KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE! THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District. St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle entirely cured him. He is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 10th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONES SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

Our Stock of NEW GOODS for Men's Wear is complete.—Prices from 12 1/2 cent up. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, Pa.

A little girl was told to spell ferment and give its meaning, with a sentence in which it was used. The following was literally her answer: "Ferment is a verb, signifying to work. I love to ferment in the garden."

"Not one American woman in twenty five can walk five miles," says an English physician. See here, Doc, you just show an American woman a street five miles long, with bonnet-stores every ten rods, and see if she can't walk the whole distance.

A young city chap who thought himself smart, while walking in the country met a demure-looking fellow riding a jaokass. Thinking to have some fun, he saluted the man by saying, "Hallo! how far are you two going?"

He was rather set back by the reply he got, which was, "As far as your sister will carry me."

"Goods at half price," said the sign. "How much is that teapot?" asked the old lady who had been attracted by the announcement. "Fifty cents, mum." "I guess I'll take it then," she said, throwing down a quarter. The dealer let her have the teapot, but took in his sign before another customer could come in.

An old gentleman of the name of Gould, having married a very young wife, wrote political epistle to his friend to inform him of it, and concluded thus: "So you see, my dear sir, though I'm eighty years old, A girl of eighteen is in love with old Gould."

To which his friend replied: "A girl of eighteen may love Gould it is true; But believe me, dear sir, it is gold without U."

Mamma: "Well, Johnny, I shall forgive you this time, and it's very pretty of you to write a letter to say you're sorry."

Johnny: "Yes Ma. Don't tear it up, please."

Mamma: "Why not?"

Johnny: "Because it will do for the next time."

"I say, Sambo, were you ever intoxicated?"

"No, Julius, neber; was you?"

"Well, I was, Sambo."

"Didn't it make you feel good?"

"Yah! but golly, next mornin' I thought my head was a wood shed, and all the niggers in Christendom was splitting wood in it!"

"I never shall give you nothing again," said little she with a pout.

"Well, I sh'd hope you'd give better grammar than that. That's two negatives, sis, and means one affirmative."

"I know better. If I say no twice I don't mean yes once, so now." And the young grammarian was a little confused.

A clergyman in Pittsburg lately married a lady with whom he received the substantial dowry of $10,000 and a fair prospect for money. Soon after, while occupying the pulpit, he gave out a hymn, read the first four stanzas and was reading the fifth,

"Forever let my grateful heart His boundless grace adore," when he hesitated and exclaimed, "Ahem! The choir will omit the fifth verse," and sat down. The congregation, attracted by his apparent confusion, read the remaining lines:

"Which gives ten thousand blessings now And bids me hope for more."

A Savannah woman's curiosity gave her a good scare the other day. She found a black pint bottle in her husband's favorite closet, and of course uncorked and smelt it. She didn't smell anything in particular, but it was too heavy to be empty, and she tipped it over a little. A small green snake fell out into her hand. Whew! didn't she yell, howl, jump, dance and run. The police came, but as one of them expressed it "De snake had went."

He opened the door, cautiously, and poking his head in in a suggestive sort of way, as if there was more following, inquired:

"Is this the editorial rinktum?"

"The what my friend?"

"Is this the rinktum—tinktum—sanktum, or some such place, where editors live?"

This is the editorial room; yes, sir. Come in."

"No I guess I won't come in. I wanted to see what a rinktum was like, that's all. Looks like our garret, only wuss. Good day."
