KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE! THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a fine bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bough be seen.

Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER. Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure. One very large one: don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bough to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth of any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callosities, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting solid and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its uses. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for best as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, agent for Perry Co., Pa.

JOB PRINTING of every description neatly and promptly executed at Reasonable Rates at the Bloomfield Times Steam Job Office.

Couldn't See The Joke. Some time ago, a patent-medicine man of St. Louis wrote a confidential letter to a young man in this city, requesting him to send the name of all the very fat men of Little Rock. The young man, with a full appreciation of a happy plan suddenly struck upon sent the names of all the very lean men in town. The effect was very decisive. A short time afterward, a prominent lawyer, whose leanness has ever been a subject of remark, received a letter which read:

"Dear Sir—Our American anti-fat remedy will whittle the stomach from you in six days. Send us twenty-five cents."

The letter was thrown aside, not without a few expressions of ingratitude.

The next mail brought another letter, with the following contents:

"Dear Sir—If you have decided to surrender your obesity, send us the twenty-five cents."

By this time the gentleman was warm. He cursed all the patent medicine men in the world. Several days after this a boy came to the office and handed the lawyer a letter. On the envelope was written, "Opened by mistake, Miss Jackson." The lawyer took the letter and read:

"Dear Sir—We are sorry your abdominal protuberance is giving you so much trouble. This is your own fault, for our American anti-fat will act like a drawing knife in whittling you down."

The lawyer sat for fifteen minutes in deep meditation. He was disturbed by the entrance of a lean minister, who drew a letter from his pocket, and, handing it to the lawyer, remarked:

"I don't understand this." The letter read thus: "Dear Sir—Don't feel that you are always to be a burden to yourself. We can boil off your stomach until you'll be as trim as a racer. Mr. —, a prominent lawyer of your city, who, as you know, is a perfect mountain of flesh, is being treated by us."

The lawyer didn't say a word, but when the minister had gone he addressed the following letter to the St. Louis doctor: "If you ever send me another one of your diabolical documents, I'll stick a six-shooter down your throat and fire every shot into your infernal stomach." The doctor has stopped writing.

"Amazing Grace."

The following is vouched for by one of the most reliable of Philadelphia divines:

A young clergyman having agreed to supply the pulpit of an older brother absent from home, escorted to church the daughter of the pastor, and after seeing her safely in her father's pew, ascended to the pulpit, unconscious that his natural attention to a young lady was sufficient to excite lively imaginations and inquiries in the audience.

Upon reading the hymn to be sung, the young clergyman was surprised to perceive evident efforts in the congregation to suppress laughter. The daughter of his friend possessed the mellifluous name of Grace, and, all unconscious of that fact, he had chosen the hymn beginning with the words "Amazing grace," and proceeded with:

"'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved. How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed!"

"Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come; 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home!"

"Yis, yer riverence, all thim names he called me, an', ses I, 'I wouldn't demane meself to lose me timper wid such a low blackguard,' so I just knocked him over wid a stick and come away."

Elderly gentleman to a Freshman on the train: "You don't have any ticket?" "No, I travel on my good looks." "Then, after looking him over, 'probably you ain't going very far.'"

A young lady of Hartford, who is partly deaf, is in the habit of answering "yes" to everything when a gentleman is talking to her, for fear he might propose to her and she not hear it.

Why is a pig in a parlor like a house on fire? Because the sooner he is put out the better.

A man says the reason he does not marry is, that his house is not large enough to contain the consequences.
