

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. E.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Nov. 10th, 1879, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing stations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and New York with corresponding times.

Pittsburg Express leaves Harrisburg at 10.15 P. M. and arrives at Pittsburg at 1.00 A. M.

Brief Items.

Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Saturday.

Huntingdon had three slight fires last week.

The extreme heat caused deaths in many parts of the country last week.

Decoration day was not observed in this place.

The past month has been the driest May for thirty years.

John H. Shibley, Esq., of The Advocate, has gone to Chicago to help put political matters into proper shape.

Many farmers have had to replant their corn, as so much failed to come up, owing to the dry weather.

Nice showers passed around us on Thursday evening. At Sterretts Gap, and several other places some hail fell.

The Lutheran Congregation of this borough have placed a fine toned organ in their church.

A fine cow belonging to G. W. Kochenderfer in Carroll twp., had her leg broken a few days since. The loss is rather a serious one to Mr. K.

It is seldom such hot weather is experienced in May. For several days the mercury was from 90 to 94 degrees in the shade.

Judge Noss of Duncannon is troubled with visits from poultry thieves. They have made him two visits in the month past.

The lightning melted the top of the rod on a Mr. Londins' barn, in Berks county, last week, passed down through it and killed four of his cows.

Mr. Jacob Eberly fell from the threshing floor at Mr. David Yoter's in Penn township, Cumberland Co., last week and had an arm broken.

We understand the Lutheran congregation of this place purpose holding a Festival in the Court House yard on Tuesday evening of next week. We wish them success.

Duncannon. The Record says, is without a tax collector. Happy town! Here you can hardly throw a stone without the risk of hitting a tax collector or an office seeker.

A correspondent of the News makes great complaint of the conduct of a Centre twp., party who went to the Millerstown dam fishing on Saturday a week. He claims their conduct was indecent.

During the thunder shower on Wednesday evening a cow and horse belonging to Daniel Rider, in Oliver twp., were struck by lightning and killed. They were in the stable at the time.

The storm of Wednesday evening blew down a maple tree about a mile this side of Newport which fell on the telegraph wire, tearing it off of some of the poles.

A four year old son of Newt Rhinehart, of Millerstown, fell on Sunday night, landing on the hard floor, and sustained a fracture of his right collar bone, which was properly adjusted by Dr. Dean.

The County Commissioners on Saturday a week, let the filling up of the Oliver twp., approach to the new bridge across the Little Buffalo creek at Newport, to William S. Mitchell, Esq., of Oliver township, at twenty-five cents per cubic yard.

A new time table went into effect on the Pennsylvania railroad Sunday a week. The new change does not effect the time of any trains stopping at Newport, except the Way Passenger, which now arrives at 9:14 A. M., instead of 9:08, as heretofore. The Chicago Express west, a new train, stops at Newport, when flagged, at 1:17 P. M.

Monday last, Charles Shively, teamster for J. C. Barrett, while hauling bark from Lime Ridge, Miller twp., had the misfortune to have the hind wheel of the wagon, loaded with 2,850 pounds of bark, run over his left foot. He managed to deliver his load at Bechtel's tannery, when the wagon and team was turned over to another driver.

During a storm on April 4th, in Adams county, a board pile was blown over, part of it lodging against a fence. Just thirty-seven days after, the boards were removed, and a turkey hen was found imprisoned between the pile and the fence. The hen could not walk when first taken out, but soon recovered and is now none the worse for her long fast.

The Railroad Contractor that was expected here several weeks since is now here, and a few days will determine whether our citizens have any enterprise or are only merely fossils, who are contented to live without a railroad because their ancestors did. A meeting is to be held by the old officers to-night, to discuss the matter.

Book Leave.—A refreshment sociable will be held at 8 P. M., on Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian S. S. Room for the intermediate and older members of the school and for all persons who desire to become members of the Week-Day Library Club. Those not members of the School pay 25 cents per quarter, and all are requested if they can to bring some useful and entertaining book to add to the library for the coming quarter.

Leg Broken.—Monday last, Mrs. John M'Connell, aged about seventy-four years, of Montgomery's Ferry, in returning from a visit to her mother-in-law, fell in the road and broke her right thigh. Dr. Thompson, of Liverpool, attended the sufferer. She had been under the doctor's care for about a year, and had just been able to be about when she met with this injury. At her age the accident may prove a very serious injury, if she ever gets over it.—Ledger.

Wanted a Drink.—A blind horse belonging to Mr. John Blessing, was left standing unhitched in Carroll twp., a few nights ago. The horse was very thirsty and hearing or smelling the water started for it. The result was the wagon and horse was dumped off the bridge the load consisting of furniture, flour &c., was badly demoralized. The horse would also have been drowned had he not been helped out. The loss was nearly $50.

Died on the Cars.—A young foreigner who had come to this country with his two sisters in search of fame and fortune, died on the cars near Columbia, on Wednesday morning. The young man was ill from overwork when he boarded the train at New York. At Philadelphia he became so much worse that a bed was made for him in the car.—When the train was nearing Columbia he rose in his bed, took one last look at the fair earth and fell back dead. The sisters were terribly grief-stricken at their loss. They remained at Columbia with the body.

Indians at Carlisle.—Spotted Tail, Red Cloud, American Horse and White Thunder and other chiefs, on a visit to the Indian school at the old barracks, are highly delighted with the management of the institution, except in one particular—the rule providing for the punishment of serious misbehavior by imprisonment in the guard-house being distasteful to them.

The meeting of the chiefs who have children in the school with their offspring was very affecting. Two Strike, who has two boys in the institution, and Spotted Tail, who has four boys and one girl there, warmly embraced their children and shed tears of joy. Yesterday morning the chiefs were conducted through the several school departments and gave the exercises the closest attention.

School Warrants.—The Harrisburg Patriot says that State Treasurer Butler has determined to honor all school warrants as fast as they are presented for payment, numbered from one to a thousand. As the School Boards make their reports to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, warrants are drawn in their favor for the amounts due them and numbered in the order of the reception of the reports. This method offers a premium to prompt reports. The appropriation to schools is $1,000,000 a year, and of the amount appropriated for 1879, it is proposed to pay about $450,000 before stopping. The County Superintendents and certain pupils in the State Normal Schools have received nearly $100,000 of the annual appropriation.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

Some miscreant attempted, last Wednesday night, to burn the public school house on East Louther street, Carlisle. The incendiary had built a fire under the cellar stairway which failed to ignite the building and was found smouldering on Thursday morning. No damage was done, although the building was filled with smoke.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Samuel Croft, residing on East Main street, near Washington, in Shippensburg, while walking in the yard attached to their residence, stepped upon something that caused her to fall, which resulted in her breaking the ankle bones of her left leg. She lay on the ground for over half an hour before she could make her unfortunate situation known.

On Tuesday evening as Adam Billman was descending the hill near Doubling Gap mill, the line with which he was driving broke. The horse started off at a furious rate, and was not caught until below the store. The occupants of the wagon were unloaded rather unceremoniously, and the corn and rye with which he was loaded was delivered at all points along the way.

Three Carlisle young men have been arrested at the instance of Chief Burgess Guswiler, of Mechanicsburg, for indulging in fast driving in the "burg" on Sunday. Right.

A two horse team belonging to Mr. Jas. Boeler, ran away last Thursday, demolishing the buggy to which they were attached. A buggy owned by Mrs. Penrose which happened to be in the way of the fleeing horses was also damaged.

Tuesday evening from five to eight hundred men and women, members of the Dunkard Church, met in a grove ten miles south of Mechanicsburg, for the purpose of indulging in a Love Feast. The occasion was one of unusual interest, as being the meeting before the summer's work, usually held by this sect as one of encouragement and prayer for the success of the harvest of the year. Preaching and an abundant collation made up the great features of the occasion.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

Joseph Hersh, residing in Milford township, has a living chicken that has four legs, two of which, however, the fowl does not use.

Mr. Minch, the Perry county well borer, is in town engaged in boring wells. He bored one on the Jacob Beidler property, and deepened the well in front of Jeremiah Lyons' house, last week, and is now boring one at the Lutheran parsonage.

On Saturday night last, some unannounced scamps, broke into the spring house of Amos Stouffer, in Walker twp., and took four loaves of bread and about ten pounds of butter. On Sunday morning Mr. Stouffer had to call on his neighbors to furnish him with bread and butter to do over Sunday.

Last Tuesday morning the wife of Mr. Samuel Bousinger, residing in Licking Creek Valley, had occasion to go to the creek that flows near her house to get a bucket of water, and while in the act of stooping to dip the water she fell in head foremost, and drowned before assistance reached her. A large family of children mourn her sudden demise.

On Thursday of last week, Mr. Geo. Koons, captain of the canal boat The Trader, while bathing one of his horses which was suffering from an attack of colic, was kicked in the stomach by another horse, inflicting serious injuries.—The accident occurred at Mexico, but Mr. K. went with the boat as far as Newport, where he was compelled to remain until Monday, when he was brought to his home in Millin on the cars. His condition is very precarious.

It was the most fortunate turn for Mr. Beidler that the tubing of his well was so put out of condition that it could not be used, and that therefore he was compelled to sink a new one or do without water. The new well is one of the marvels in this county. At the depth of 76 feet the drill struck an opening, and it went down into the water to the depth of 20 feet without striking bottom. It seems to have struck a subterranean lake of water. A pump has been put into the well, and all the men in town cannot pump it dry.

Loysville Items. MR. EDITOR:—We don't intend to boast, but some of your townsmen have been commenting on their fine big babies, and we claim Loysville ahead in that line. Columbus Minch and wife are the happy possessors of a new daughter that weighs eleven pounds and two ounces. When you hear that let us hear from you. Our town is quiet this week, with the exception of the horse and cattle dealers, who are common in this place. Yours truly, OCCASIONAL.

Good Company, Number Nine, Has its usual full complement of stories, by Miss Sarah O. Jewett, author of Deephaven, Sydney Hall, and others.

Lord Beaconsfield's recent defeat at the polls lends special interest to Mr. Geo. M. Towle's graphic sketch of his career, which gives much readable information about the late premier. "Science in High Latitudes" "Country Schools and State Needs," and other interesting articles.

In the Editor's Table there is an assault on the growing public nuisance the system of feeling servants, a graft from foreign toadyism not wanted in this country. Send for a specimen copy.

Every one will find a general tonic in "Linsey's Improved Blood Searcher." All druggists sell it.
