Brief Items.

19_Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Bat urday. Letters received Mondaymorning scarce ly ever get published.

On Saturday a week, John A. Smith, of Newport, killed twenty-six copper-heads at Fisher's ore bank.

Three naughty boys while gathering huckleberries near Loysville, on Sunday last, killed a rattle snake with fifteen rattles.

Toboyne twp., has a young lady who accomplished the feat of eating twenty roasting ears at one meal, and our informant says they were not small ones.

Rev. L. M. Kumbler of Berwick, Columbia county, filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, in a very acceptable manner. Mr. Edgar preached at Berwick.

John A. Smith, while working in Monday of last Fisher's ore bank on Monday of last week, had the end of one finger mashed by getting it between the pick and a large stone.

Mr. Cloyd N. Rice, son of Mr. Oliver Rice of Centre township, passed a very creditable examination on Monday even-ing last, and on Tuesday was admitted to practice in the several courts of Perry county.

As a stock train coming east, on Sun-day aweek, was a short distance east of Lewistown, the horses contained in one of the cars got to kicking and knocked the side of the car out. Three horses fell out on to the track and were killed.

Miss Arnold, a young lady residing in Harrisburg, was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday morning last, with cramps, but was somewhat better in the evening. During the evening she took a relapse and died about midnight.

Mr. Abram Clouser, formerly of this county, but absent twenty-eight years, astonished his relatives at Newport, with a visit last week. He resides in California, but his friends thought him dead, as they had not heard from him for years. Mr. C. is a brother of Mrs. Josiah Clay.

Private Sale. — A FARM contain-ing 57 acres, with improvements, in Car-roll twp., will be sold at private sale.— Call on or address Amos Foulk, New Brownfold D. Bloomfield, Pa. 304t Weather Report. - B. M'Intire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of July, 1880. Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 67°, and of Barometer, 30 Inches minus 6-tenths. Average of greatest heat, 75° 37', and of cold, 63° 40'. The warmest day was Wednesday 29th, the Thermometer registering 89°, and the coldest, Friday 30th, the mercury sink-ing to 51°. There fell 5 and 5-tenths inches of rain. This was the longest warm spell for over fifteen years.

Broken Bones. - On Friday evening, Mrs. Burd, mother of Mrs. James Mc-Ilhenny, of this place, met with a severe accident. Mrs. McIlhenny had gone out for a few moments, leaving her mother sitting in the room. While she was gone, the old lady took a notion to go up stairs, and when either partly, or all the way up, by some means fell, breaking her left arm and two ribs, and badly bruising her face. When found, she was insensible. Her injuries were shortly attended to by Dr. Strickler, and at this time, Mrs. Burd is getting along as well as could be expected.

Highway Robbery .- On Monday morning of last week, a buckster named Hann from Steelton, was stopped by highwaymen while near Mt. Patrick, and robbed of about $75. The robbers dragged him from his wagon and tied his hands so securely that he had to wait for help from a farmer to release him. Some persons from that vicinity, say they put no faith in the "robbery," and think it a made up story. The Steelton Item, however, seems to think Mr. Hann is a reliable man, and his story entirely correct.

Delegate Elections .- The Democratic voters of each election district of Perry county are requested to meet at their several places of holding elections, on Saturday, August 14, 1880, between the hours of four and seven o'clock P. M., of said day, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Democratic County Convention, which will convene at the Court House, in this borough, on Monday, August 16, 1880, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a County ticket, etc.

The Republican voters of Perry county are requested to meet at their usual places of holding elections, on Saturday August 14, 1880, between the hours of three and six o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing two delegates from each district to represent them in the County Convention to meet at the Court House, on Tuesday, August 17, 1880, at eleven o'clock A. M., to nominate a County ticket, appoint Conferees and transact. such other business as shall be brought before the Convention.

Fire at West Fairview .- About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a dense smoke followed by sheets of flame, was noticed issuing from a row of frame buildings on the main street in West Fairview, opposite this city. Shortly afterwards spectators on the river front observed a bucket brigade forming a line from the scene of conflagration to the river, and passing water up the bank rapidly as possible. Telephonic communication between the office of the West Fairview nail works and Mr. Henry M'Cormick's office in this city was immediately opened, and a request was made for aid from this city. In a short time thereafter word was sent back that the fire was well under control, and that no assistance was needed. Half an hour after the fire broke out it appeared to have spent its fury.

Interment in the Union Cemetery on Saturday. A child of Mr. Broad died of scarlet fever only three days previous to the death of the father. Two more children of the family are lying sick now with the disease that took the life of the father. of the father.

The barn of Rosswell Gross, near Beavertown, was struck by lightning on Tuesday a week and totally destroy-ed. A large annount of hay, all the summer crops and several hundred bushels of wheat of last year's crop were destroyed. No insurance.

Cumberland County .-- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

There was a forcible exodus from the Cumberland jail on Friday evening last. It was the custom of the warden to lock the prisoners in their cells about 10 o'clock, and on this evening a party laid in wait for him and knocked him down made their escape. The Sheriff was in Lonaconing at the time. The prisoners were not recaptured at last accounts.— They were confined on peace warrants, assaults and larceny.—News.

Geo. W. Tetzell died suddenly at his residence in Mechanicsburg, Sunday night, aged about 40 years. Taken with cramp on the streets on Sunday, he took a dose of morphia and retired, first securing a dose should the cramp return. It appears he took the second dose dur-ing the night and was found dead in his bed next morning. ing the night and v bed next morning.

SHEATFER'S VALLEY, Aug. 4, 1880.

SHEAFFIR'S VALLEY, Aug. 4, 1880. On the 2d inst., while W. M. D. Sheaffer and Solomon Bower were absent from home, as Mrs. Bower was on her way to her parents, she happened to discover a dog barking up a small gum tree, and in looking up she saw a large raccoon. Bhe immediately returned to the residence of Mrs. Sheaffer, and the iwo ladies started to make an attack on the animal with a loaded musket, Mrs. Bower to do the firing. As there had been a load in the musket for some time, she concluded to shoot that load without alming at the animal, but the second without alming at the animal, but the second some time, she concluded to shoot that load without aliming at the animal, but the second shot, and from that up to the fifth, each being discharged at the coon. He however still re-mained on the tree, so Mrs. Hower ascended and struck the animal over the head with a club and knocked it to the ground. A fight then ensued between the coon and dog, Mrs. Sheaffer assisting the dog now and then by using a club as a weapon of defense, but strik-ing the dog as often as she struck the coon. However, when Mrs. B, descended the tree, the three managed to get the coon killed. the three managed to get the coon killed. W. M. S.

For THE TIMES.

For THE TIMES. As some of the Pene township people have been inquiring after "Seldom," whether he still lives, in answer I have only to say that his health is much as usual since the oats crop is stored away in the gransry. Our peaceful and happy valley of Allen's Cove has just passed through one of its pleasant seasons, that is the annual picnic or citizens" "havest home." The one this year was held in Fred. Barnett's woods on Saturday, July Sist, and was a success in every respect. Among the many present was Mrs. Osborn and Miss Sallie Barnett, persons who have been confined, almost, to their rooms, and who were taken to Barnett, persons who have been confined, almost, to their rooms, and who were taken to the grove in carriages. We cannot state the pleasure it gave us to see them with us. May they and all of us see many such pleasant days. The scholars were addressed by A. G. White, J. E. Osborn, J. M. White and R. White, J. E. Osborn, J. M. White and R. Fritz. Mr. A. G. White called the attention of the clizens to a pleasant tribute of respect to Mrs. Osborn who had to be carried about in a chair.

to Mrs. Osborn who had to be carried about in a chair. We notice Mr. J. M. White is making great improvements on the old Galley property. He is a go-ahead man and wants things about him to look civilized and enlightened. Benjamin Kiner is the boss carpenter and will be engag-ed with Mr. White for quite a time. Mr. Kiner is a good workman, and very industrious, per-sons would do well to patronize him. "Seldom" and his becassociates have had very good success during the present summer. The Discharged .- The Grand Jury, in the case of F. B. Hoover, arrested on the charge of murder, ignored the bill, and Mr. Hoover was discharged from custody. The charge seems to have been the result of spite on the part of Miss Peck's parents.

Robbery in Duncannon .- On last Friday night, the hardware store of John R. Cromleigh, of Duncannon, was broken into by some as yet unknown persons, by prying open the front door. The villians carried off two double-barrel shot guns, a dozen or more razors, several revolvers, a lot of cartridges a can of rifle-powder, a diamond used for cutting glass, and a lot of shoe pegs. The shoe pegs were strewn along the street at the upper end of the town. Mr. Cromleigh's loss is about $150,_

The store of Mr. Uhler, at Juniata Bridge, Penn township, was entered the same night, and about $8 worth of goods stolen. It is supposed that the same parties who robbed Cromleigh's store were concerned in it.

The thieves broke into the shop of Mr. P. F. Michener, and stole the tools to commit the robbery at Mr. Cromleigh's hardware store.- Record.

White Bed Spreads. — An assortment varying in price from $1.00 to $4.00 at MORTIMER's.

At a late hour last evening it was ascertained that the property destroyed embraced the Lutheran church, four frame tenant houses and several small stables. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The loss is variously estimated at from $10,000 to 15,000.

A number of Harrisburg people residing in the upper section of the city, repaired to the scene of the conflagration, in boats. The fire was plainly visible from the lookout of the standpipe at the water works .- Patriot of the 3rd inst.

Juniata County .- We copy the follow ing from the Juniata county papers of last week :

A number of sheep have died recently for Wm. Long, residing near McCoys-ville, and for Wm. P. Gruver, in Spruce Hill township. It is a new and very fatal disease. The sheep appear to be perfectly well up to the time they are overtaken with the disease and soon die after becoming affected after becoming affected.

On Saturday last as Mr. Jacob Zeigler, of Port Royal, was driving along Rail-road Avenue, Patterson, in a buggy, the horse took fright at the noise made by steam escaping from an engine and ran away, throwing Mr. Zeigler out and wrecking the buggy very badly. Be-coming detached from the buggy, the horse ran across the river bridge at full speed and was captured in Mifflin. Mr. Z. escaped without injury, but the horse has become quite lame since his es-capade. capade.
