KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE! THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Best Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO. Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory. I have cured four cases, and procured a horse of your age, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bump be felt.

Respectfully yours, F. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. R. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure. One very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse 18 months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bump to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callosities, swellings, swellings, swellings, and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used with strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists. E. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, agent for Perry Co., Pa.

The prettiest girls in Utah used to marry Young.

That awful lad again: "Ma, pa has got the best of you—you can't strike matches on your trouser like he can."

People learn wisdom by experience. A man never wakes up his second baby to see it laugh.

The man who married three sisters in succession excused himself on the ground that he got off with only one mother-in-law.

Tennessee doctors have a hard time of it. If the patient gets well, he rarely pays; if he dies his friends threaten to shoot the doctor.

Some wag says the Americans are a great deal like potato bugs. They will go to Paris "green," and will suffer accordingly.

To what length may the widow go when she desires a new parent for her children? She may go one step-father.

Why is a newspaper like a tooth-brush? Because every one should have one of his own and not borrow his neighbors's.

"Bridget, what became of the tallow I greased my boots with this morning?" "I fried the buckwheats in it!" "Oh, I was afraid you had wasted it."

"Now, John, suppose there's a load of hay on one side of a river, and a jackass on the other, how can the jackass get the hay without getting wet?" "I give it up."

"Well, that's just what the jackass did."

Why was Adam's first day the longest? Because there was no Eve. When did Absalom sleep five in a bed? When he slept with his forefathers.

Why did Job always sleep cold? Because he had miserable comforters.

Mrs. C. told her baby-daughter that she was going into half-mourning for her siter-in-law.

"Why half mourning!" asked the child, "is aunty only half dead?"

"I had no time to stuff the chicken," apologized a landlady to her boarders.

"Mind, madam, it's tough enough as it is," replied one of them.

"Sambo," says Pat, "give us a song."

"I can't sing, massa," replies Sambo. "Can't sing, is it?" responds Pat, "thin why is your leg stuck in the middle of your fut, like a bird, if you can't sing?"

Robinson (after a long whist-bout at the club): "It's awfully late, Brown. What will you say to your wife?"

Brown (in a whisper): "Oh, I shan't say much, you know—'Good morning dear,' or something o' that sort. She'll say the rest."

Country lad: "Sometimes one an' sometimes the other, 'ceptin' when father whacks 'em both, sir!"

Not long ago, in the court of sessions, an Irish lawyer, while arguing with earnestness his cause, stated a point which the court ruled out. "Well," said the attorney, "if it plaze the court, if I am wrong in this, I have another point that is equally as conclusive."

A few Sundays ago we heard a preacher of the Gospel, who holds forth in Chemung county, make use of this vigorous comparison:

"A hypocritical Christian can no more get into heaven than a raccoon can climb a stove-pipe with a tea-kettle tied to his tail."

A lad, who was at play with the son of next door neighbor, asked his companion:

"Is not your father a fool?" "No! Who said that of my father?" was the reply.

"Nobody, as I knows on," responded the knowing urchin, "but mother told me 'other day that I was next door to a fool, and I didn't know whether she meant your father or Nat Smith's."
