KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below. From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that lameness was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours, N. P. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I should let you know that I have removed TWO BUNESPAINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure. One very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callosities, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man or for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain to its effects. It is used with strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year. Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Keosauqua Falls, Vermont.

DOE-SKINS. Our Stock of NEW GOODS for Men's Wear is complete.—Prices from 12 1/2 cents up. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, Pa.

An old lady with several unmarried daughters feeds them on fish diet, because it is rich in phosphorus and phosphorus is the essential thing in making matches.

A disreputable son asked his father: "Why is neighbor Smith's liquor shop like a counterfeit dollar?" "I can't tell, my son." "Because you can't pass it," said the boy.

"Now, George, you must divide the cake honorably with your brother Charles." "What is honorable, mother?" "It means that you must give him the largest piece." "Then mother, I'd rather Charley would divide it."

A Sheffield manufacturer is reported to have told his workmen to vote just as they pleased: "In fact I shan't tell you how I am going to vote," he said.

"After it is over I shall have a barrel of beer brought into the yard." "Hear, hear," shouted the men. "But I shan't tap it unless Mr. Wortley, the Tory candidate, is elected."

"Wouldn't you like to have a bow?" said the bold young archer, as they sauntered down the field; and she murmured, "yes," and the absorbed archer said, "What kind of a bow would you prefer?" She quivered a little as she replied, archly, "I think I should prefer yew." and then the young man took it in, and although he was an arrow chested youth, he went to the target and heaved a bull's sigh.

Whittaker's Ears. Who slit his ears? Not I, says the cadet; 'Twasn't me, you may bet; I didn't slit 'em. And the recorder declares on his life That he never owned a jack-knife; And Schofield will swear That he wasn't there; So the only conclusion arrived at Is that nobody slit 'em, But they fell in Whittaker's mouth as he slept, And he bit 'em.

Speaking of epitaphs, Harper's Magazine says a tombstone in South Carolina bears the following: Here lies the body of Robert Gordon, Mouth almighty, and teeth accordin'; Stranger, tread lightly over this wonder: If he opens his mouth, you're gone, by thunder.

At Oxford, New Hampshire one reads as follows: To all my friends I bid adieu. A more sudden death you never knew. As I was leading the old mare to drink, She kicked and killed me quick'n a wink.

A certain young Boston bachelor, wealthy but modest, was taking his bath one morning when his telephone called him. He sprang from the tub and was horrified to hear that a lady, wife of a distinguished New York Democratic banker, was at the other end of the wire, a mile away. It would never do for him to carry on a conversation with a lady in his present condition.—"Excuse me. A thousand pardons!" he cried, aghast. He donned his dressing gown and then repaired to the telephone and conversed without fear of molestation.

There is a lot of stuff said and sung at Sunday-schools without doing the children a particle of good. A lady of Mount Auburn, Ohio, heard a large number of children singing in the street in front of her house. The refrain was: "Hand around the washrag, hand around the washrag." She called several of them to her, and asked where they learned it. At Sunday-school, and said it was "An awfully nice song." She asked them to sing more of it. They did, and she, from her knowledge of Sunday-school hymns, recognized it as one of the sentimental namby-pamby choruses which children are taught without knowing what they mean, the real version being, "Rally round the watchword."

Perhaps no schoolboy's composition has ever put "the father of his country" on a stranger moral basis than this; "George Washington was a little boy that once lived in Verginny what had a nax give him by his old man. Wen Georges old man foun out what George an the nother boy done, he called George to him an he ses, George Washington who cuted the bark ofen the cherry tree? George ses I did. The old man sais you did. George sais I did and I cannot tell a li. Why cant you tell a li sais the old man. Coz sais George if I tell a li this here fellari blow me on and then ill be spanked twict. Thats rite sais the old man wenever yer get in to trouble the esylist way out is the best."
