KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger,

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans Distri Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.
St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. R. KENDALL, & CO., Gents: — In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I produced a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring bone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Soavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours.

P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1850.
B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself. I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure." one very large one: don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no brunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what It has done for me in sale will be very great.

Espectfully yours.

CHAS. E. PARKER.

A Queer Courtship.

One long summer afternoon there came to Mr. Davidson's the most curious specimen of and old bachelor the world ever heard of. He was old, gray, wrinkled and odd. He hated woman, especially old maids, and wasn't afraid to say so. He and Aunt Patty had it hot and heavy whenever chance threw them together; yet still he came, and it was noticed that Aunt Patty took unusual pains with her dress whenever he was expected. One day the contest waged unusually strong, Aunt Patty left him in disgust, and went out into the garden. "The bear!" she muttered to herself, as she stopped to gather a blossom which attracted her attention. "What did you run away for?" said a gruff voice close to her side. "To get rid of you."

"You didn't do it, did you?" "No: you are worse than a burdock

"You won't get rid of me, neither."

" I won't, eh ?"

"Only in one way." "And that ?"

" Marry me!" "What, us two fools get married? What will people say ?" "That's nothing to us. Come, say yes or no! I'm in a hurry." " Well, no, then." "Very well, good-by. I shan't come
