KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE! THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that the bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and used less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the hunch be found. Respectfully yours, N. P. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 10th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed to WASHINGTON SQUARE, with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months to get the small one used in bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no hunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints of limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year. Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for heat as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Sanasburg Falls, Vermont.

Kendall's Spavin Cure is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, agent for Perry Co., Pa.

Josh Billings says two old maids trying to kiss look like two flints trying to strike fire.

The Persians have a saying that "ten measures of talk were sent down to earth and the women took nine."

A new style bonnet has made its appearance in Paris. It is a twine string with a diamond set in the top.

It takes a live man to pull up streams, although a dead one can drift down.

An old tobacco chewer finds that the Bible sustains him in his old habit. He quotes: "He that is filthy, let him be filthy still."

A tantalizing old man in a western town recently left six young widows each $5,000 upon condition that they shall never marry.

"Better is a dinner of herbs where love is," than a whole hoghead of church festival soup where oysters are not.

"My friends," said a political speaker, with a burst of ingenuous eloquence, "I will be honest—"There was a large number of his neighbors present, and the terrific outburst of applause which followed this remark entirely upset the point which the orator was about to introduce.

A clergyman, preaching a sermon on death, concluded with the following observation: "But even death, my brethren, so well deserved by mankind for their sins, the wisdom of Providence has, in its paternal kindness, put at the end of our existence; for only think what life would be worth if death were at the beginning!"

An Irishman who had a pig in his possession, was observed to adopt the constant practice of filling it to repletion one day and starving it the next.—On being asked his reason for doing so, he replied: "Och, sure, and isn't it that I like bacon with a strake o' lane and a strake o' fat equally, one after the t'other."

Ginger is the sleepest of all spices. Didn't you ever hear of the ginger's nap?—Richmond Baton. One of the spiciest things, it is also the best for curing pain. Did you never hear of the gin jerk ache?—Danville Post. And how it mocks at smaller things. You've heard the gin jeer beer?—Richmond State.

"Why do you keep all the caramels yourself, Johnny?" asked a West Philadelphia mother of her son; "why not give Lucy half of them?" "Oh, because," said Johnny.

"Just because I'm a monopolist.—Did not you say t'other day that if papa had not been a monopolist he wouldn't 'a succeeded so well?"

A man told his friend that he had joined the army. "What regiment?" his friend asked. "Oh, I don't mean that; I mean the army of the Lord."

"Ah, what church?" "The Baptists."

"Why," was the reply, "that's not the army; it's the navy."

"Don't waste your time clipping off the branches," said a woodman to his son, "but lay your axe at the root of the tree." And the young man went out and laid his axe at the root of the tree, like a good and faithful boy—and then went a fishing. Truly, there is nothing like filial obedience.

"I say, old lady," said a man on a country road the other day, "did you see a bicycle pass here just now?" "No, I didn't see no kind of sickle, mister; but just now I seed a wagon wheel running away with a man. You kin believe it or not. I wouldn't if I hadn't seed it myself."

An old darkey, who was asked if in his experience prayer had ever been answered, replied: "Well, sah, some pras is answered, and some isn't. 'Pends on wat you axes fur. Just arter de wah, wen it was mighty hard scratchin fo the cullud brederin, I observed dat wenebber I pra de Lord to sen one o' Marsa Peyton 'a fat turkeys fo de ole man, dere was no notice took of de partition; but wen I prayed dat he would sen de ole man fo de turkey, de matter was 'tended to befo sun up de nex mornin', 'dend sartin'!"
