KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects, and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.
DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure was most satisfactory. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.
Respectfully yours,
N. P. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880.
B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure. One very large one; don't know how long the Spavin has been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is now as good as at all, and no bony growth to be seen. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great.
Respectfully yours,
P. S. PARKER.

It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for least as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors.

DOE-SKINS. Our Stock of NEW GOODS for Men's Wear is complete.—Prices from 12 1/2 cent up.
F. MORTIMER New Bloomfield, Pa.

You will never hear an old fellow quote the maxim, "The good die young." It would give the old chap away.

A witty lady being asked her opinion about moustaches, replied, "I have always set my face against them."

A disagreeable old bachelor says he wants to go to heaven, where, according to report, there is no marrying and no giving in marriage.

An observing visitor to a Southern plantation having noticed an entirely tailless cat enter a hole in a corn-riek backward, asked a colored agriculturist if he knew the reason of that singular mode of ingress. "Why, yo see, boss," was the reply, "dat are cat use to go inter dat hole headfirst, just like any udder cat. But one day de terrier dog, who had been layin' for him a good spell, made a grab at him as he was gwine in, an' bit his tail squar off. An' ever since dat ar cat goes into dat hole hinefirst, so de terrier dog can't bite off his tail again."

Naming The Boy.

"My wife hez jes' presented me wid de fues' boy in dis country," said Black Bill, entering a Little Rock magistrate's office, taking off his hat and slinging perspiration from his brow with a crooked forefinger. "Yas, gen'elmen," he went on, "de fines' chille I ever seed. An' I've jes' got a $20-gold piece right heah ter gib ter de man what can guess what I hez named him. Ter keep yer frum spredin' ober de whole universe ob names I'll state dat bits a Bible name."

"Abraham?" guessed some one.
"Nor sah."
"Paul?"
"Nor sah."
"Job?"
"Guess again."
"Nocodemus?"
"Keep er comin'."
"Abimelech?"
"Try me again."

The guessing ceased after a time and finally Bill remarked:
"I've named that boy Judas Escarut."
"What!" said the magistrate, "Judas betrayed our saviour?"

"Can't hep hit. Dat's de boy's name. Judas hez been slighted. Nobody hez ever had de immoral courage ter name a chille fur dat man. Bot dat aint de main reason why I names him Judas. I've got de Bible ter stain me in gibin de chille dat name."

"How does the Bible sustain you in desiring to perpetuate that name?" asked the magistrate.

"Hits dis faok. Chris' in remarkin' ob Judas said dat hit would hab bin better fur dat man ef he hadn't bin born."

"Well."
"An considerin' how many moufs is opened at de doo' when I goes home wid a side ob meat, it would hab been better fur dat boy ob mine ef he had neber seed de daylight. I knows what I've a talkin' about. I take de scriptur frum de references. In de futur ef I finds dat de boy hez made a improvement on hisself, den I'll change his name ter Jim."

A Queer Christening.

A Savannah correspondent has been visiting a colored Methodist Church down south. The minister read the first line of a well known hymn, "God moves in a mischievous way," instead of "mysterious," and a later line "Judge not the Lord by feeble saints," instead of "sense." It was communion Sunday, and they took up a collection. For three quarters of an hour they sang and danced, while the people deposited their nickles—very slowly, for they have little money and less confidence in those that receive it. At length the minister became impatient, and shouted: "We has got to raise $5 mo', an' I tell ye now, ye won't get a mite o' sacrament till ye've raised it," and the $5 were forthcoming. After the communion service came the baptizing of infants. When one mother was asked what the child's name was, "Cuffy Austin," was the answer. "Cuffy!" exclaimed the minister, with some anger; "What do you gib your chille such a name as dat for? Cuffy ain't no name 't all! Don't neber gib a chille no such nickname; he'll be 'shamed on it as soon as he knows anything." Again he inquired the name, and the woman was mad, and flung out: "Cuffy Austin!" The pastor took the child in his arms, sprinkled some water on its head, and said: "I baptize thee, Cuffy Austin, in ignorance," and that was all the christening that baby received.
