Mr. Sam'l Sanderson, a former resident of this borough, now of Saxton, Bedford county, is at present visiting his friends in this vicinity.

Some persons will commence cutting clover this week. The crop is much better than was feared would be owing to the dry May.

A horse belonging to Mr. Geo. Koons died one day last week. Mr. K. purchased the horse recently at a cost of $112. It is quite a loss. — Port Royal Alexander M'Afee was considerable hurt by falling from the porch of the hotel at Montgomery's Ferry, on last Monday. The accident was caused by his being "light headed."

A large quantity of bark has been wagoned down the valley this season.— A still larger amount of bark, lumber etc., would go down and bring cash back If we had a railroad.

Mr. Geo. S. Hackett, formerly a resident of this borough, was married in Harrisburg on Thursday evening last, to Mrs. Dr. Rutherford. They have gone on an extended wedding tour.

son of M Jesse M'Kee, was kicked by a mule, the blow striking him on the elbow, shat-tering the bone, but fortunately inflict-ing no dangerous injury.

During the terrible thunder shower of Thursday night a tree on the Clark farm north of this borough was struck and torn into kindling wood. Some of the pieces were thrown fifty rods.— This is the fourth tree that has been struck with lightning this season, within a radius of 300 yards.

The East Pennsylvania eldership campmeeting will be held on the grounds of the C. V. C. M. Association (same place as last year) near Newburg, commencing on the 11th and closing on the 19th of August next.

A horse belonging to Mr. Harry Sny-A horse belonging to Mr. Harry Sayder in the upper part of the county was taken sick on Tuesday, when near this place, and for a time he expected to lose the animal. He was, however, so much better on Wednesday, that he was able to get him home by leaving his load here.

The dreaded army worm which has been committing such ravages in Dela-ware has appeared in two places in Chester county. It is operating on both wheat and timothy. A more extended desciption of the worm and its ravages will be found in another part of this paper.

Flour and Feed for Sale at Sheaffer's Valley Mills, Perry Co., Pa., at LOWEST CASH PRICE. WILL A. LIGHTNER.

Mr. Henry Lupfer, sen., formerly of this borough, now residing in Juniata twp., has recently placed new headstones to the graves of his grand parents Jacob and Anna Lupfer, in the old burial ground in this place. Jacob Lupfer emigrated to this country from Wittenberg, Saxony, in the year 1757. He donated the ground on which the Reformed and Lutheran Churches now stand, also the land comprising the old grave yard.

A singular and very fatal cattle disease has broken out in Lancaster county. The cows all appear healthy up to the moment of being attacked with a spasm and appear to be in great pain, and after turning round and round in a small circle for several times, they drop down and never get up again, some of them lingering for a whole day before dying. The cow doctors have been unable to discover the cause of the disease or give any relief.

Didn't Count 'em. - A little five year old son of Mr. James B. Clark, of this place laid down and went to sleep on the steps in the Court House, during the time the Lutheran festival was being held, while his mother supposed he had gone home. After it was over the building was locked up and the little chap was not noticed. During the night he woke up, but could not get out, and so laid down and went to sleep again. At daylight he found his way out by removing the inside bar of the door. After this Mrs. C. will be apt to count the children before going to bed, to see that they are all in.

A Mean Trick .- Some people do very mean tricks and think them sharp .-One such trick is putting an old stamp on a letter and dropping it in the post office thinking to cheat the government out of three cents. Several such letters have been sent to the dead letter office from here recently. To use such stamps is a felony, and might get the person in great trouble. The last letter dropped with such a stamp was directed to Mr. John Cramer, Mansfield, Richland Co.,

An Interesting Exhibition will be given In the Court House on Tuesday evening of this week that will not only interest but amuse and Instruct. The great Biblical Clock that is really one of the world's marvels, will be one of the features of the entertainment. This of itself is worth more than the price of admission. In a short article of this kind it would be impossible to describe its wonders, but you should go and see it. This part of the exhibition is followed by the laughable play of Punch and Judy, and taken altogether the entertainment is one that promises more interest than is usually put into one evening, for 15 cents.

Arm Broken .- Mr. and Mrs. Daniel K Smith, of Oliver township, were visiting her father, Mr. Bickel, near Elizabethville, Dauphin county, last week, and on Monday morning Mrs. Smith arose in advance of her husband, and in descending from their bed-room to the apartment below, she in some way slipped, her foot caught, or she made a mistep, just as she was starting down stairs, and falling was precipitated head-long the entire distance to the hall on the first floor, resulting in the breaking of her left arm. She also sustained serious internal injuries by the fall. Mrs. Smith is past the meridian of life, a lady of large bodily proportions, which make the misfortune just cited doubly distressing, and those who naturally are most anxious about her have grave fears that she may not recover .- News.

Sustained. - The Juniata Herald says: we learn that Judge Junkin was sustained in every case that had been appealed from the Juniata Court to the Supreme Court. There were only four appeals taken, viz:

Fink's appeal; McGlaughlin's appeal; Vanart vs Lauver;

Parker vs Sulouff: and in all four of them, after exhaustive arguments from the appellants, Judge Junkin's rulings were affirmed. This speaks most creditably for His Honor, and demonstrates the fact that he is one of the safest and most correct Judges in the State, and emphatically "the right man in the right place."

About dinner time to-day, as the hunger of guests at the Grand Hotel were being satiated, there was an encounter in the barroom between the bartender, Lute Arnold, and Monahan, in which the latter was severely worsted; Monahan entered the saloon and called for a drink, when a controversy arose regarding a former visit. Monahan applied some very severe epithets, when Mr. Arnold stepped out and the struggle commenced. Mr. Arnold put in the blows in quick succession and vigor, and Monahan presented a horrible sight. No complaint being made the men were given their liberty. - Daily Evening Times, Leadville, Colorado, Thursday, May 27th.

Mr. Arnold was formerly a clerk at the Thudium House, in Carlisle, and is a native of 'this county.'

If you cannot come to town and want a pretty Lawn dress, Laces for trimming &c., send for samples, to F. Mortimer.

Another Warning .- Monday afternoon, Bowmandale was the scene of a sad accident in which a ten year old son of John Aholtz paid the penalty by losing his life. The actual facts of the affair we were unable to obtain, but as near as we can learn from our informant, Peter Laux in company with Aholtz, were handling a pistol when by some mishap the trigger was caught in a part of Laux's garment, discharging the entire contents in the body of young Aholtz, who died immediately. The funeral services were held at the residence of his father, Thursday afternoon. Within the past two weeks three cases of similar description have come under our notice in which death was caused by the careless use of fire arms in the hands of children. So many precautionary notices have been placed before the people, and with such unfortunate reward, that we do not feel disposed to speak further .- Dillsburg Bulletin.

> FOR THE TIMES. Western Letter.

DENVER, Col., June 1, 1880.

MR. EDITOR:—As I am a lover of news, and like to see them in The Times, and from old Perry, I will once more ask a small corner in your paper. I spent the winter in grand Kansas, but this spring dried me out; so I left for other quarters and the first thing I knew I landed in this place. I can't say what the next move will be. I dried out in Kansas, and I suppose will freeze out here. It snowed here on the 7th, 9th, 25th and 31st of May; how is that for high? The sight is grand here; you see the Rocky Mountains with peak after peak towering up thousands of feet, white with snow. We have a grand view of Pike's peak, it is the highest of them all, at least I think so; perhaps, the little school boys know better. Denver is ten miles from the foot of the DENVER, Col., June 1, 1880. ver is ten miles from the foot of the mountains, on a level country. It has a population of 38,000 or 40,000. It is business here, every person is in a bustle. The streets are daily crowded with all business here, every person is in a bustle. The streets are daily crowded with all kinds of wagons and men on foot. There is any amount of work here. Bricklaying takes the lead; we get $4.00 per day; stone masons, 3.50; carpenters are plenty at 2.25 to 2.50. There is plenty of laboring work and plenty to do it. They get from $1.75 to 2.25; hod carrying, 2.50. Boarding is from $4.50 to 7.00 per week. Clothing and groceries are about the same as in the East. Boots and shoes are high; a pair of common boots from $7.00 to 14.00. Common shoes from 2.50 to 8.00. You can hardly tell Sundays from week days here; stores and saloons are open, and some masons and carpenters at work. All kinds of hauling is done, and last Sunday I saw a family move. Beer is the choice of the people here, and a large number get a skinned nose and a black eye. There is no end to the fights here, and worst of all they shoot and knife. Some think if I only could leave Perry and go west all would be well. I must say if you can get 50 cents a day and board, stay east; it is not home here. The air is very light, and breathing is sometimes difficult. Denver is 10,000 feet above the sea level.

Yours truly.

D. P. W.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

Our townsman, A. DeHuff, Esq., of the First ward, whilst out walking on Sabbath last, was seized with a fit. He was discovered by some gentlemen and taken home.

The ceremonies attending the corner stone laying of the new Reformed church at Bloserville yesterday, were greatly marred by the sudden illness of Mr J. Wesley Mountz. As the first hymn was being sung he was seen to siak away and carried to his home in an insensible condition. At this writing (Monday morning) he is in a critical condition.

Some time since during last Sunday night the store room of Mr. S. C. Noak-er, No. 9, West Main street, this borough was entered and robbed of a number of hats, boots, shoes, etc. The party ef-fected an entrance by breaking the glass in the transom over the rear door, and forcing back the bolt, which held it in position, and then crawling in at the opening. Mr. Noaker cannot estimate opening. Mr. Noaker cannot estimate his exact loss, but his loss in hats alone is not less than fifty dollars, and in boots, shoes, etc., it is considerable. We trust the miscreant will be overhauled and have justice dealt out to him in a large measure.—Newville Enterprise.

The residence of Dr. D. D. Hayes, sit-The residence of Dr. D. D. Hayes, situated on Normal Avenue, opposite the Normal School at Shippensburg was totally destroyed by fire with all its contents on Friday night of last week. The loss is estimated at $6000 upon which there is an insurance $1500 in the Lurance France Fran there is an insurance $1500 in the Lurgan Fire Insurance Company of Franklin county. The work was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary as the family were all away, the house being shut up at the time. Shippensburg for some time, has been very much afflicted by "fire bugs" and we liope to hear of a full invoice of them being brought to our iail before long. jail before long.

Court Proceedings .- Compared with the last few years, the June term of the Orphans' and Argument Courts which were held last Tuesday would indicate a falling off of business. There was little business of general interest transacted and a session of five or six hours was sufficient to do the work. The following cases were on the argument list, and disposed of as hereinafter stated.
