narrow escape this property has had, and from the same cause—a de-

Geo. Spahr, Esq., Geo. S. Briner and Capt. Mickey, have greatly improved their properties located on Carlisle street. Dr. Strickler, Wm. Tressler and Adams' Bros., are making extensive improvements in their residences on Main street. Wm. H. Sponsler, Esq., is also building a large addition to his residence on West Main street. W. H. H. Mc-Clintock will soon have his house completed on East Main street.

The Duncannon Record says: On Monday as some boys of this place were playing in Mr. J. S. Steel's woods they kindled a fire, which, driven by a brisk wind soon spread to the surrounding leaves, when a large scope of valuable timber was destroyed before the fire could be subdued. From the general appearance, the young miscreants must have retired rather hastily, leaving their booty in the rear; consisting of numerous playthings, berries, etc.

Mrs. Levi Leopard, wife of one of the feeders at the Chesapeake nail works, dropped dead Wednesday afternoon. Deceased resided in Bailey's row, near the nail works, and during the afternoon went to hunt her little child. She was told that it had been seen going up Front street and she hurriedly ran up the street after it. When near Dock street she fell over on the pavement and expired instantly from heart disease.

The Millersburg Herald says: A double clandestine wedding between two young ladies from Lykens and two gentlemen from Liverpool, has awakened a stir of indignation among the friends of the fair brides, which may terminate rather unpleasantly to the contracting parties. The lesson taught in this affair is another admonition first to get the consent of indulgent mothers. consent of indulgent mothers.

Monday last Dr. H. O. Orris, assisted by his student, Mr. Jas. Seibert, performed the difficult operation of reducing the disjointing of the elbow of a little daughter of Mr. Heneman, of Carroll twp., at the Miller hotel. Some weeks since the child had its arm broken by a fall, and, by some cause or other, it was not noticed that the elbow was out of joint at the time the broken bone was set, and the dislocation was not adjusted. The arm had grown crooked, and in order to straighten it the doctor had to place the little one under the influence of ether. The operation was successfully performed.—Newport Ledger.

Not Very Serry .- We are requested to publish a long tribute of respect, and requested to do it free. If the lodge is not sorry enough to pay for the notice, how can they expect us to publish it, or do they wish to be sorry at our expense? Our charges for such notices are 5 cents per line, and if not sorry enough to pay that sum, we guess the affliction is not

How to Write for Newspapers .- 1. Have something to write about. 2. Write plain; dot your l's; cross your t's; point sentences; begin with capitals.— 3. Write short; to the point; stop when you have done. 4. Write only on one side of the leaf, 5. Read it over, abridge and correct it, until you get it into the shortest possible space if you have time, if not, the editor will do it for you.

Run off .- As Mr. Geo. Wright and wife of Wild Cat Valley, were returning home from a visit to James E. Stephens, in Buffalo township, on Sunday evening, they stopped at Mr. Daniel Hilbert's, in Howe township, for supper. When supper was about half finished the horses became loose and bid good evening to Howe and Buffalo townships, and started across the mountain at a 2.40 gait, ran home through the mountain, and all the damage done was the fracturing of several of the bows in the cover of the spring wagon.-News.

Sudden Deaths .- On Wednesday of last week the family of Mr. Chas. Shrader were called to mourn the loss of a loved little girl, in the second year of its age, from a sudden attack of membraneous croup, and while the remains of the little one on Thursday were being deposited in their last resting place, another, an interesting little boy, in the fifth year of his age, died of the same disease. Both, it seems, were aggravated cases, which baffled all efforts employed for their relief.— Waynesboro Rocord.

Badly Hurt.—On Tuesday last, while Richard Thomas and Jim Thomas of Centre twp., were wrestling, Richard fell in such a manner as to produce a rupture of the bowels and also the rupture of an artery. Dr. Strickler was sent for and succeeded in reducing the hernia after much labor. For a time however it was thought there was no hope of saving his life, and a lawyer was called in to make his will and his sister was telegraphed for, but the chances now are in favor of Dick's Dog Laws .- If anybody is attacked on any highway by a dog the party has a right to kill the dog, and the owner can be called accountable for any injury inflicted by the animal. Even on the premises of the owner of a dog, should a party be attacked and injured, after endeavoring to protect himself, the owner can be made responsible for damages inflicted, provided it can be shown that at the time he was in pursuit of business or on a friendly visit. If a dog by barking at passing vehicles occasions any damage, its owner is liable for the loss sustained. Thus the law very properly affords ample protection for loss or injury caused by dogs. This information is published because there are many viclous dogs kept throughout the county.

A Marysville Romance.- A constable from Marysville on Monday arrested in this city a married man named John C. Balsley, charged with conspiracy in attempting to seduce from her home in Marysville a young girl aged about 16 years. From what can be learned of the case the girl was at one time in Balsley's empley as a domestic. It is alleged that his attentions to her created discord in his family, and the buxom domestic was discharged. After she went home she kept up a correspondence with the married man, and together they laid plans to elope to Baltimore, on last Sunday the married Lothario to go to Marysville for that purpose. The parents of the girl however, intercepted a note from Balsley to the girl, and the whole plot was exposed. They locked her up, and when her inamorata appeared on Sunday he had to content himself with wandering about the town. The parents made information before Justice Fenn at Marysville and Balsley was arrested. A hearing was had at Marysville yesterday, and Baisley was bound over to appear at the Perry county court .-Harrisburg Telegraph.

One day last week Mr. Henry Shots-berger, of Turbett twp., while engaged in making a wooden pin was so unfor-tunate as to cut off his left thumb with an axe. Dr. Woods Sterrett was summoned and replaced the thumb, and although the thumb is very painful, yet it is healing as rapidly as could be expect-

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers

A wedding took place in this county not long since, the united ages of the bride and groom being 140 years. The only persons present during the ceremo-ny were the surgeon and undertaker; but like the duel which came off in Delaware a few days ago, between two Philadelphia youths, the services of neither were required, as the affair was entirely bloodless.

An infant son of David Low, of Middlesex twp., became very ill about two weeks ago, the disease being pronounced pneumonia. The little fellow refused nourishment and it was thought he would die. The mother, a few days ago, would die. The mother, a few days ago, inserted her finger into his mouth and as far down the throat as she could and brought forth a ring, since which time the little fellow has been improving.—
The ring was recognized as belonging to another member of the family.

On last Monday morning Mr. Emanuel Richwine, of Boiling Springs was taken suddenly ill while pumping water from the cistern. Some neighbor women happened to notice him tottering and hastened to his relief. He was taken into the house and Dr. Gray called, who pronounced it partial paralysis. The muscles of the right side of the face throat, together with arm and leg were found to be paralyzed. He has partially recovered, but not able to attend to his duties.

About two years ago our young friend Wm. Gephardt, son of the late Jacob Gephardt, stepped on a piece of glass which penetrated his foot, and barring a slight cut, was unnoticed by him until a few days age, when his foot began to get sore and pain him. Under the surface of the skin was a hard substance, which he picked at but was unable to remove. Dr. Krise was called in' and on examining the foot discovered a piece of glass about three-quarters of an inch in length. The Doctor extracted it in a short time, and the sore is now healing nicely.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Thesday evening, about 6 o'clock, Jos.

Tuesday evening, about 6 o'clock, Jos. Haverstick, eldest son of J. B. Haverstick, druggist of this place, aged about stick, druggist of this place, aged about 12 years, started in company with Jas. Sharp, Park and James Moore, and others, to the "pike pond," for the purpose of bathing. After undressing and entering the water, Haverstick got beyond his depth, and not being able to swim, Park Moore proceeded to his assistance. He told Haverstick to lay his bands upon his (Moore's) shoulders. Instead he caught him by the neck and hands, and overpowered him. Moore succeeded in freeing himself and returned to the shore. Samuel Jordan, a colored lad, happening to be there, returned with Moore. Both got hold of him but in the struggle the feet were pulled from under Jordan, and Moore leaving go his hold, young Haverstick was carried to the bottom. Word was conveyed to the the bottom. Word was conveyed to the the bottom. Word was conveyed to the parents at once, and measures taken to recover the body. Parties with seines and drags proceeded to the spot, and, after five or six hours' work, were successful. The sympathy of the entire community is with the parents in their sad affliction. Truly it can be said, "In the midst of life we are in death!"

FOR THE TIMES. Political Straws.

MR. EDITOR—SIR:—I am well aware that you are not publishing a political paper but I have no doubt your readers will be interested in reading the following report of a correspondence held be-tween the New York Tribnne and fifty voters of the County. Shortly after the Republican State Convention I received a circular from the Tribunc office containing a postal card, on which I was requested to write my first and second choice for President of the United States. I complied with the request and this week I required an experience of the United States. week I received an extra copy of the Tribune containing the names of fifty voters in this county with their first and second choice for President. They are as follows:

Newport—First, Blaine; also that of nine-tenths of the Republican voters of Perry county. The mass of the people of this county don't want a third term man. H. Smith. First, Blain; second, Washburne. William

First, Blaine; second, Washburne. Milton

First, Blaine; second, Washburne. Jackson

Rhoads.

First, Washburne; but I have no doubt the Republican party of this State is overwhelmingly in favor of the nomination of Blaine. The instruction for Grant was a cheat, and if he is an honorable man he will not accept a nomination obtained in such a way. Joseph Walls.

FOR THE TIMES.

This seems to be a good season for the school teachers. Select schools are flourishing in all parts of the county. This is an encouraging sing of improvement. Prof. W. E. Baker of Eshcol has a school of forty students representing several towns and townships. It is nothing unusual to hear young men and ladies talk of studying History, Literature and Philosophy. The Professor can teach, drill and awaken enthusiasm in the work of the school room.

Prof. Boyer has a flourishing school at Markeville. No less than four schools—all well patronized—are in successful operation in Newport. Prof. J. S. Campbell, the successful principal of the Newport schools for the past five years, is leading the list with nearly fifty scholars. He is a solid, carnest and faithful educator. Professors Stephens and Smith, and Miss Howe deserve and are receiving good encouragement in their respective schools. Does any other town in the county maintain four select schools?

A new sign of improvement fell under our four select schools?

A new sign of improvement fell under our observation as we passed along one of our public thorough fares a few days ago. A row of choice apple trees lined either side of the road on the farm of Ross Hench in Tuscarora township. In this way Mr. H. finds room for more than 200 trees, and confers a favor on the traveling public. Hope his example will be imitated. It would make our roads beautiful, and fruit abundant.
